MAX CAREY HAS JOINED BENEDICTS

St. Louis, Jan. 22—Max Carey, Carnarius known in the baseball world as Max Carey, the star outfielder of the Pittsburgh team was married today to Miss Aueria Behrens of this city. The couple met while Carey has been attending a theological seminary here. Within a few months the noted ball player is to be ordained a Lutheran minister, which fact together with his marriage, is taken by his friends to mean that the coming season probably will be his last on the diamond.

KUBIAK LOST TO SAVAGE

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 21—Jim Savage was there with the "stuff" in his battle before the Dixie A. C. tonight with Al Kubiak, and won a well-deserved decision, putting up one of the prettiest scraps ever seen in this city.

In only one round did Kubiak have a chance to put the battle on ice, and then he looked a winner. This was in the fourth, when he has Savage going, but the bell ended his chance, for the fifth found Savage strong as ever.

Jim Jeffries declares that he never learned the crouch from Tommy Flynn, but from boxing with big Bob Armstrong.

REVERSAL OF FORM SHOWN IN N. H. A. LAST NIGHT

Wanderers Bumped Canadiens--Ottawa Trimmed by Tecumsehs---Toronto Doubled Score on Quebec

Montreal, Jan. 22—In one of the most strenuous contests seen in local hockey circles this winter, the Wanderers scored a single goal victory over the Canadiens tonight defeating them four to three. The match was played before the largest audience of the present season, six thousand being in attendance. The play was replete with thrills and sensational rushes and the pace was so fast at the start that the teams slowed down perceptibly before the finish. Freedom from roughness was a feature. The line up:

Wanderers.	Canadiens

Ross	Dubeau

TECUMSEHS 4, OTTAWA 3 Ottawa, Jan. 22—Tecumseh defeated Ottawa 4 to 3 after an exciting overtime match at the Laurier avenue rink this evening. The match was the best played here this season, as the ice was hard and the weather cold, but the visitors outplayed the Senators throughout, and would have won by a much larger score had it not been for the wonderful work of Lesner in the net.
Lesner was to have been replaced by Benedict, but the Ottawas changed their mind, and it was fortunate for them that they did so.

TORONTO 6, QUEBEC 3 Toronto, Jan. 22—Reversals of form are becoming fashionable in the National Hockey Association. The Torontos beat Quebec 6 to 3 here tonight and beat them so handily that the fans are higher in the air than ever regarding the chances of the two local teams in the professional association. Quebec's brilliant performance against the Tecumsehs last Saturday made them 2 to 1 favorites over the tail-end Torontos tonight. At no stage of the play did the Stanley Cup holders lo-like winning. In every period the Torontos had the better of the play.
The score in the first period was 2 to 1 in favor of the locals; in the second period it was 4 to 1, in the final twenty, each scored twice, making the score on the game 6 to 3.

MCGRAW RELEASES DRUCKE

New York, Jan. 22—Manager Mc-Graw of the New York National League Club, announced today that Pitcher Louis Drucke has been released to the Sacramento Club, Pacific Coast League. Drucke joined the Giants in 1909 and the following season gave promise of developing into a star. In the winter of 1910-11 he hurt his shoulder in a subway accident and won a verdict against the traction company for injury to his pitching arm. McGraw and Drucke to Toronto under an optional agreement early last summer and recalled him in September, but was not satisfied that he would return to form.

FUTURITY UNCHANGED

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 21—The Kentucky Futurity for 3-year-olds will remain as it has been since its inauguration, a three-in-five heat race. This was the decision reached by the stock holders of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association at a meeting today after a heated argument lasting for several hours, and the race will be contested under the same rules as heretofore.

The following officers were elected:
E. A. Tipton, president; R. C. Estill and Dr. John Haggard, vice-presidents; Col. John R. Allen, David M.
Lock, L. V. Harkness, R. C. Estill and J. D. Grover, directors; J. Williams, secretary. The resolution prohibiting giving records to yearlings failed to pass.

The man who for eight years was hat-rack attendant at a large St.
Louis hotel, receiving no wages for his work, has just bought a hotel of his own from his tips.

MONCTON VICS TRIMMED TO A STANDSTILL

Halifax Socials Used Whitewash Brush on Railway City's Hockey Experts on Amherst Ice

Amherst, N. S., Jan. 22—Amherst had its first game of professional hockey tonight on a good sheet of ice, when the Halifax Socials trimmed the Moncton Victorias to a standstill, the score standing eight to nothing at the end of the last period.

The game was fast but the penalties were not heavy enough to keep the players from breaking the rules, McGregor of Moncton, being very handy in slashing. Lowther scored the first goal in the second period from wing on a pass. O'Leary netted two in rapid succession. Rattenburg made a rush from the face off and scored the fourth goal for the Socials. Twaddle zig-zagged the length of the rink and poked in the fifth point. Lowther scored again before time was called.

Doherty and Mallen were off in this period, being replaced by Swetnam and Crockett. They appeared again in the last twenty minutes. S.
Murphy and McPherson replaced O'- Leary and Ras Murphy in the last period of the game. McPherson scored the seventh goal in twelve minutes and the eighth in the fourteenth.

No more scores were made during the game. Doherty, Carpenter and Cross played stellar hockey for the Victorias, while O'Leary, Lowther, McPherson, Murphy and Twaddle put up the fast work for the Socials.
Hague was hit on the nose by the puck during the first period and was off the ice for fourteen minutes getting his wound bandaged, which necessitated several stitches.

The line-up:

Victorias	Goal	Socials
Cross	Hague

Carpenter	Murphy

Gregor, three minutes; Murphy, two minutes.

showed New York fans that he was a real fighter.

The proposed 20-round bout between Al Palzer and Jack Johnson resembles a large piece of cheese.

EXPECT MUCH OF HORSES NOW AT DELORIMER PARK

Cresote and Royal Grattan Will Make Grand Circuit History In Season
1913, It is Said

Royal Grattan and Cresote two horses racing at Delorimer Park, Montreal, are likely to make harness racing history next summer around the Grand Circuit.

Royal Grattan, is a bay stallion by Grattan 2.13 the good son of Wilkes Boy and his dam is by Robert McGregor, 2.17 1/2.

Early last year he created a sensation at Detroit by working a mile in 2.05 1/2. With the exception of Dell Ray's trial at 2.03 at North Randall this was the fastest tryout by a green horse in 1912. J. E. Gray, the wealthy horseman of Toronto, who owns King Onwardo, bought Royal Grattan for $5,000 to enter it in the Chamber of Commerce and other big pacing stakes. Like Dell Ray, this new wonder is now five years old.

CREOSOTE GREAT TROTTER

The other sensation is a trotter—Cresote—and he is owned by R. J.
Mackenzie owner of Joe Patcaen II., 2.03 1/2. He too, has won all his starts and has won eased up in 2.21 1/2. This is very fast going for the ice, and especially since the footing this winter has been soft and slushy and that few pacers have been able to beat 2.20.

As Cresote will be seen in the M. and M. in Detroit and the Ohio stake at North Randall, the story of his career will be interesting. He was bred in Kentucky, but showed little worth as a youngster. Last summer he was a splendid winner at the Lexington matinees and he looked so good to that astute horseman, John E. Mac'd'n, that he was bought and the intention was to turn Cresote over to Billy Andrews to race in the Grand Circuit. During the Lexington meeting Andrews stepped the four-year-old in 2.03 1/2 and R. J.
Mackenzie immediately bought him but left him in the east for the winter as the Mackenzie colors are to be seen in California this year.

Cresote is a big rangy gelding, but his size does not prevent him from negotiating the half-mile track turns and he is one of the best bred trotters living. He was sired by the dead Todd, 2.14 1/2, sire of nine trotting stallions in the 2.10 list.

BRED LIKE DORSH MEDIUM

On the maternal side Cresote is bred very much like Dorsh Medium.
His dam is Symposium by the Beau Ideal, 2.15 1/2, a horse for which Captain David Shaw paid $9,000 and she is almost a first sister to Dorsh Medium's dam, Vicenora. Cresote's dam is out of Fantasy 2.06 by Chimes while Vicenora is out of Fantasque an own sister of Fantasy that was the most wonderful trotter of her day, either as a colt or at maturity.

Grand Opera, that was the ice champion one year ago, has won four races this winter but has not had to pace below 2.20. It is likely that he and Royal Grattan will meet in the stallion race at Ottawa.

Nat Ray the ex-steeplechase jockey that drove Knight Onwardo last year is driving both Royal Grattan and Cresote this winter.

LAJOIE SIGNED WITH CLEVELAND FOR $9,000

Cleveland, Jan. 21—Setting aside the rumors that he was to be traded to the New York American League team. Although he has played sixteen seasons in the big leagues, Lajoie batted for .368 last year, and it is said that the salary of $9,000 which he has received for the last four years will be continued.

JOHNNY EVERS' YOUNG BROTHER WITH GIANTS

New York, Jan. 21—Manager Mc-Graw of the New York Nationals, who returned to New York today announced that he will take a young brother of Johnny Evers, manager of the Chicago Nationals, on the Giants training trip to Marlin, Tex.
Evers an infielder is 22 years old.
He has played semiprofessional ball around Troy, N.Y., and has big league ambitions. McGraw says he will give the youngster every chance to qualify.

Johnny Coulon, the American bantamweight champion, has passed up the offer of $3000 to meet Charley Ledoux in Paris.

ting Rinks Lost and One ing match of the season yesterday erickton led by seven points, both

BILL SWEENEY MAKING HIT IN "VODYVILLE"

A vaudeville sketch is being prepared for Captain Bill Sweeney, of Boston, and a partner, who will try it out next week, and if it goes, will secure five or six weeks' time on a good circuit. They have been offered a week at the Orpheum Theatre in Cincinnati. They plan to have a sketch which will carry them on its merits, and not rely simply on Bill's reputation as a all player.

Yankee Schwartz and Bat Schultz have been signed to box in Columbus, O., Jan. 29.
