RULES of THE CONTEST

You may have your entry exhibit returned after judging, for your own use.

IT COSTS YOU NOTHING TO ENTER — YOU NEED SELL NOTHING TO QUALIFY HERE IS NO ENTRANCE FEE

All that it will cost you is a few cents worth of materials and a little extra time
And there are many Valuable Prizes

1. Attach tag with name and address to the article entered.
2. State also which style of cooking you believe best, i. e., "MOTHER'S DAY" or the "MODERN WAY." State whether you want your entry returned or whether you wish it donated to the Children's Aid.
3. All articles must be actually cooked, not just recipes.
4. Turn in your entries weekly before 5.00 p. m. each Wednesday to the office of the Mar. Electric Co., Ltd.
5. You may cook anything from a roast chicken to fudge.
6. Wrap the article entered securely if possible. If unable to do so place in a strong open box.
7. The Prize Winners and those receiving Honorable Mention are to furnish us with the recipes for the article entered upon request for publication each week.
8. You are only allowed to enter one article each week but may enter something every week for the 12 weeks if you desire. This rule means that everyone has 12 chances to qualify as a contestant for the Main prizes at the final public showing and judging to be held at the store of Colwell and Jennings at the end of the 12 weeks and the final conclusion of the contest.

DON'T SHATTER THAT BELIEF

One of the things that has most impressed us since beginning this contest is the number of men who have said to us, "I must get my wife," or "my girl friend," or "my daughter" to enter something in this contest. You know she's a pretty good cook. Invariably a complacent smile has accompanied the statement, together with that peculiar sideways dip of the head, which intimates that the gentleman does not wish you to mistake a plain statement of fact for idle boasting. One feels that to venture even the shadow of a doubt would be as absurd as questioning a man on his religion. It is an article of faith with him, something altogether beyond argument. You know if you want to be friends, you must agree. Such confidence is touching in these days of salads and Campbell's soups. Ladies, do not betray that confidence! Enter the contest today!
