STRAY TOPICS FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

New York, June 14—The municipal household of the City of New York is a big thing and the financial transactions which it involves are of a magnitude which puts in the shade the fiscal transactions of many a kingdom or principality. During the last week of May for instance, the city's temporary debt was decreased by nearly $25,000,000 through the funding and liquidating activity carried on by the sinking fund trustees. The cash balance on hand was increased by nearly $3,000,000 and on the last day of the month reached the respectable amount of $58,581,398.

Quite recently a number of experts made a thorough investigation of the school system of New York City and each one of the investigators submitted a lengthy report on his findings, including various suggestions concerning the best means of remedying certain defects found by the investigator. Strange to say the investigators confined themselves exclusively to the study of methods, without making any effort to ascertain whether the teachers employed in the public schools were capable enough to fill their positions.

Another committee, while investigating the complaints that instructors and principals in New York city schools did not get their pay promptly unearthed a number of letters written by teachers which throw a glaring light upon the incompetency of at least some of the teachers. One of these letters was as follows:

"Dear Sir I am a teacher at school. I was not at the school yesterday May 1st. I went to the School to do to find my check was sent back to the pay masters office. I was told to write to you and you would send me a receipt to sign which I believe I have to return before you send check. Trusting this will meet with your approval and I will receive a quick reply.

I remain, Sincerely,
The summer season has begun and with it have come various tribulations that usually accompany it, like bathing accidents, open cars with their end-seat-hogs and their youthful rowdies and a long list of other undesirable things. The street car companies and the police authorities of the city had made an early start this year in suppressing rowdism in street cars and on subway trains; a considerable number of young rowdies have been arrested. But the end-seat-hog still flourishes and neither ridicule nor scathing contempt seem to be able to penetrate the callous skin of the ubiquitous animal. Mayor Gaynor has suggested the passage of an ordinance which would make the refusal of the end-seat-hog to "move up" a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $100, but the Board of Aldermen, merely laughed down the suggestion. Such an ordinance would undoubtedly be an excellent thing if it were possible to enforce it, but that would be practically impossible. Under the circumstances it is quite likely, therefore, that the end-seat-hog will continue to make itself a public nuisance all through the summer season, as in former seasons.

A suit filed the other day against the Broadway-Park Place Company, which operates the Woolworth Building, brought to light a rather interesting state of affairs. It appears that the Broadway-Park Company had given the monopoly of furnishing drinking water to the tenants of the Woolworth Building to a certain mineral spring company and (had granted to that company the exclusive right of using the elevators in the building for carrying the large bottles filled with spring water to the upper floors. Some of the tenants, preferring other spring water than that furnished by the company having the monopoly in the building, had made their arrangements with other companies furnishing spring water. But the employees of these companies were not permitted to take the bottles with water to the upper floors by means of the lifts and to be able to make their deliveries, were forced to carry the heavy bottles up stairs, in some cases from the thirty-seven flights. Now these tenants and the companies with whom they have contracted for spring water have begun a suit to compel the management of the building to grant to the independent spring water companies the same rights for using the lifts as have been granted to the company to the company holding the monopoly.

An investigation conducted by the National Highway Protective Association has led to the startling discovery that hundreds of automobile licenses in this city have been obtained under false names. This has undoubtedly been done to prevent identification in case of accident, or if the car is used for some crooked or illegal purpose. Secretary May of the association intends to prosecute all persons he could find who had taken out licenses under fraudulent names and addresses, and would see to it that all such licenses would be revoked. The obtaining of such licenses under fraud is a misdemeanor and punishable by a heavy fine and revocation of the license.

It must seem exceedingly funny to foreigners when they read that the Columbia University of New York City refused to a degree to a student who had passed his examinations with credit, simply because he did not know how to swim. This decision of the university authorities, which is strictly in conformance with the rules of the institution, opens a number of interesting and pertinent questions. Do students attend university to acquire an education and a certain amount of learning or to learn how to swim, play baseball and foot-

Had Pains Around The Heart

AND SMOTHERING FEELINGS.

The terrible smothering and choking up sensations and sinking turns, that come to those whose heart and nerves are deranged or disordered call for prompt relief.

There is nothing that brings with it such a fear of death as to wake up in the night with that awful feeling of smothering.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the only remedy that can give prompt relief and effect a complete cure in cases of such severity.

Mrs. Wm. Lee, Uthoff, Ont., writes: "I have taken three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and am now well. I had such pains around my heart and such smothering feelings that I thought I would surely die. My head used to be propped up with pillows to keep me from smothering. One day I read in a paper about your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and three boxes cured me."

Price, 50 cents per box; 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

OPPORTUNITY FOR LIBERALS TO HELP ALONG THE CAUSE

Ottawa, May 7, 1913.

TO THE LIBERALS OF NEW BRUNSWICK:

Efficient organization is the keystone of success in business or politics. The recognition of this fact and the request to their supporters to join in sharing the necessary expense brought success to the Democratic leaders and their party in the United States Presidential elections last year. The funds for legitimate party purposes, such as organization, printing, publicity and travelling expenses, were raised by a popular subscription.

The Liberals of New Brunswick are in need of more thorough organization, of committee work and wider distribution of party literature, for which purposes a considerable sum of money will be required. We believe all loyal supporters of the party will be ready and willing to subscribe to such a fund, and we ask them to do so.

The Liberals are today fighting in the House of Commons for free speech and the people's liberties. We do not know how soon they may be called upon to struggle for their rights at the polls.

We must be ready. The Liberal party must be ready and the only way to be prepared is to organize.

In asking the financial assistance of Liberals for that purpose we are inviting every member of the party to co-operate and stand shoulder to shoulder with us in this memorable struggle. We neither expect nor desire assistance from the trusts, or wealthy corporations, whose interests may clash with the interests of the common people, and this appeal is therefore made to the masses of the electorate, who desire to maintain the rights of the people. It is far more desirable in the interest of the party that the subscriptions should be general, coming from every parish in the province, in other words, that there should be a large number of subscribers for small amounts rather than a small number of subscribers for large amounts.

Subscriptions for any amount from one dollar and upwards will be received by those in the different polling districts in the parishes who are authorized to do so, as well as by the County Treasurers, who will forward all amounts they receive directly, as well as those from parish collectors, to the Provincial Treasurer who will acknowledge the same.

The funds collected will be expended under the direction of the undersigned Provincial Committee representing the Liberal members from New Brunswick in the House of Commons and subject to the audit of Henry E. Hill, of St. Stephen.

The treasurer for York County will be Mr. C. Fred. Chesnut of this city. Dr. J. B. Curtis of Hartland is treasurer for Carleton and Hon. L. P. Farris of White's Cove, treasurer for Queens.
