"In the Case of MY Little Girl--"

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.

It looks as if there is going to be some horse racing here this winter after all. The boys are to get together tomorrow night and take over the matter of matinee racing.

It is rare that a dark horse like Dining carries off the honors in a classic like the Powderhall run. The contest generally narrows down to the two or three men most favored by the talent.

Jack Britton may go to England and box Freddie Welsh.

Frankie Burr, the California lightweight, who was recently defeated by Tommy Murphy is going to retire.

RUBE MARQUARD IN TROUBLE WITH HIS VAUDEVILLE PARTNER

Detectives Shadowed and Trapped Him
With Her at Atlantic City Hotel---
Evidence Heard

Atlantic City, N.J., Jan. 6—Frank Bowman, manager of the Hotel Dunlop, today corroborated the charges made by Joseph Kane, a New York theatrical man, that Rube Marquard, star pitcher of the Giants, lived at his caravansary with Blossom Seeley Kane's wife, as man and wife, from Nov. 4 to 8, 1912, before Special Master Frank Smathers here today. The hearing was private.

Kane had alleged in affidavits sworn to before Magistrate Jagmetty that he had trapped the pair in the hotel at three o'clock in the morning of Nov. 8. He, with two detectives, Kenzie and Carter, smashed in the door of the apartment.

The husband had testified he found Marquard in a closet behind some clothing and the next instant located his wife under the bed.

Manager Bowman denied, although accused by Kane, that he had shown Marquard and the woman how to escape by the rear fire escape while detectives watched in the hotel office for their appearance to take them before a magistrate. Bowman identified Marquard's signature on the hotel register.

The two detectives will not testify until the case comes up in New York next Wednesday, when the suit for divorce will be started. The sleuths, however, made affidavits before Magistrate Jagmetty of the day of the "raid" substantially the same as the testimony of Kane.

McGRAW OPPOSED TO FEMALE DIRECTORS

St. Louis, Jan. 5—"Any woman who attempts to dictate the policy of a baseball club is flirting with serious trouble," said John J. McGraw of the New York Giants today discussing the Bresnahan case and its outcome.

"Professional baseball is so complicated that it is difficult for anyone much less a woman to get the ins and outs of it and know the correct way to manage a club. It is bad enough for a man to be mixed up in this sort of work, for he is always in trouble, but it is no work for a woman."

"When it comes to dictating the policy of a club passing on trades, sales and the drafting of players—well no woman is qualified for the work. Women have their sphere, but they have not reached the stage yet where they are competent to manage a baseball club."

CICOTTE NOT SATISFIED

Detroit, Jan. 6—Pitcher Eddie Cicotte of the Chicago American League Baseball Club said today that he had returned in 1913 contract to Pres Comiskey unsigned. He said he was not quite satisfied with the salary but expected an adjustment.

OPPOSE RATE INCREASE

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Jan. 7—"Insurgent" members of the Modern Brotherhood of America met here today to plan a fight in the courts against the increased assessments recently decided upon by the head lodge of the order. It is expected that the opposition will conduct its fight along the same lines that resulted recently in a court order restraining the Modern Woodmen from raising their rates in Iowa.

MONCTON OUTCLASSED CRESCENTS LAST NIGHT

Won 8 to 0---Halifax Team Had no Chance at any Stage of the Game---Socials Double Score on New Glasgow---Chester Gregory Star of Losing Team---Social's Imported Players Played Well

Moncton, Jan. 7—The opening game of the professional hockey league played here tonight between the Halifax Crescents and Moncton, was rather too one-sided to be interesting. Only the good work of Wortman the Crescents' goal-keeper, kept the home team from running up a bigger score. In the first period play was pretty even but the visitors apparently lacked practice and could not stand the pace. Two goals were chalked up in the first period, two more in the second and after that the Vics apparently might have scored at will, but were content with making a total of eight. The visitors were unable to find the net in a single instance, consequently were blanked. Cross, the Moncton goal tender, had comparatively little to do but show good form.

The Vics seemed in better condition than the Crescents and also had the advantage of being on their own ice. The Crescents were also handicapped by the fact that two of their players, Delaire and Derouin, only arrived today after a long train ride from Quebec and had no team practice.

Moncton fans are well pleased with the showing of their team and are confident that with faithful practice they will be able to hold the silverware.

SOCIALS 4, NEW GLASGOW 2.

Halifax, Jan. 7—The Socials of Halifax opened the professional hockey season by decisively defeating the New Glasgow Cubs to the tune of 4-2. The game was cleanly played and, for the opening game, was very fast and exciting. The players on the home team were, for the most part, composed of young players, while New Glasgow showed on their line-up several seasoned players. The Socials played a hard, clean, fast, clever game. O'Leary, recently of Port Arthur, Ont.; Ras Murphy of Ottawa, with Twaddle and McPherson of Halifax, played the best hockey, but the youngsters Jimmy Murphy and another also looked up well. Hague of Ottawa, was in goal for the Socials, and put up a stellar game.

For New Glasgow Doran and Wilkie constituted, with Morrison in goal, an almost perfect defence but they could not withstand the onslaughts of the speedy Halifax youngsters. Gregory was the star of the Cubs' forward line and showed he still was over the rest. About 4,000 people witnessed the game.

CHICAGO NATIONALS HAVE SECURED ROGER BRESNAHAN

Reported That He Has Been Offered $29,000 for Three Years Engagement---Not Yet Signed

Chicago, Jan. 6—Roger Bresnahan, formerly manager of the St. Louis National League Baseball team, will wear a Chicago National club uniform according to Charles W. Murphy, president of the club.

"He is a great acquisition," said Murphy tonight. "I won't say what salary Bresnahan is going to get, but I had to outbid Dreyfus of Pittsburgh for him, and that shows what others think of Bresnahan. I intend to use him as a catcher with Arcaer."

Murphy said that Roger had not signed yet, but that a three-year contract will be mailed to Bresnahan's home in Toledo, O., tomorrow.

St. Louis, Jan. 6—Roger Bresnahan will sign within a few days, a three-year contract with the Chicago National League team he said late this afternoon.

"But the story will have to come from the other end," he added, in refusing to give any details of the deal. After a recent conference between Bresnahan and Pres. Murphy of the Chicago club, it was reported that Bresnahan was offered $29,000 for three years' salary—$10,000 as a bonus and $6334 a year salary. Bresnahan's claim against the St. Louis club was compromised Saturday and Bresnahan was paid today a sum variously estimated at between $11,000 and $20,000 for his contract which had four years to run and which called for $10,000 a year and 10 per cent of the club's annual profits.

Stockton, Ill., Jan. 6—Steve Ketchel defeated George Myers tonight, Ketchel scoring two knockdowns. Myers' gameness and cleverness saved him from a knockout. The bulldog aggressiveness of Ketchel won out.

U. S. LEAGUE AGAIN

New York, Jan. 6—The United States League of Professional Baseball Clubs was incorporated at Trenton this afternoon. The capitalization is $125,000. The incorporators named are William Witman Sr., of Reading, Penn.; Hugh McKinnon of Bridgeport, Conn., and H. M. Ryan of Trenton.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER IN COURT

Morris, Minn., Jan. 7—One of the youngest prisoners ever held on a charge of first degree murder in Minnesota was given a preliminary hearing in court here today. He is Olaf Christopherson, 10-year-old boy who is alleged to have confessed to the murder of John Eling on December 18. The boy is said to have shot and killed Eling, who had befriended him, in a fit of momentary anger. It is expected he will be tried at the spring term of court.

JOHN J. MCGRAW EMINENT ACTOR ON SHAKESPEARE

"The character of Hamlet," says John J. McGraw the eminent manager and Shakespearean scholar, "is one that has always fascinated me. He had so many good qualities mixed with so much weakness when hitting in the pinches that you can spend whole days studying him without arriving at any definite conclusion. The whole play of Hamlet is filled with interesting personalities. There is 'Polonius' who I judge was the Connie Mack of his time, and who gives some of the soundest advice I have ever seen in print. Says he: 'Beware of the entrance to a quarrel, but being in it, bear thyself so thy foeman will beware of thee.' What better counsel for either a playing manager or an umpire? Again he says: 'Coetly thy habit, as thy purse can buy, but rich, not gaudy, for the apparel oft proclaims the man.' Which teaches that it is better to pay $95 for a suit than to drape a $16 hand-me-down with a $4 necktie."

"Hamlet" thrived in the days of organized ball—this much is evident from the fact that he saw a ghost parading round, while before the National Commission took hold there were a great many cases where the ghost didn't walk at all. He also bumped up against the pass fiends a lot of times. Note where he picks up 'Yorick's' skull and says: 'I knew him Horatio Fogel—a fellow of infinite jest.' A skull, is a dead head isn't it? And a dead head always to bull through on a lot of old jokes and joshes, doesn't he? It's plain enough from Shakespeare's matchless lines, that 'Ham' had been on the gate pretty near all Summer.

"Rules, though were somewhat slack in 'Hamlet's' league. This is proved by the scene where 'Laertes' spikes 'Ham' and gets by with it, and the spikes dug so deep that 'Ham' was 'poisoned'—another argument against wearing bright colored stockings. The dye will get into a spike-cut, and you're liable to get what 'Hammy' got almost any time. If I played 'Hamlet'—as I hope to do, having had two good offers already from Bud Hynicka and Jim Fennessey—I would present him differently. Not even the Booth conception of the part should govern me. My 'Hamlet' shall wear shin guards and instead of a big girl get between the third and fourth innings. Instead of this poor bluff 'Ophelia' suiciding she shall have the lead in the girl act, and the queen shall lead a march just before the curtain.

"Hamlet's" soliloquy too, needs a little revising. It should fit modern
