Notes from the Rural Districts

NEW MARKET

New Market, Aug. 5.—All our farmers are busy engaged haying and report the crop to be up to the average.

A large number from this place attended the Presbyterian picnic on Tuesday, held on the grounds of the late Gardner Esna. All report having a good time.

Mr. Willie Maloney of Cork was the guest of Mr. Fred Murphy on Sunday last.

Mr. M. E. Doohan and family of Fredericton spent Sunday in this place.

Mr. Jack Yerxa is haying with Mr. Fred Murphy this season.

Miss Millie Kennedy of Cork who is visiting friends here was the guest of Mrs. Hugh Foley on Tuesday.

Miss Jane Feeney, who has been spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Feeney, returned to Fredericton last week.

Mr. Allen Myrshall of Myrshall Settlement was a visitor to this place on Monday.

Mr. Dan McGivney of McGundy was the guest of Mr. James McDade last Sunday.

And last but not least, our Swedes have finished their contract on the Valley line at Elliott's Creek and have gone to Plaster Rock to commence a new job, but never mind girls, it is to be hoped that some of them have not gone for good.

SCOTCH SETTLEMENT

Scotch Settlement, August 11.—Some of our farmers have finished haying on their high land and are starting to the islands today.

There have been fairly good weather for haying, and the hay is being stored in excellent condition.

Grain and root crops are looking fine, in this section, and promise an abundant harvest.

Mr. Ralph Hagerman of Bangor, Me., was visiting at his uncle's here last week.

Mrs. Chas. Wiggins and daughter and Miss Edie Wiggins, Middle Haynesville, spent several days with Mrs. E. M. Haines recently.

Miss Edie Haines expects to go to P. N. S. next term, as she was successful in obtaining the class worked for—second.

Miss Ruby Sanson intends going to St. John soon to spend the winter.

Mr. F. W. Clark has disposed of his fine driving horse recently purchased from Mr. Elbridge Jewett of Jewett Mills.

Miss Annie McAllister, St. John, is visiting her friend, Miss Hattie R. Hagerman at present.

Mr. C. C. Reid spent the day yesterday at Lower Queensbury, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Harry Slipp.

Mrs. Quincy Day and daughter, Miss May, have returned to their home in Graniteville, Mass., after spending several weeks visiting friends and relatives here and at Southampton and Woodstock.

Mrs. John Sharp spent part of last week visiting her son, Mr. Wm. Palmer, Scotch Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George DeLong Fredericton were visiting at her former home here, yesterday.

BOY SCOUTS IN CAMP AT BAILEY

(Special Correspondence to the Mail) Bailey Siding, N. B.—The 2nd annual outing of the 1st Fredericton Troop, C. B. S., is all too quickly drawing to a close; and all the boys are regretting that Tuesday will soon be here, when the troop will return in the evening of that day.

So far, we have been favored with exceptionally fine weather, and all are delighted to think that the weather man, who frowned so darkly and persistently last Monday, was defied, and that the trip had not been deferred on his account.

The camp is located in an ideal spot, being nicely sheltered in case of severe storms. There are also splendid bathing, fishing, and scouting facilities, besides an abundance of fresh water.

Early on Friday morning we were joined by Mr. A. Taylor, who had remained behind in Fredericton in order to participate in the "Water-Sports" last Thursday, and under whose able tuition the boys are making rapid progress in swimming, several having learned since his arrival.

On Friday evening the Rev. E. Hallstone and Miss Hallstone kindly entertained the whole troop at their home, where refreshments were served, and the time spent in exciting parlor games.

On Saturday the Scoutmaster, together with a notable Indian guide, had the signal honor of being fortunate enough to provide the first batch of pickerel, which formed a toothsome dish for the officers' mess.

Eighteen Scouts turned out for Church Parade on Sunday morning, when the Scoutmaster preached and assisted the Rev. E. Hallstone at Holy Communion.

Good health prevails in the camp in spite of the fact that we had resource to the medicine chest more than once.
