

Some Growing Children

are under size—under weight. Some grow tall and thin, others are backward in studies—pale and frail—improper assimilation is usually the cause.

If your children are not rugged and ruddy and rosy—bubbling with energy and vim at all times, you owe them SCOTT'S EMULSION—nature's concentrated nourishment to build body, bone, muscle and brain.

Children need SCOTT'S EMULSION to progress.

BREWERS MILLS

Brewers Mills, Jan. 4.—See ng items in your paper from other places I thought I would ask you for a small space.

We have had a big rain which leaves the roads in bad condition again.

Mrs B. M. Hanson of Millville is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Alphonse Crouse.

Mrs. Frank Lovean of Plaster Rock is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. C. Mair.

We are very sorry to report Mrs. Chesley Mair on the sick list. Dr. O. E. Moorehouse is in attendance. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. James Estey is on the sick list with quincy and sore throat.

Mrs. Frank Lovean, Mrs. C. Mair and Mrs. B. M. Hanson paid Mrs. Elias Brewer a flying visit.

Mrs. Wesley Moorehouse visited Mrs. C. Mair New Year's day.

Miss Addie Crouse is talking of going to St. Marys to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Crouse are wearing broad smiles—it's a girl.

Miss Beatrice Mair spent last evening with her cousin, Miss Lavena Estey.

Knitting seems to be the order of the day.

DOWVILLE

Dowville, Jan. 8.—The Christmas of 1912 has gone down into history and will be remembered as the year in which the long expected St. John Valley Railway was commenced. The day was fine and there were many happy family gatherings.

A number of people in this village have been seriously ill of la grippe, but by the constant attendance of Dr. McIntyre all are improving.

Mr. Harry Wright returned from the lumber woods in Patten, Me., very ill and was immediately moved to the Fisher Hospital where an operation was performed. His recovery is hoped for.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Shaw was brightened by the advent of a young son on New Year's Day. Mrs. C. Shaw has returned from Our village school resumed work on Monday with Miss Kate Parker of Fredericton, as teacher.

Mildred Dow, who was so badly burned three months ago, is not recovering as fast as her friends would wish.

LOWER HAINESVILLE

Lower Hainesville, Jan. 6.—Still we are having no snow to amount to anything, which makes it good for those who are yarding lumber.

Wagons are still seen.

Sickness is quite prevalent in our midst. Grippe has made its appearance and has claimed a number of victims already. Some are recovering while others are not.

Mr. E. Haines had the misfortune to have his foot quite badly jammed which laid him up from his operations three or four days.

The Misses Alberta Reynolds, Beatrice and Susie Webb and Ethel McKiel are still home on their vacations.

Miss Velma Parks is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Haines.

School re-opened this morning with Mrs. Arthur Tucker of Middle Hainesville, in charge.

Messrs. R. Chute and H. Elliott are doing a rushing business getting telephone poles and timber.

NEW MARKET

New Market, Jan. 1.—Christmas has come and gone but having no sleighing made it pass more quietly.

Our school has closed until March first. Our teacher, Miss Etta Mills had a large Christmas tree and the children well loaded with candy and other good things recitations and Christmas hymns brought examination day to a close the number of visitors being present spoke in high terms of the teacher and in which

WILL WHITNEY RECENT OR RESIGN

Ottawa, January 8.—'Partisan suicide' is the caption of a Citizen editorial today in which it reaffirms its position against Premier Whitney on tax reform. It says in part:

"The action of the executive committee of the Conservative association of this city censuring the Citizen, the Ottawa Journal and other Conservative papers for daring to impugn the wisdom and oppose the stand of Sir James Whitney in the matter of tax reform, is a bit of puerile partisanship which cannot in all reason, be supposed to represent the intelligent opinion of the rank and file of the party. If it did, there would be nothing short of party suicide ahead."

Without in the least apologizing for its actions in the matter, The Citizen again declares that interests of the Conservative party in Ontario demand either a radical change in the attitude of Sir James toward the irrepressible reform in the Ontario Assessment Act, or a speedy change in the party leadership.

FORMER MARYSVILLE MAN JOINS THE BENEDICTS

Dorchester, Mass., Jan. 8.—The parsonage of the Haney Memorial Baptist Church of this city was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, when Mr. J. Thomas Wister of Waltham Mass., formerly of Marysville, N.B., was united in marriage to Miss Maude Caroline Dickey of the same city, but formerly of Tower Hill, N.B. Rev. A. A. Ridout performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in a travelling suite of taupe velvet. Mr. and Mrs. Wister, during their residence in Waltham, made a host of friends who join in congratulations. They left by the evening train for Marysville, N. B., where they will spend the winter.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR BILIOUS STOMACH GAS, HEADACHE OR WASTE-CLOGGED BOWELS

This Harmless, Delicious Fruit Laxative is More Effective Than Calomel, Salts, Oil or Cathartics to Cleanse the Stomach, Liver and 30 Feet of Bowels

Foul breath, coated tongue, dull, throbbing headache, stomach sour and full of gases, indigestion, biliousness and a sallow complexion, mean that your thirty feet of bowels are clogged with waste matter; that these drainage organs of the body are obstructed; liver stagnant and stomach full of poisonous gases, sour bile and undigested, fermenting food not properly carried off.

Most of our ills are caused by constipated bowels. We all need a laxative sometimes; nobody can doubt that. The only question is, Which one is the best? That that isn't a question any more. Syrup of Figs, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, must act in a harmless, gentle and natural way. Syrup of Figs can be constantly used without injury. Its action is the action of fruit—of eating coarse food—of taking exercise. It is a true and effective liver and bowel cleanser and regulator.

Most people dread physic—they shrink from the taste and after effects. Syrup of Figs is delicious, and, besides, you don't realize you have taken anything until morning, when all the clogged up waste of the system is gently but thoroughly moved on and out of the bowels without gripping of weakness.

Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Exlir of Senna." This is the old reliable and only genuine. Refuse, with contempt, any other Fig Syrup recommended as good. They are imitations meant to deceive you. Read the label carefully and look for the name California Fig Syrup Company.

BORDEN'S VIEW ON IMPERIAL DEFENCE

(Halifax Chronicle.)

Among many notable utterances which have been made by Canadian public men since 1909, when the question of Canada's participation in naval defences became a practical issue in Canada, there is one which is of special interest and importance at this time. A member of parliament, speaking in the House of Commons on January 12, 1910, less than three years ago, took the ground that the admiralty proposal for a direct contribution from Canada was not the best one for this country to adopt. He used this striking language on that occasion:

"It has been suggested that instead of the organization of a Canadian naval force, there should be a system of annual contributions from this country to the Mother Country, and I am free to admit that, from the strategical point of view, I would be inclined to agree with the view of the admiralty that this would be the best way for the great self-governing dominions of the empire to make their contributions."

"But, sir, from a constitutional and political standpoint, I am opposed to it, for many reasons. In the first place, I do not believe that it would endure. In the second place it would be a source of friction. It would become a bone of contention. It would be subject to criticism as to the character and the amount of contribution in both parliaments. It would not be permanent or continuous. It would conduce, if anything could conduce, to severing the present connection between Canada and the empire."

"Permanent co-operation in defence in my opinion, can only be accomplished by the use of our own material, the employment of our own people, the development and utilization of our own skill and resourcefulness, and above all, by impressing upon the people a sense of responsibility for their share in international affairs."

The objections here so vigorously urged to the contribution scheme came from a gentleman who was then leader of the opposition, to wit, Mr. R. L. Borden! Are not, The Winnipeg Free Press asks, his arguments then set forth, worth weighing and considering today? Is not the policy to which he has given his adhesion today the very policy to whose dangers he was acutely alive in 1910? And he justifies his present stand by quoting the opinions of the admiralty!

In one of his campaign speeches Woodrow Wilson made an acute observation upon the limitations of experts. He said in effect that their findings on questions of public importance were of value only if they were weighed with other considerations by public men capable of appreciating all the factors modifying or affecting the problem, if accepted as conclusions in themselves they were mostly wrong.

"That," says The Free Press, "is a true word which ought not to be lost on Canadians at the present time. The admiralty in their zeal for amassing material strength under their immediate control—which is their particular charge—may do the empire, unconsciously, a dis-service. Nor will they be in the least culpable. The responsibility for any such mistake will rest upon the public man who failed to take into account those 'constitutional and political' aspects to which Mr. Borden made reference in his speech in the Canadian parliament in January, 1910."

Bangor, Me., Railway and Electric Company has just conceded an increase, which approximates two cents an hour.

A permanent exhibit of devices and means to prevent accidents to workmen has been opened at Copenhagen, Denmark.
