"IF WE WERE IN POWER WE WOULD ENDEAVOR TO FIND THAT OUT, TO GET A PLAIN UNVARNISHED ANSWER TO THAT QUESTION (WHETHER AN 'EMERGENCY' EXISTED), AND IF THE ANSWER TO THAT QUESTION, BASED UPON THE ASSURANCE OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE MOTHER COUNTRY AND THE REPORT OF THE NAVAL EXPERTS OF THE ADMIRALTY WERE SUCH—AND I THINK IT WOULD BE SUCH—AS TO DEMAND INSTANT AND EFFECTIVE ACTION BY THIS COUNTRY, THEN I WOULD APPEAL TO PARLIAMENT FOR IMMEDIATE AND EF-

PRETTY SMALL BUSINESS

The dismissal of Mr. Albion R. Foster by the Flemming Government from the office of Provincial constable is the smallest piece of low down politics that any government ever was guilty of. There is no salary attached to the office but in the case of a trustworthy and efficient peace officer such as Mr. Foster has proved himself to be, it was no doubt of some assistance to him in the task of earning a livelihood. There was no complaint against him; he discharged his duties in a faithful and fearless manner, yet the Flemming government found it necessary to deprive him of his commission. The Royal Gazette tells us he was dismissed for "cause." The only cause that can be shown in his case is that he is a Liberal and a personal friend of Mr. F. B. Carvell, M.P. In order to add insult to injury the Flemming Government following a biblical precedent, crucified Mr. Foster along with two malefactors, who had proved themselves unworthy of the position, and it is scarcely necessary to say that they were appointees of this very administration. Attorney General Grimmer although a strong Conservative is also a fair-minded man and knowing him as we do, we do not believe that he would be a party to such a petty exhibition of spite as has been manifested in this case. We have too much respect for the man to believe for one moment that he had anything to do with the dismissal of Mr. Foster and readily exonerate him from all blame in the matter. The dismissal was made at the instigation of the Sanctimonious Premier Flemming, who is beyond a doubt the greatest wind merchant and the smallest big man who ever held office in any government. He has some henchman in Carleton County who have found Mr. Foster a troublesome competitor and it was to please them that he has been removed from office. It is a pretty small piece of business and reflects no credit upon Premier Flemming or his administration.

COMMODORE STEWART'S LAMENT

It is beginning to look as if the gallant Commodore Stewart, M.P.P., had arrived at the conclusion that his efforts to oust Hon. John Morrissey from the Provincial cabinet are not likely to be crowned with success. In the last number of his paper the Chatham World, he moralizes on the situation as follows:

"One of the peculiarities of our governmental system is, that when anybody gets into the Executive Council nobody seems able to get him out, no matter how great an ass he may make of himself. Legislatures change, but so long as the Government has a majority, its make-up changes not, unless by death or advancement to a higher office. And this is one of the factors that make for the overthrow of even good Governments. The people have to kick the whole body out to get rid of one or two obnoxious ministers. There should be a shake-up after every general election. Nonentities who happen to get into office shouldn't be allowed to stay there more than four years at the longest." Poor Commodore! His case is undoubtedly a sad one. The presence of Honest John in the cabinet is a bitter pill for him to swallow. But he should not lose heart. He should read the story of Bruce and the spider and begin all over again.

FECTIONE AID, AND IF PARLIAMENT DID NOT GIVE IMMEDIATE AND EFFECTIVE AID I WOULD APPEAL FROM PARLIAMENT TO THE PEOPLE OF THE COUNTRY."—R. L. Borden in the House of Commons in 1910; reiterated by Premier Borden in the Commons on December 5, 1912.

Things have become so intolerable under Flemming rule, that we find government officials throwing up their jobs and going west. It is not a healthy state of affairs, and the worst feature of it is that the officials, who go are the ones that the province can ill afford to lose.

Mr. J. C. Turgeon, son of O. Turgeon, M.P.P. for Gloucester, and a brother of the Attorney General of Alberta, has been chosen by the Liberals to contest the constituency of Hardisty for the Alberta Legislature.

The gallant and successful fight put up by Hon. Dr. Pugsley against the efforts of the Tories to enforce gag methods in Parliament has won for him new friends and admirers all over Canada.

Hon. A. G. McKay who led the Liberals in the last Ontario legislature has been nominated by the Liberals of Edmonton for the Alberta House.

PRESENTATION

father and was wont to look to you for counsel in all matters requiring its attention. Not only in consideration of the length of service but more especially in view of the spirit of brotherhood which has always characterized your ministry and personal relationships, the Association deems it fitting to say that you have won an enduring place in its membership, and we desire to emphasize the conviction that your going from the City will not be felt by any, more keenly than your brethren of this Association. You have stood for freedom of speech, the dignity of public discussion, the honor of the Christian ministry and loyalty to the Kingdom of God both within and without your own denomination. The City has had in you a warm-hearted advocate and defender, and the people of every Church a willing helper in times of need. In parting with you we do so feeling that you have enriched our life and contributed to the uplift of the Kingdom. We shall treasure the memory of these days spent together. We send you forth strong in all that makes for an efficient ministry and we shall follow you with our prayers and best wishes and rejoice in your successes. permit us to say that we trust that Mrs. Macdonald, who has shared with you so many of the joys and sorrows of these years, carries away many memories of enduring friendships and that she may be blessed with health and happiness in your new field of work.
In asking you to accept this cane with our best wishes, we are not animated by the thought that it symbolized your ministry here or will symbolize your ministry at Ottawa but rather as symbolic of the fact that during your ministry here we leaned upon you, but never found you a broken reed.

"God be with you, God be with you, As the bright years speed away Every fairest, sweetest blessing May He shower upon your way."

God be with you, God be with you, And through bright years yet to come May the flowers of love and friendship Round your sunny pathway bloom."

In the name and on behalf of the FREDERICTON MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION
Joseph E. Wilson, President.
Chas. Flemington, Secretary.

BANKER MONTGOMERY
RELEASED FROM PRISON

Pittsburg, Pa., March 28—William Montgomery, former banker and prominent clubman of Pittsburg, was released today from penitentiary, where he had served about four and one-half years of a fifteen-year sentence imposed upon him for misapplying the funds of the Allegheny National Bank of this city, of which he was cashier. The Bank failed in 1908 with a shortage of a million dollars. All losers have been repaid, and President Taft, as one of his last official acts, commuted Montgomery's fifteen-year sentence on the ground that it was out of proportion to that imposed in similar cases.

NOTABLE WEDDING AT AIKIN

Aiken, S. C., March 27—Bishop Northrop of South Carolina this afternoon performed the marriage ceremony which made Miss Celestine Dulsis Hitchcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock of New York city, the bride of Julian L. Peabody, also of New York. The wedding took place at Mon Repos, the winter home of the bride's parents in Aiken.
