

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

A wedding of much interest to many friends is taking place this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Perley, South Devon, when their daughter Ada Marion Perley will be united in marriage to Chester Arthur Dorcas son of Melvin Dorcas and the late Mrs. Dorcas formerly of Stanley, now of Devon.

Given in marriage by her father the bride will be gowned in shell pink taffeta with train. She will wear a hat in ice blue, slippers to match and will carry Onobolia roses and maiden-hair fern. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. D. L. Kennedy and the Wedding and Recessional Marches will be played by Miss Betty Perley sister of the bride and who, with Angus Morrison will sign the register. Following the ceremony a reception will be held. The bride's table is centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, pink and white tapers, and tiny vases of sweet peas at each end of the table. The guests will be seated at small tables which are centred with pink and white sweet peas. Miss Lueila Brown will cut the ices. Serving will be Miss Lena Estabrooks, Miss Grace McPherson, Miss Annie McGill, Miss Florence Bailey, Miss Betty Perley and Miss Evelyn Perley. The bride and groom will later leave on a motoring trip to Hampton Highlands and Bangor, Maine. For travelling the bride is wearing a tea-rose knitted suit with brown accessories.

The house is prettily decorated with summer flowers, the drawing room being featured with an altar of flowers before which the bridal party will stand during the ceremony. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, the bride having recently been guest of honor at several social functions.

Mrs. H. J. Fraser of Boston, has arrived to attend the wedding of her nephew who is one of the principals in the Dorcas-Perley wedding.

SAWMILL RAZED IN NORTON BLAZE

NORTON, Kings County, August 21.—The stationary sawmill owned by Andrew Teakles and Sons, Norton, was destroyed by fire at noon today. The Norton fire department responded to a call but the fire had gained such headway that little could be done to save the property. A quantity of cut lumber and shingles were also destroyed.

Mrs. Mary A. Grannan Died At Her Home Last Evening

Mrs. Mary A. Grannan, wife of William Grannan passed away at her home in Devon last evening at the age of 74 years, after a brief illness. She had been in failing health for three months. Born at St. John, she was a daughter of Timothy and Katherine O'Leary Kigby and resided at Stanley before coming to Devon to reside, thirty-eight years ago. Mrs. Grannan was very highly respected, and her death will come as a shock to her hosts of warm personal friends.

Surviving is her husband, William Grannan of Devon; one brother, Philip Kirby of Cross Creek. The funeral will take place on Thursday morning with High Mass of Requiem to be celebrated at St. Anthony's church at ten o'clock Daylight Saving Time, by Rev. Father Donahoe. Interment will be in the Sunnyside cemetery.
