"In the Case of MY Little Girl—"

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.

STOMACH STARVERS
EAT ANYTHING NOWNo Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Sour, Gassy, Upset Stomach For "Pape's
Diapepsin" Users

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't sit comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

GREAT INTEREST IN TENNIS MATCH

New York, April 5—Sportsmen on both sides of the Atlantic are keenly interested in the series of matches for the world's racket championship to be played between "Jock" Soutar of Philadelphia and Charles Williams of London, the first of which matches takes place today at the Queen's Club in London. The agreement calls for four out of seven matches to decide the victor. The matches are to be played alternately in London and Philadelphia. In addition to the international championship the result of the series will decide the award of a purse of $5000 made up by the supporters of the two men England and the United States.

A Simple Treatment That Will Make Hair Grow Now Sold in Canada

Every up-to-date woman should have radiant hair.

There are thousands of women with harsh, faded, characterless hair, who do not try to improve it.

In England and Paris women take pride in having beautiful hair. Every Canadian woman can have lustrous and luxuriant hair by using SALVIA, the Great American Sage Hair Tonic.

Every reader of The Mail can have an attractive head of hair in a few weeks by using SALVIA.

All first class druggists sell a large bottle for 50 cents, and guarantee it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in ten days, or money back.

SALVIA is a beautiful, pleasant, non-sticky Hair Tonic.

Sold at Ryan's Drug Store.

WHY BORDEN CANNOT SPRING AN ELECTION

sources of his office, with the assistance of all the available printing offices, with the necessary staff, we not permit to get the lists ready under two or three months.

Any election must be held when the condition of the roads makes it practicable. The conditions in the northern part of British Columbia, of Quebec, and New Ontario have to be borne in mind. No general election can be held before the month of June.

TORONTO RAILWAY.

Toronto Railway has been firm this week, but it is easily influenced by buying or selling orders coming in at the market and for this reason is not popular with the trading element and therefore would only buy it on breaks for a turn. Their earnings are good and could easily be advanced if any concerted buying was put in the market.

FADS AND FASHIONS

New York, April 5—The prevailing style of afternoon gowns, with its infinite variety of materials and combinations enables designers to give full sway to their taste and ingenuity. Charmeuse and serge, charmeuse brocade and chiffon, taffeta, crepe and embroidered chiffon are combined on the same gown. The tight fitting lower skirt may be of shepherd's plaid serge with a draped top of black charmeuse, or a crepe foundation may have an over-drapery of printed silk, and sleeves of chiffon or charmeuse in an entirely different color.

Premet taffeta, a soft, changeable silk printed in tiny flowers, has superseded the foulard, which has been the popular spring material for many seasons past. The printed and embroidered chiffons are excellent choice. The designs are large and the colorings bright. Cabbage roses are outlined in black, and are seen on tan or old blue marquisette, chiffon and silk crepe. Crepe de Chine and crepons are printed, and many of them show a rough finish. Callot has introduced a plaid chiffon in pastel tones. An iridescent moire taffeta plays a conspicuous part in the materials for the afternoon models.

Bodices are transparent, in many instances all white. Blouse and bolero are both good style and their effect is youthful. Frequently waist and sleeve are one. The kimono sleeve and dropped shoulder seam is still much used, also the bishop sleeve shirred in tightly at the wrist with frills of lace on tulle at the hand.

Balkan buttons are a novelty. They are large and jeweled to match the costume. Collars resembling the Elizabethan ruff are now worn. They are high at the back and roll into revers in the front. All of the afternoon and theatre gowns have a semi-decollete neck round or V-shaped. Few trains are shown in this informal frock. Almost without exception these models are slashed and an imitation petticoat may be worn.

Sashes are an interesting feature. They are applied in every manner, draped on the waist line or about the hips. They hang from the shoulder, cross in the back and fall in a knot over the left hip. The treatment of the sash ranges from the severest bands to the softest folds, and it may be a mere band encircling the waist, or it may extend to the armpits.

Evening gowns this spring, though lighter in tone and less barbaric in character than formerly, are just as elaborate as ever. The simple little dance frock. Colors are varied in one gown is no more except for the fabric and several fabrics, differing in color and design and combined in one garment; lace of every conceivable kind and material is used as trimming. Brocade is still high in favor, all the well known materials and new ones being made in brocade designs, charmeuse, meteor, crepe de Chine, Canton crepe, moire, flowered chiffon, satin and plain chiffon are the materials most used.

Colors are varied and rather bold. Apricot, geranium, American Beauty and paprika are taking the place of the deeper reds. There are many of the metallic hues like absinthe, which is at present very smart, sulphur, beige, brass, gold and an unattractive shade of mustard color. The greens are very vivid and the blues very soft and almost dull in tone. This is essentially a color period, although black or black and white are always in demand. Sometimes a touch of black or very dark green appears as a contrasting note to give character to a gown of color.

Laces of soft texture, also those of gold and silver thread, nets, beaded, embroidered and bulged, artificial flowers, festoons of French ribbon and chiffon rosebuds, crystal banding and velvet ribbons are the accepted materials for trimming.
