STOCK MARKET

(By direct private wire to J. C. Mackintosh & Co., 550 Queen Street, Fredericton, N.B.)

New York, N.Y., Feb. 15.—While the action of the recent stock market has been far from suggestive of any permanent improvement of prices for immediate future, it has nevertheless withstood the pressure of extremely unfavorable news in a manner which leaves little room for doubt that liquidation has been pretty thorough. There are many adverse factors which might be eliminated overnight at any time, for instance as the Mexican rebellion and the Balkan war. Moreover, the comparatively low prices prevailing for standard issues should sooner or later attract a substantial investment demand. The fact remains, however, that conditions as a whole are not conducive to a measure of bull speculation necessary to bring a substantial recovery and until the larger interests can see their way clear to take the initiative the market is likely to remain a narrow professional affair with limited opportunities for profit taking either way.

C.P.R. STOCKS

Discussing C.P.R. stock, a considerable block of which is held by Fredericton investors J. M. Robinson & Sons say: This stock has been the despair of hundreds of speculators during the past three months, who feeling sure that the stock was perfectly good, have found that while there was no cause to change their opinion, the time to buy appeared to come far too soon. C.P.R. at the present time is back to where it started from about a year ago before the last stock issue was announced, and shortly after the previous stock issue had been made. During the year the advance was from approximately 230 to 280 and back again, however, if one figures on the rights the present price would be equal to about 253. There has been considerable talk of a 12 per cent dividend, and while this has not been passed upon by the Board of Directors, there is one thing that is absolutely certain and that is that every shareholder in C.P.R. is a partner in one of the greatest corporations of modern times, and sooner or later it seems likely to pass into the same class with Standard Oil, Delaware and Lackawanna and other corporations of enormous wealth.

ZAM-BUK FOR THE CHILDREN

MOTHERS TELL WHAT IT DID

FOR THEIR LITTLE ONES.

Thousands of mothers in Canada owe a debt of gratitude to Zam-Buk. Mrs. J. Quiding of Ninette, Man., says: "My little boy was suffering very badly from a form of skin disease over his eye. I applied Zam-Buk to the affected part and in a very short time the sores were healed."

Mrs. F. Miners of 311 Suffolk St., Guelph, Ont., says: "My little daughter Lorinda (6) contracted a skin disease. This first broke out like tiny water blisters, afterwards taking the form of dry scabs. These would disappear for a short time and then reappear worse than ever. We tried Zam-Buk and perseverance with its use resulted in a cure."

All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

THE LEGISLATURE

Mr. Munro presented a petition in favor of a bill relating to the estate of the late Lewis P. Fisher, late of the Town of Woodstock, deceased.

Hon. Mr. Flemming said that a copy of the souvenir number of The London Financial News dealing with the recent visit to Canada of the British manufacturers would be placed on each member's desk. Two pages of the edition, he said, were devoted to New Brunswick and this was one of the ways that the government had been endeavoring to place before the world the advantages which New Brunswick had to offer to settlers and investors. There was a guaranteed circulation of 100,000 copies in the United Kingdom and the edition was, he believed, the best of the kind ever issued.

Hon. Mr. Morrissey submitted the annual report of the chief commissioner of public works.

The House went into committee with Mr. Dickson (Albert) in the chair and took up the consideration of the bill to provide a sinking fund for the redemption of the public debt.

Premier Flemming explained that the $60,000 which had been placed in the new fund, to be known as the Crown Land Sinking Fund, was the purchase money paid by the Grand Falls Co., Ltd., for the transfer of certain lands and rights in the Grand Falls Water Power under a provision in the lease which was executed in 1907. He said that one reason for making this explanation was that he wanted to have the members of the House and the people of the province understand that the arrangement was not made by the present administration. There had also been placed in the fund $18,653.48 for the transfer to the National Transcontinental Railway of the right of way of that railway through the province. This was the amount paid in up to the close of the last fiscal year. The National Transcontinental Railway Commission had settled for the right of way on the basis of $13,000 per acre and they had used in all something over 1,500 acres. There was in addition nearly 7 acres of land on the water front in the Town of Edmundston which the railway also took over and for which they paid $500 per acre.

This bill, he believed, was a bit of the right kind of legislation. He believed it was a sound principle that when the province's capital is dissipated, the debts should be liquidated to an equal extent. This bill provided for a fund which would be added to by perhaps not more than from $1,000 to $5,000 per year in the ordinary course of events but it was the kind of legislation which would give financial men the impression that the business of the province is being dealt with in a proper way. The bill was agreed to.

The bill to amend the act to establish a board of public utilities commissioners was then taken up.

Hon. Mr. Grimmer said that this bill was introduced to make it concurrent legislation with that passed by the Dominion parliament amending the Dominion Railway Act and it authorized the commission to act in conjunction with the Dominion Railway Commission in matters affecting railways with provincial charters.

The bill was agreed to without amendments.

Hon. Mr. Flemming moved that when the House adjourned it stand adjourned until Monday afternoon at three o'clock.

The House adjourned at 4 o'clock.

A WILD SCENE

SPEAKER UPHOLDS LAURIER

Once again the Liberal leader pressed for an interpretation of the rules of parliament, in view of the example being set by ministers of the crown. A member, he pointed out, on a question of privilege, could deny and explain, but could not make charges. "I am defending an attack on my honor," retorted Mr. Rogers, amid Liberal laughter. He believed these things emanated from the central information office of the Liberal party and that it was conducted under the authority of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It was the source of "slandorous false misrepresentations and lies."

"Any way to remind the minister that he is in parliament just now and that parliamentary rules regulate the conduct of honorable gentlemen," queried Mr. Pardee, amid the continued uproar.

"Perhaps he thinks he is still in the Manitoba legislature," exclaimed Mr. Turriff.

Mr. Rogers persisted that the Liberal offices were conducted under the authority of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and were a manufacturing establishment for "the purpose of manufacturing slander."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier again rose to a point of order. "I am connected with the Liberal bureau, I admit," he stated, "but I do not admit that it is a manufacturing of lies. Moreover, if the honorable gentleman says it is, I will call him to the proof of it."

Mr. Rogers declared that he could prove it was "doing even worse than lies." If it wasn't he would be glad to apologize.

"No," replied Sir Wilfrid, "if the honorable gentleman wants to make a charge, if he wants to make a charge against the institution he has named, he can make it, but must make it as a charge specific, 'not otherwise. At present he has risen to vindicate his honor, which he is quite entitled to do. He can deny any statement made with regard to him, but if he has a charge to make let him rise and ask for an investigation into the matter and I shall be glad to meet him."

Mr. Speaker sustained Sir Wilfrid's point of order.

Mr. Rogers then concluded by declaring that "the scurrilous article is a matter of dishonesty in every respect."

Hon. Frank Oliver then called for the production of all papers connected with the matter, both by the former government and the present "that the house and the country may have the opportunity to consider the motives of the transaction."

Mr. Rogers promised he would comply with the demand.

During the scene S. J. Donaldson, M.P.P., for Prince Albert, Sask., who is alleged to have secured the property for his son, was in the speaker's gallery.
