IS BACK AT WORK IN THE WOODS

John McElroy's Heart Disease Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills

He Was Ill and off Work all Summer But Found a Quick and Complete Cure

Benton, Carleton, N.B., Feb. 3—(Special)—After being laid up for an entire summer and feeling sure that he was to be another victim to heart disease, Mr. John McElroy, a well-known young man of this place is a well man again. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him.

"I went to a doctor who said I had palpitation," said McElroy to a reporter. "But his medicine did not seem to reach the spot."

"I suffered for over a year and all last summer I was not able to do a day's work. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing. I felt heavy and sleepy after meals, and I was always tired and nervous. I perspired freely with the least exertion."

"Reading what Dodd's Kidney Pills had done for others I made up my mind to try them. Before I had finished the first box I felt different, and by the time the second was half gone I was working in the woods and doing good work."

Clogged kidneys mean clogged circulation. Clogged circulation means heart trouble. Dodd's Kidney Pills make good circulation and cure heart trouble.

EARL GREY

man who is particularly intimate with Earl Grey. He wrote that there was a strong possibility that Earl Grey would return here as governor general and even as early as nearly three weeks ago he intimated in his letter that H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught would be forced to return to England, because of the state of the Duchess' health. He felt certain that the governor generalship would again be offered Earl Grey, and he was equally sure that Earl Grey would accept a second term.

Canada probably never had a governor general with the exception of the Duke of Connaught, who was more interested in her expansion than was Earl Grey, or one who was more thoroughly engendered with the 20th century "boost" spirit for the Dominion. Earl Grey has been one of Canada's best advertisers. He has never lost an opportunity to put the Dominion in the best possible light before the world.

Lord Grey—or, to give him his proper designation, His Excellency, the Right Honorable Sir Albert Henry George, Earl Grey, Viscount of Howick, Baron Grey of Howick, in the County of Northumberland, and a baron, knight, Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St.
Michael and St. George—received his commission as governor general of Canada on September 26, 1904. Accordingly his term expired on September 26, 1909; but on April 19, of that year, he was asked by the secretary of state for the colonies to accept an extension of one year, which he did. Therefore, his governorship ended on September 26, 1910.

Messrs J. S. Connor and Syd O.
Smith of Ottawa are registered at the Barker House.

Things Do Not "Just Happen"

But body and brain cannot do their best work unless nourished and built up on the right kind of food.

Grape-Nuts

It meets Nature's require-

TORY PAPER REBUKED BY ARTHUR HAWKES

(Halifax Recorder) 6 Remembered by all who take an interest in politics is Mr. Arthur Hawkes. He put up a most verbose campaign in an appeal to the "British born" in 1911. But that is beside the question. Mr. Austen Chamberlain not long ago spoke in a manner which intimated that all who supported Reciprocity in the elections of 1911 were—well, not exactly Imperialists, especially Sir W. H. H.
Laurier. Earl Grey, late Governor General of Canada, sharply replied to Mr. Chamberlain, whereat the later gentleman drew in his horns hastily. The Toronto News professed disgust at Earl Grey's coming to the rescue, and especially of his defence of Reciprocity itself. Mr. Arthur Hawkes, the former fierce antagonist of Reciprocity, took a manly view of the matter, and wrote a protest to the News.

Surely you have jumped away from your habitual calm when you assailed Lord Grey for his protest in The Times against Mr. Austen Chamberlain's version of the Reciprocity election in Canada.

Unless you have evidence that does not appear in the cable text of Lord Grey's letter, it does not seem that Earl Grey can be accused of interfering in a present Canadian issue when he protests against what he believes to be an implication against the Britannic patriotism of a Canadian statesman, made by an Englishman who is using a Canadian domestic question as a party weapon in England.

Lord Grey was a famous Chamberlainite before he came to Canada.
There is nothing to indicate that he is not a Unionist in Old Land politics today. I hope it is possible for one who did not sit still when the Taftian design was avowed, and who has a certain intimate knowledge of conditions in the United States, based on thirty years' residence there, to express satisfaction that Lord Grey has courageously protested against the aspersions on the Britannic loyalty of Liberals that are all too common in Britain, and are not conducive to a healthy patriotism in Canada.

Yours truly,
ARTHUR HAWKES.

Toronto, Jan. 18, 1912.

This is square, clean and manly, and evidently touched the editor of the News on the raw, for this was his reply:

Mr. Arthur Hawkes, in his letter which we publish elsewhere, wholly misses the point in our criticism of Earl Grey. We do not complain because he defends the "Britannic patriotism of a Canadian statesman." Nor have we any liking for "British aspersions" on the loyalty of Canadian Liberals. But there is much more in the cable letter than Mr.
Hawkes seems to have discovered.
Earl Grey declares himself unequivocally in favor of a policy which Canada has rejected, which was an issue between parties while he held the office of Governor General, and which the Liberal leaders insist is still the chief political issue in this country. We do not know where Mr.
Austen Chamberlain got the notion that the national life of Canada and the whole future of the Empire were at stake in the trade contest of sixteen months ago. Possibly he may have read some of Mr. Hawkes' responses or some of the literature which was distributed by the Association of which he was the able and honored secretary.

And thus are enemies of Reciprocity affectionately abusing one another.

Two Pointers on How TO CURE A COLD

When you begin to sniff and feel a burning sensation in the nasal passages, or when a tickling irritation in your throat starts you coughing, the first important thing is to act at once. It's the neglected cold that becomes troublesome and dangerous.

The second important thing to do is to take Na-Dru-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne, and keep it up till the cold disappears entirely.

Na-Dru-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne is absolutely free from harmful drugs, and can safely be given even to moderately young children.
It is pleasant tasting and quick acting, promptly relieving the irritation of the throat and nostrils, loosening the mucus, promoting expectoration, and checking the cold.

Your druggist has Na-Dru-Co Syrup of Linseed, Licorice and Chlorodyne in 25c and 50c bottles, or can quickly get it for you. Compounded by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited.
