VERY REGRETTABLE STATE OF AFFAIRS

(St. John Times)

The fact that there is no opposition in the present legislature makes it smooth sailing for the government. The provincial secretary delivered his budget yesterday and no criticism was offered by any member of the house, which immediately adopted a motion to go into supply. This is not a healthy condition of affairs, but the people of the province have said that it suits them and they should know what they want. The statement submitted by Hon. Mr. McLeod shows that with increased revenue there is increased expenditure and a steady increase in the provincial debt. He was able to say, however, that the increase in debt last year was smaller than usual, although next year there will again be a very large increase. With regard to the expenditure, there will, of course be no critical examination of the items, since there is no opposition and since the members generally, supporting the government and desiring favors at its hands, will be quite willing to accept the reports as submitted. Effective criticism can of course best be made on the floor of the house by representatives who are familiar with the conditions in the position to say whether the government had been prudent or reckless in its methods of expenditure. When there is no opposition and no criticism, the condition of affairs is not such as to guarantee either prudence or economy; but that unfortunately is the condition of affairs in New Brunswick today. It is perfectly obvious that a government which is not watched by an alert opposition will find it more difficult to resist the importunities of its supporters, some of whom are probably less concerned about the welfare of the province at large than about some deal in which they or their friends are personally interested. However well meaning the members of a government may be under such conditions as prevail in New Brunswick at present, the odds are in favor of extravagance.

NO INDIGESTION. GAS OR A SOUR STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" Stops Fermentation and Makes Your Upset Stomach Feel Fine in Five Minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.
