NEWS OF FREDERICTON
TWENTY-ONE YEARS AGO

(From the files of The Semi-Weekly Herald of Saturday, April 16, 1892.)

BROUGHT HOME—Miss Nellie Allen has been brought home from Shediac, where she has been ill with typhoid fever. She is recovering.

THE BEST BEEF—The farmers of Kingsclear will be pleased to learn that the best beef on sale at St.
 John during the Easter week is from that parish.

NEW JUDGE—Hon. D. L. Han-nington was sworn in on Wednesday by Chief Justice Allen, a judge of the Supreme Court and took his seat on the bench.

GETTING BETTER—Mr. John Mc-Donald, one of the well known merchants of this city, has been quite ill for some time past but his symptoms are becoming more favorable.

BRIDGE BUILT—Robert Logan, who has charge of the construction of the Eel River bridge, expects to complete it by the middle of next week.

THEY STAY HERE—The Mon-ton Transcript is bragging because a robin has made its appearance there. These birds like Fredericton and its surroundings so well that they remain here all winter.

CLAN GORDON—Donald Wylie, the braw piper of Clan Gordon, is to be fitted out with a first-class set of bagpipes. The order has been placed with J. F. McMurray and the music is to arrive today.

THE FIRST TUG—The Eva Johnson, R. A. Estey's tug, is the first vessel to get at work here this season. She took a trial trip on Thursday. Thoroughly refitted and repaired, she is now in good shape for the summer's work. (The Eva Johnson is still in commission, now being owned by Capt. Martin Currier of Oromocto. She was the first steamer to arrive this season.)

ONLY A HAT—Gave Bear and another Indian went out on the ice on Wednesday half way across the river, and got a hat that had been blown from the bridge. It was worth only three dollars and the owner can get it by paying that sum.

COUNTY OFFICIALS—His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to appoint Thomas W. Pur-vis to be Labor Act Commissioner and Seizing Officer in the Parish of Southampton.

VISITORS TO THE CITY—Among those who have visited the city during the week are:—Judges Tuck and King, Prof. Max Sterne, C. A. Stockton, A. B. Connell, H. L. Sturdee, W. W. Wells, John Stewart, A. A.
 Brewer, D. W. Brown and W. Walsh.

NEW AGENT—Mr. B. M. Merritt of Gagetown, has been appointed agent in this city of the Star S. S.
 Line, superseding Capt. Akerley who has been a familiar figure at the steamboat wharf for many years.

PRINCE WILLIAM RAILWAY—The incorporation of the Trunk Line Railway Company for the construction of a through line from St. John to Edmundston now makes it probable that the Prince William section will be put under construction at once.
 As it stands at present the company having control of this portion of the road must begin and continue construction within the year or the road will be built by the Trunk Line.
 The Centreville Railway will likely also be a part on of the through line.

FOUND DEAD—Edward Peters, a colored man in the employ of Benjamin Kilburn of flingsclear, was found dead in his bed Tuesday. He was about seventy years of age and had been with Mr. Kilburn for over fifty years, a faithful, industrious old man.

CAPT. ROBINSON'S DEATH—The death of Capt. W. H. Robinson on Friday, 18th ult., is announced. He was killed in an engagement at Tambi, Sierra Leone. Capt. Robinson was a native of Fredericton and a graduate of the Royal Military College of Canada. He commanded the Royal Engineers at Sierra Leone.

PRESENTATION—Miss Young, who has gone to Minneapolis, was presented with a handsome ring by the choir and members of St. Paul's Church.

HIS OLD POSITION—W. S. Hooper, who has had control of the Barker House for a few weeks, has returned to St. John and resumed his old position in the express business.

THEY ALL GATHER THERE—The city clerk's office is a centre of gravity to which all the floating particles of the permanent or transient population drift during some hour of the day. Charlie is always in good humor and Hugh is ever ready for a chat on the latest news from the horse-world. Then Bill from below town haunts the place as a mud-turtle the shady banks of a brook and perhaps, Ald. George McDonald calls in to describe the latest design yet out for a stone-crusher. Bill prefers a wooden block pavement and the question is left to Ald. John from up town who calls around generally about eleven o'clock. Perhaps the tailor alderman or his Nemesis Herman has also got in by this time, and then the pros and cons of how
