TORY TIPS LOYALISTS

A favorite Tory argument in favor of the Borden naval policy of contribution is that Canada owes England a debt of gratitude because her capitalists have invested an enormous sum of money in this country. Their position on the naval issue hardly coincides with the attitude the Tory leaders took when the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier adopted the British preference in 1897. During the general election which followed the adoption of this imperial policy Sir Wilfrid and his government were denounced in all the moods and tenses for not demanding a quid pro quo from the mother country. Little or nothing was then said by the Tory leaders or their press of the debt which Canada owes to England. On the contrary the government was denounced for seeking to add to the wealth of the millionaires of Birmingham, Manchester and Sheffield without getting a single benefit out of it for Canadians. Here is a sample of the literature which the Tories circulated during the campaign of 1900, when Sir Charles Tupper was leader of the party.

"The Conservative claim that the preferential Canadian tariff in favor of the manufacturers of England should be used to get for the farmers and other producers in Canada similar preference for Canadian products in Great Britain. Preference for preference in the Conservative policy. The Liberals give the preference and asked nothing, thus helping to add to the fortunes of the millionaires of Birmingham, Manchester and Sheffield, without getting a single benefit out of it for Canadians. The farmers of Canada having such a preference in the British market as Conservatives aim at securing would also be induced to produce on bigger scale with a better margin of profit and the number of farmers would greatly increase. The general result would be a large increase in the populations of both towns and farming districts and a better home market for all producers. The Liberals threw away this chance for a fair business transaction that would greatly benefit the Canadian people."

This was the attitude which the loyal Tories took in 1897 when the Liberal government gave to the British manufacturers a preference in our market. Nothing was said then of the debt of gratitude we owed England because her capitalists assisted in the development of the resources of this country. The Tories were willing that the British workmen should be taxed for the benefit of the willing that the British workmen Canadian producers. Today they are should be taxed for the support of three empty ships which they are anxious to provide at a cost to the tax payers of this country of thirty-five million dollars. What great patriots and great loyalists they are to be sure.

Now let us contrast the huckstering policy of the Tories with the attitude taken by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, when as premier of Canada he visited England in 1897 to attend the Diamond Jubilee of the late Queen Victoria. His first public utterance was at Liverpool when in reply to an address of welcome he said:

"I claim for the present government of Canada that they have passed resolution by which the products of Great Britain are admitted on the rate of their tariff, at 12½ per cent. and next year at 25 per cent. reduction. This we have done, not asking any compensation. There is a class of our fellow citizens who ask that all such concessions should be made for quid pro quo, but the Canadian government has ignored all such sentiments. We have done it because we owe a debt of gratitude to Great Britain. We have done it because it is no intention of ours to disturb in any way the system of free trade which has done so much for England. What we give by our tariff we give you in gratitude for the splendid freedom under which we have prospered."

The Tories denounced Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1897 for not demanding a quid pro quo from the mother country in exchange for tariff concessions. Today they are denouncing him as a separatist because he refuses to give his support to a naval policy which means the contribution of three empty ships that the already overburdened taxpayers of Great Britain will be called upon to equip and maintain. The British preference was a practical proposal for the benefit of the people of Great Britain. The Laurier policy of a Canadian navy, composed of ships to be built in Canada by Canadian workmen and manned by Canadian seamen is another such proposal. The Tories at election times are wont to proclaim their loyalty from the house tops and wave the old flag, but when it comes to doing something practical for the benefit of the mother country they are not there with the goods. On one hand we have Tory brag and bluster and on the other we have Liberal performance. Yet if we are to believe the reptile Tory press the Liberals are separatists, and the Tories are the empire builders. Public sentiment in this country today seems to indicate that the old flag as a vote getter for the Tory party has been sadly overworked. You can fool some of the people some of the time but you cannot fool all the people all the time. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal party which he leads stand today on Imperial question just where they stood in 1897. They recognize the debt of gratitude which Canada owes to Great Britain and are prepared to aid her in a practical and business like way. They believe that a policy that will benefit Canadians will surely benefit the mighty empire of which we are all proud to form a part.

A Victoria B.C., newspaper recently published the following: "Mr. James Dunsmuir has loaned the city $150,000 to meet the present financial requirements on very favorable terms. This is a very public-spirited act on Mr. Dunsmuir's part and its effect will reach further than to meet the temporary needs of the city. It is an admirable thing that at a time when municipal securities are regarded with by no means too much favor one of our own people has testified his faith in the city by making so substantial an advance." No doubt the above will recall to the minds of many citizens conditions which existed here during the financial panic of 1907. The city was hard up financially and had its checks turned down by one of the local banks. Mr. Edward Moore, a gentleman, who is generally supposed to be on easy street, was approached, and had sufficient faith in the city to lend it twenty thousand dollars. He tilted the city over a difficult situation and earned the gratitude of his fellow citizens.

office of Solicitor General is likely to go to Mr. E. N. Rhodes, M. P. for Cumberland. The Mail was in hopes that the claims of Mr. O. S. Crockett M. P. for York, might have been recognized by the Premier, but it seems he is still on the waiting list.

ST. JOHN SWINDLER IN BOSTON JAIL

Boston June 11—Richard D. Isaacs, alias Max Ross, who wanted the police to identify him as a promoter, was brought back from New York last night by Inspector Waite of police headquarters, charged with being implicated in land frauds in the Canadian Northwest.

It is alleged that Isaacs has been going about through the Eastern States and Canada representing that he owned large tracts of land in Saskatchewan and disposing of them to eager buyers.

He is charged with the larceny of $1000 from Alfred F. St. Coeur of 207 Bridge Street, East Cambridge, who represented himself and two brothers in a land deal by which they supposed they had bought a tract in the town of Saskatchewan according to the police.

He is also alleged to have sold land in the same places to buyers in St. John, N. P. and other places. Isaacs was located in New York after a chase of several months by the Canadian officers. He was arrested there some days ago and his case was continued until yesterday, pending an investigation of other claims by the State Department of Washington.

As soon as the fact of Isaacs' arrest became known the Boston officers who held an indictment warrant for him appealed to the Governor of New York for the prisoner.

MANY REASONS WHY LIQUID COUGH MIXTURES CAN'T CURE BRONCHITIS

But the Healing Fumes of Catarrh-zone, Which are Breathed to the Furthest Recesses of the Bronchial Tubes, Bring Quick Relief and Sure Cure

Every sufferer from coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and chest ailments needs a soothing, healing medicine which goes direct to the breathing organs in the chest and lungs, attacks the trouble at the source, disperses the germs of disease and cures the ailment thoroughly. And this medicine is "Catarrh-zone."

The germ-killing balsamic vapor mixes with the breath, descends through the throat, down the bronchial tubes and finally reaches the deepest air cells in the lungs. All parts are soothed with rich, pure, medicated essences, whereas with a syrup the affected parts could not be reached and harm would result through benumbing the stomach with drugs.

"I have been a chronic sufferer from catarrh in the nose and throat for over eight years. I think I have spent four hundred dollars trying to get relief. I have spent but six dollars on Catarrh-zone and have been completely cured and, in fact, have been well for some time. Catarrh-zone is the only medicine I have been able to find that would not only give temporary relief but will always cure permanently. Yours sincerely, (Signed) WILLIAM RAGAN, Brockville, Ont.
