Los Angeles, Jan. 31.—Jack Ryan, formerly pitcher for the Boston and Cleveland Americans and the St. Paul team of the American Association, signed last night with the Los Angeles team. Ryan broke his leg while playing with St. Paul in 1910 and has been out of the game since.

VIOLET UNIFORMS FOR THE NEW YORK GIANTS

New York, Feb. 3.—There was much lifting of eyebrows and quite speculation today as to just how the Giants will look when they step on the Polo grounds wearing violet uniforms. Frequenters of Broadway, most of whom are suspected of being baseball fans, discussed the matter among themselves and concluded that Johnny McGraw's crew would be about the sweetest looking bunch of men on any diamond. The manager of the New York team announced the new uniform yesterday. He asked what were the colors of New York University and when a friend told him violet, he said, "that sounds good to me. Violet it is. Violet stockings, belts caps and maybe violet shoes."

Some First Class Horse-flesh Being Offered—New England Offerings are Heavy—Grand Circuit Stewards' Rule Being Avoided—Three-heat Rule Proving Unpopular

Frank G. Trott in the Boston Globe write as follows upon the mid-winter horse auction situation the recent rules of the recent Circuit Stewards and other matters of interest:—

This is the week of the mid-winter horse auction, and annual fixture which draws followers of the trotter and pacer from all sections of the country to New York. The "Mid-Winter" makes Madison Square Garden the common meeting ground of horsemen. Some come to sell, many to buy, more to look on, but all to exchange greetings and talk over plans for the coming campaign.

Track secretaries are of hand seeking from trainers and owners information which will enable them to offer programs that shall bring overflowing entry lists.

The "Mid-Winter" has become largely a colt sale, and many buyers are attracted in hopes of 'duplicating the success of the men who picked up such trotters as The Harvester, Native Belle and Dillon Axworthy, "unbroken and untried."

Walnut Hall Farm for years has made this sale the clearing house for its two-year-olds, gotten by Walnut Hall, sire of The Harvester, and those by Moko, whose ability to produce futurity winners has never been equalled.

This year the Harkness nursery sends 20 head by Moko, and in trying to pick out another Manrico they will be carefully looked over by the best judges in the land, and those youngsters who can show well in front of a pony will sell for nice prices.

There colts and fillies are pronounced by recent visitors at the farm to be the best average lot that has ever come from there.

BALDY MCGREGOR THE STAR

W. E. D. Stokes is sending a dozen two-year-olds by Peter the Great, and as the family of this great sire are now on the top wave of popularity, all that is needed for fancy figures is pleasing individuality.

The Star of the sale will be Baldy McGregor, 2:05, by the records the fastest of last season's three-year-old trotters. Just how much the son of Jay McGregor will bring is a question but the feeling is general that when the bidding stops it will be money from across the water that tops the competition. Austrian and Russian breeders were eager for the young stallion last fall.

Baldy is to be sold along with all of Henry Schmulbach's horse holdings, which include Directum Spier, 2:11, and some richly-bred youngsters by the sire of Joan, 2:04.

NEW ENGLAND HORSES

New England always is sending over a lot of horses and will bring back more. Annie Kohl, 2:07, is the best known of the animals going from this section. Although a young mare and far from being outclassed, she is more likely to be sought for by breeders rather than men after something to race.

Chester Lasell, having decided to confine his racing this year to youngsters by MacDougall and Henry Setzer, bred at Oakhurst, will sell all of his aged campaigning material of last year, including Miss Davis, 2:10; Newzel, 2:10; Violet A, 2:18; Ethel Lynne, 2:09, and Lew Perkins, a pacer with a trial of 2:05.

The estate of the late W. J. Wright of Pine Hill Farm is closing out 20 head, seven being youngsters by the great Cochato, 2:14.

H. L. Pierce of Leominster is quitting the sport and sells some youngsters by Peter the Great, Guy Axworthy, Moko and Bingara.

From the stable of Walter Cox goes half a dozen head, one being a pacer named that the New Hampshire reinsman was careful not to mark last fall, keeping her out of two races in October that she could have won. This is the Moko sidewheeler, La Rustina, 2:18. She raced better than 2:08 more than once and at Lexington worked in 2:05.

Henry Titer is selling Eranson, 2:12, who has shown 2:08 in races. The sale starts this forenoon and continues until late Wednesday evening.

DISCARD PROBABLE

The action of the Grand Circuit stewards in trying to fix the amount of money a horse can win in early-closing classes did not strike a popular chord, and the new rule is likely to find its way into the discaed. Detroit has openly announced that it would ignore the rule, as the management wants to get the very best stake horses for the Blue Rib-

Lexington had a novel way of getting around the rule as the management has written that it considers the Transylvania, the Tennessee and the October prize not real early closing classes, but nomination events to which the Circuit rule of barring big money winners would not apply.

There would be no chance for the Blue Grass member to get away with any such evasion, but the efforts that it has made to draw a line between events in which horses are named at the time of closing and those in which nominations are taken out shows that at least one of the stewards is not for the rule as far as it concerns his own track.

THREE-HEATS-A-RACE SYSTEM

Joe Markey of the Horse Review staff, in commenting on the work of the stewards, winds up by handing the following on the "three-heats-a-race" system:

"I believe that in adopting the limit rule the stewards inadvertently neglected to take into consideration its many angles of weakness. I was, however, mightily pleased because the three-heat plan of racing, every heat a race, was turned down, for of all ridiculous forms of the mania for reform it is the most pronounced. It has been tried time and again, turned down repeatedly, but as often bobs up again like the Irishman's flea. If there is a demand for a short system of racing why two-in-three adequately solves the problem.

"Can you imagine anything more absurd than watching a horse race after it is actually ended? For instance, A wins the first and second heats, which assures him first money but the field comes out again to race a third heat. B wins this third overture and the race is brought to a close, but with A still the winner. In the grandstand the spectators are wondering what it is all about. The caller announces that B won the heat but that A won the race—naturally confusion reigns. That additional heat is about as essential as a third leg would be to a rooster."

HANK O'DAY JOINS BAN JOHNSON'S UMPIRING STAFF

Last Year's Manager of Cincinnati Reds Becomes Arbitrator—Officially Announced After Many Denials

Chicago, Feb. 2.—Hank O'Day has cast his lot with the American League. This news broke from three authoritative sources today simultaneously with the report that Hank's name would have been sketched at the foot of a contract long ere this but for the fact that the veteran was waiting for a piece of money, said to have been promised him by Garry Herrmann, providing the Reds landed in the first division last season.

Several weeks ago, Pres. Johnson announced he would provide a position for O'Day on the American League arbitrating corps, provided the veteran cared to accept. Since that time O'Day and Johnson have discussed baseball in its various phases, but the league executive declined to admit that he had signed Hank.

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.
