JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

TELLS REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE WITH ZAM-BUK.

SUFFERED FOR YEARS WITH ECZEMA
& ULCERS NOTHING SEEMED ABLE TO DO
HIM ANY GOOD. ZAM-BUK CURED HIM.

Mr. J. E. Arsenault, a Justice of the Peace, and station master at Wellington, on the Prince Edward Island Railway, says:

"Four years ago, I slipped in the station and fell on a freight truck, sustaining a bad cut on the front of my leg. I thought this would heal, but instead of doing so it developed into a bad ulcer and later into a form of eczema which spread very rapidly and also started on the other leg. Both legs became so swollen and sore that I could only go about my work by having them bandaged. My doctor said I must stop work and lay up. After six months of this trouble I consulted another doctor, but with no better result. I tried all the ointments, liniments and lotions I heard of, but instead of getting better I got worse. This was my condition when I got my first box of Zam-Buk. Greatly to my delight that first box gave me relief. I continued to apply it to the sores, and day by day they got better.

"I could see that at last I had got hold of something which would cure me, and in the end it did. It is now over a year since Zam-Buk worked a cure in my case, and there has been no return of the eczema or any trace of it. It would be impossible to find a case where the sores were worse than those on my limbs, and I think Zam-Buk is a marvellous healing balm or it could not have cured me as it did when all else failed."

WHAT ZAM-BUK CURES.

The above is but one example of the wonderful cures that Zam-Buk is daily working. Purely herbal in composition, this great balm is a sure cure for all skin diseases, cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, blood-poisoning, varicose sores, piles, scalp sores, ringworm, inflamed patches, cuts, burns and bruises.

All druggists and stores sell at 50c. a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

MR. BORDEN WAS FLOORED

derstand clearly for the country. Do you rule that I cannot ask the premier, who is responsible for a direct pledge to the people, when this House is considering the rights of one of the great telegraphic systems, whether he has still a policy on the matter?"

There was another stormy series of cries for "order" from the Conservative allies. Finally Mr. Blondin said he did not object to the question but to the general discussion.

"I am at a loss to follow the reasoning of the gentleman in the chair," commented Mr. MacDonald.

"I propose to press my question to the premier, who is the man who gave the pledge. Has he any policy at all?"

"Carried," said the premier.

"Oh, no," persisted Mr. MacDonald. "I press my question before this clause, which deals with the matter at issue, is carried. Has the premier now any policy at all?"

"I have already answered," retorted Premier Borden, much annoyed.

"The premier has intimated he will not answer on this bill," responded Mr. MacDonald. "When will he make his announcement?"

"It will not be made tonight," exclaimed Mr. Borden, amid a roar of Liberal laughter.

"If not tonight, then when?" persisted Mr. MacDonald, while the government benches continued their endeavor to hawl him down.

"You will learn later," the premier declared, again appealing for the carrying of the clause.

"This hasn't anything to do with the bill," complained Hon. Mr. Cochrane.

"It has much to do with it," replied Mr. MacDonald, who proceeded, amid the noise from the government benches and cheers by the Liberals.

"When this government finds itself embarrassed and does not want to give information which is due the people, we are told that we are not in order. Why should not the Canadian people have the fullest information. I have the right, as one of their representatives, to ask the question and to comment upon the answer if it is not sufficient and it is well that the country should understand that the government not only has made no attempt to fulfill the pledge and promise made but that it has absolutely failed to give any reason or explanation for its failure."

There was further persistent commotion and continued government cries for order. Mr. Blondin supported them.

"It is best to remember, Mr. Chairman," was the Nova Scotia Scot's final warning to the Nationalist, "that because gentlemen in the back benches shout it does not mean that you have to rule me out of order."
