A MONSTER STEAMSHIP

The suites and cabins are to be i heir designs and fittings equal t the rooms in the firest hotels of Europe of America and families will be able to cross the Atlantic in almost the same privacy as in their own homes. There are to be many dining rooms, the principal one of which will be in the Louis XVI style and will seat more than 600 persons.

Among other luxuries the Imperator has been fitted with three elec-tric elevators, a winter garden, sumtric elevators, a winter garden, summer houses, a theatre, gymnasium, Ritz restaurant, "cottage" cafe, ballroom, telephones, swimming bath and tennis courts. The swimming and tennis courts. bath is a copy of one unearthed at pleted, nine new members were Pompeii, with mosaic pavements, replicas of those discovered at Treves. This happy condition is to be brought about by the installation of year. Organizer Frank Mills acting This happy condition is to be brought about by the installation of the Frahn decks on board the monster, a device that reduces the motion of a ship to a minimum.

The Imperator will not be a fast oat, being built more for solid comthan great speed. Her time across the Atlantic will be in the neighborhood of seven days. She will be equipped with internal combustion engines and two 1,500 horsepower Diesel motors and will use oil as

The most powerful Marconi apparatus ever set up at sea will be installed, the unusual height of her masts making it possible to receive or transmit messages across the broad expanse of the Atlantic Ocean. It is is expected that the Imperator will always be in direct communication with either Europe or America.
