Dr. de Van's Female Pills
A reliable French regulator; never fails. These pills are exceedingly powerful in regulating the generative portion of the female system. Refuse all cheap imitations. Dr. de Van's are sold at $5 a box, or three for $10. Mailed to any address. The Scofield Drug Co., St. Catharines, Ont. Sold in Fredericton by A. J. RYAN

Had Rheumatism (WAS CONFINED TO HIS BED FOR FOUR MONTHS.)

Mr. W. H. Riley, Ruddell, Sask., writes:—"It is with the greatest of pleasure that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all suffering with rheumatism. I was so bad with this terrible disease, I was unable to get up from my bed for four months, and nothing seemed to relieve me until a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I had my doubts about them, but was so desperate I would try anything suggested to me. After taking half a box I was able to get up, and after taking two boxes could get around quite well. After taking six boxes I was completely cured, and able to work for the first time in five months, and have not had a touch of rheumatism since. Anyone who saw me then would not know me now, as I am strong and active since taking your valuable medicine."

Rheumatism is caused by the presence in the blood of uric acid, and the kidneys not working properly is the sole cause of this, and unless you remove the acid by flushing the kidneys, there is no possible chance of getting rid of rheumatism.

Doan's Kidney Pills help the kidneys to flush off the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, and thus clean out the kidneys, and dispel the rheumatism from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

SENATE LIBERAL LEADER AND HIS JINGO CRITICS

(Toronto Globe)

Sir George Ross has learned that as an Imperialist he cannot expect even ordinarily decent treatment from Canadian Tory jingoes unless he plays the whole game of the compromised Nationalist-Conservative coalition at present in power at Ottawa. For many months they have been praising him, his statesman qualities, his loyalty to British traditions, his devotion to imperial integrity. When he, as a Liberal Senator, broke with his party and with the historic attitude of Canadian Liberalism on the question of larger markets and greater freedom of trade with the United States, he was to the jingo Tories "the veteran statesman," the "great Imperialist," and everything else that constituted a worthy and authoritative exponent of sound Canadian opinion. His arguments and appeals were republished again and again in scores of Conservative journals and scattered broadcast as campaign literature. His "true and enlightened Imperialism" was proclaimed as unanswerable evidence that larger freedom of trade with the United States would imperil Canada's Imperial relations. The Toronto News, one year after the reciprocity election, gave him unreserved and emphatic editorial endorsement, alike as a great Canadian, a consistent Imperialist and a brilliant statesman, in words like these:

"The Empire Club heard striking and convincing addresses from two brilliant statesmen of different political affiliations. No man more thoroughly represents the Unionist party of Great Britain than the Right Hon. Walter Long, and no one is better entitled to speak for Canada than Sir George Ross. Yet they spoke in absolute agreement upon the pressing Imperial problems of the day."

That was in September last—such lofty panegyric of Senator Ross by the editor of The News. Eight months after, to a day, on Wednesday last, in the same column the same editor makes the same journal sneer at the same man as "a comedy or a tragedy," "only the speaking-tube of other men's convictions," "nothing more than a phonograph," "the actor," "a voice and a shadow," "a new tune for the old box," "those who trusted have been confounded," "all that was established by years of brilliant oratory has been tumbled into ruins," "a lath," "a sound," but nothing more.

And why this sudden outburst of envenomed mocking at the man who for many months has been exalted as a worthy Imperialist? Why? Simply because Sir George Ross, who for Imperial reasons, as he held, broke with the Liberal party and its leaders on a trade policy, refused to stand for a naval defence policy conceived by a coalition of jingo Conservatives and anti-Imperialist and anti-British Nationalists, a policy "jammed through" the House of Commons by closure, a direct contradiction of the unanimous resolution

TORY PAPER IN FAVOR OF ROSS' AMENDMENT

Ottawa, May 28—The Ottawa Citizen (Conservative) will come out editorially tomorrow, with a strong endorsement of the principle of Sir George Ross' amendment in the Senate for an appeal to the people on the naval bill. The Citizen will say:—"There is one last chance for the Government to solve the matter in a way to command universal approbation and respect, and that is to frankly accept the amendment offered. True statesmanship could afford to overlook the triviality of offended pride and show faith alike in the proposal, the people and the principles of popular government by letting the country decide by direct vote."

The Citizen pays tribute to the Imperialism of Sir George Ross, and says there is no reason to doubt the sincerity of his assertion that Liberals "are equally anxious though by different means, to maintain the solidarity of the British Empire."

Instead, however, of submitting the bill to the people by a general election The Citizen suggests that a verdict might be obtained by means of a referendum.

of both parties in 1909, a repudiation of the obligations to the other Dominions in the Imperial Conference—Canadian in its very terms, and in its outworking a menace to Imperial harmony—because he refused such a hybrid and dangerous naval proposal, unless and until authorized by the electors of Canada, Sir George Ross is pilloried by Tory jingoism as a poltroon of partyism.

And, of course, The Toronto News, by its unswerving fidelity to principle by its unimpeached consistency of policy, and by its martyr-like loyalty to those who trusted, is the one journal that, in the presence of even seeming opportunism and defection, has earned the unchallenged right to cast the first stone! Of course!

ALL FROM A CAN OF CORN

When we housewives open a can of corn, pour the contents into a kettle cook for a few minutes and season with salt, pepper, butter and a little cream or milk, we prove to be cooks with little imagination and no ingenuity, says Dora B. Haines. My family likes fritters for breakfast. I do not know that they are quite so safe and sane a breakfast dish as dry toast, but they are tremendously good and every member of the family hails them with delight. We always eat them with maple syrup.

I make them by using half a can of corn, a cupful and a half of milk, pinch of salt for seasoning. Into two cupfuls of flour sift two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder and stir in lightly with the corn and milk. I beat an egg thoroughly and the very last thing fold it into the batter and flavor with half a teaspoonful of vanilla. These fritters are fried in deep fat and drained on paper and served while piping hot. With a good cup of coffee and hot syrup one could not ask for a better breakfast.

Corncakes and creamed chicken is a famous Maryland dish and if ever eaten is one to be remembered. To make these cakes take a can of corn, two cupfuls of milk, a tablespoonful of melted butter, salt to taste and flour enough to make a thick batter. Sift with the flour three level teaspoonfuls of baking powder and just before frying add two well-beaten eggs, folding them in very lightly. This batter should be thick enough so that the cakes will not run when put on the griddle, which should be greased just enough to keep them from sticking. Use to each cake one tablespoonful of batter. These will have to be fried rather slowly, otherwise they will be thoroughly done.

In 1912 the total number of strikes and lockouts in Canada was reported as 148.

BOSTON AMERICANS

Boston, Mass., May 31—All the famous military organizations of the United States have been invited by the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston to join in a celebration of its 275th birthday anniversary during the first four days of next week. The celebration will begin with a parade Monday morning, and will conclude with a banquet at which the guests will include many men of national prominence.

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company is the oldest military organization in the country. It was in 1637 that a few citizens of Boston made the first endeavor to form the company. They made an application to Governor Winthrop, petitioning for his sanction to the formation of a military company for the protection of the Massachusetts Bay colony. Governor Winthrop refused their plea remarking "how dangerous it might be to erect a standing authority of military men, which might easily, in time, overthrow the civil power." After a few months, however, a broader view seemed to be taken by the colonial government and the plea was renewed. It was about a year later—March 13, 1638—that the charter was granted which authorized the organization under the title of "The Military Company of Massachusetts." A century later the present title was adopted.

During the Revolutionary war so many members of the company fell in the field that only fifteen were left to respond when 1786 "Emergency of Public Affairs" called upon them to maintain law and order. The Mexican and Civil wars also depleted the ranks of the organization. Since 1747 the company has had its armory and headquarters in historic Faneuil Hall.
