THANKSGIVING SHOULD BE A GALA DAY FOR MOTHER

If She Plans Dinner Menu Well in Advance She'll
Have as Much Fun as Anybody Else

Thanksgiving weather — and the clan's already gathering. The kitchen is the most important room in the house just now and will continue to be until the great day comes and the dining room steps into its own.

It's fun, but it's work for somebody — usually Mother. Of course she loves it, but there's no use in making it any harder than it need be. With a little careful planning and help from the family she'll have time to enjoy herself along with everybody else.

Long experience has taught us that it is better to plan the whole dinner at least several days ahead of time. Order the turkey then, to be delivered the day before Thanksgiving, preferably drawn and cleaned.

Two or three days before you will be needing them, polish the silver, bring out and polish the turkey platter, choose the tablecloth and be sure that all china glassware and accessories are ready. Order the flowers, too, or decide upon another centerpiece.

Get Staples Early

It's a good idea, to replenish all such staples as salt and sugar the first part of the week to relieve your grocer from too heavy deliveries at the last minute. Wednesday is sure to be a busy day for you, too, with its extra marketing and preparations for Thursday.

Wednesday afternoon stuff and truss your turkey. You can even cook some of the vegetables on Wednesday. If you are having creamed onions, for instance, cook the onions and then on Thursday you will need only to make the cream sauce and reheat the whole. Squash too may be baked on Wednesday. Reheat in the oven when ready to serve.

The pies should be ready for baking early Thursday morning before the oven is needed for the turkey. Stew the pumpkin and run it through colander on Wednesday. You can mix the pie crust, wrap it in waxed paper and put it in the refrigerator until Thursday morning, too.

25 Minutes Per Pound

Allow four hours for roasting a ten-pound turkey, about 25 minutes to the pound. Roast in a moderate oven — 375 degrees F. Place breast down on the rack of the roaster. Even with a covered roaster it's a good plan to baste every half hour with ½ cup butter melted in ½ cup boiling water. Sprinkle with salt and pepper when turkey has been in oven thirty minutes. Allow ½ teaspoon salt to each pound of fowl.

Baked oranges make a delicious accompaniment for roast turkey. The oranges are boiled for thirty minutes before baking. This makes the skin soft and tender and prevents too strong flavor. Cool and cut off slice from blossom end. Remove centre pith and crowd into each orange 1 teaspoon butter and 1 teaspoon sugar. Bake in a closely covered baking dish in a moderate oven until very tender but not broken. It will take 1½ hours. Add water to half cover fruit.

Dinner Menu

Celery	Pickles	Olives
Roast Turkey	Oyster Stuffing
Mashed Potatoes	Giblet Gravy
Creamed Onions	Baked Squash
Grape Fruit and Endive Salad
Pumpkin Pie or Mince Pie
Nuts	Fruit
Milk	Coffee
Baked Winter Squash

Cut squash in pieces two inches square, remove seeds and stringy portion, place in dripping pan, sprinkle with salt and pepper and allow for each square ½ teaspoon molasses and ½ teaspoon melted butter. Bake 50 minutes, or until soft in a moderate oven, keeping covered the first half hour of cooking.

Pumpkin Pie

1½ cups steamed and strained pumpkin, 2-3 cup brown sugar, ½ teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, 1½ cups milk, ½ cup cream. Mix ingredients in order and bake in one crust.

WOMEN COLLECT FLORA ON TRIP IN ALASKA

VANCOUVER, B. C. — Completing one of the most hazardous overland journeys undertaken by women in recent years, Mrs. J. Norman Henry and her daughter Josephine, of Philadelphia have reached Wrangell, Alaska, after travelling 1,000 miles on horseback and afoot from Fort St. John.

Mrs. Henry's plan was to collect rare flora for various American museums and she reports unusual success. She collected more than 600 herbarium specimens of about 250 varieties. She has specimens of 40 mosses. K. P. McCusker, topographer, travelled with the party to map the country.

Leaving Fort St. John in the Peace River area, the Henry expedition headed for the mountains by way of Halfway River and Laurier Pass. Going north, they crossed Prophet and Musqua Rivers and turned west at Racing River, where they crossed. The party reached McDames Creek Sept. 22 and reached Telegraph Creek October 2.

The largest scallop fishery on Canada's Atlantic coast is in the Bay of Fundy. The larger number of vessels and boats engaged in this fishery operate from the port of Digby, N. S.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 19—Gordon Wallace, Canadian welterweight champion, may be given a shot at Barney Ross' title if he can dispose of the Filipino battler, Ceferino Garcia, when they meet here next Wednesday.

Abe Foley, Chicago promoter, has opened negotiations with Wallace for the Vancouver fighter's services should he be successful in upsetting the Filipino who recently floored Ross twice in their San Francisco bout.

Alberta's whitefish catch 1,750,000 pounds, showed an increase of more than 380,000 pounds in 1934.
