

"In the Case of MY Little Girl—"

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.

"Have you a little 'Fairy' in your home?"

Even if Luther McCarty were willing to fight Jack Johnson, it is a question whether or not a promoter could be found willing to stage the bout. Johnson will have to stand trial in the Federal Court under the "White Slave" act and it matters little to boxing fans whether he is declared innocent or guilty. He is pretty much a dead one.

Arthur Pelky, of Chicopee, Mass., has challenged Luther McCarty to box him for $5000 a side. What is it, a new cough syrup or an ad for Chicopee?

CONSTIPATION Can Be Cured.

You cannot expect to be well if you allow your bowels to become clogged. What is necessary is to have a free motion of them every day, and to keep them in this condition all the time if you wish to be strong and healthy. If you don't keep them open the system will become clogged up with poisonous matter and produce constipation, headache, dyspepsia, bad blood, etc.

Keep the bowels in good condition by using Burdock Blood Bitters; the remedy that has built up an unrivalled reputation, during the past thirty-six years, as a cure for all troubles arising from a constipated condition of the bowels.

Mrs. Thomas Calder, East Lower Fort Garry, writes:—"I am writing you to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I suffered very much from constipation and none of the medicines I took agreed with me. Now I am glad to say that there is nothing like B.B.B. Since taking it I have not been troubled."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TEACHING BY PARABLES ONLY.

—Matt. 13:34, 35.—Sept. 29.—

Text: "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life."—John 6:63.

BIBLE STUDENTS and Bible scholars have generally expressed surprise that the Great Teacher spoke always to the people in symbolic language, "dark sayings," the meaning of which they rarely understood. Another Scripture informs us that the reason was that the true invitation was not intended for the multitudes, but merely for the consecrated. Those who accepted the Lord as the Saviour, and took upon themselves the required vow of faithfulness in walking in His footsteps unto death, were granted special enlightenment: "To you it is given to know the mystery of the Kingdom of Heaven, but to outsiders these things are spoken in parables, that they might not see and understand."

The entire matter is clarified when we recognize the difference between the salvation of the world to the human nature, during Messiah's reign of a thousand years, and the salvation provided for the Elect, called during this Age.

It has been claimed that the doctrines of Christianity can be better gleaned from the writings of the Apostles than from the sayings of Jesus. There is considerable truth in this claim, and the reason is manifest: Jesus' words were addressed mainly to the multitudes, and when He addressed the disciples He could not discuss even with them deep, spiritual truths, because they had not been begotten of the Holy Spirit, and therefore could not understand spiritual things. Jesus himself declared, "I have many things to tell you, but ye cannot bear them now."

"After Ye Were Illuminated." St. Paul gives the key in one of his Epistles, saying, "After ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions." (Heb. 10:42.) The illumination received was the begetting of the Holy Spirit.

This has been true of all the members of the Body of Christ throughout this Age. Each one presenting his body a living sacrifice has been accepted by the great Advocate, and presented as a part of His own Offering; and then the offerer has been begotten of the Holy Spirit to be a New Creature in Christ.

It is to these New Creatures that the statement is made, "All things are yours, for ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's." To these the Bible has promised, "He will show you things to come." These are to be guided into all Truth as it becomes due. For these the Word of God is a Storehouse, from which "things both new and old" are produced under the Spirit's guidance, as they become "meat in due season."

Even New Creatures must make progress in their appreciation of spiritual things. The Apostle urges such: "As new born babes desire the sincere milk of the Word, that ye might grow thereby." And the growth is necessary if they would attain joint-heirship in the Kingdom; hence the Apostle urges that each seek not to continue a babe, but to become a man, and to use the "strong meat" of Divine Truth. Thus he is sanctified, developed as a New Creature, filled with the Spirit, and "thoroughly furnished unto every good work," by knowledge of the Word of God.

Now our text: "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life." Here our Lord endeavored to impress His dear disciples with the thought that they should not take His words too literally, but look for the deeper meaning. And, they were to remember that they could not get that deep meaning until after the Master's ascension; as He said, "It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away the Holy Spirit will not come unto you; but if I go away I will send Him unto you."

The Master's words were "words of life" in that they conveyed the great Message of the terms upon which we may have everlasting life and become His joint-heirs. Although the Apostles explain the philosophy of the Divine Plan in great detail, more than did Jesus, yet in His saying we find the very essence of the Gospel. Nowhere are the terms of discipleship more carefully laid down than in Jesus' words, because the disciples could understand the meaning of self-denial, cross-bearing, and walking in His step, even if they could not understand the philosophy of justification, sanctification, election and Divine foreknowledge.

From Jesus' words more clearly than from any others we get the thought of the "water of life," and how it is now in His followers a "spring" of truth, grace and everlasting life. Nowhere else do we more clearly get the statement that the Father hath life in Himself, and hath granted unto the Son life in Himself, and that He might share this life with His disciples—with whomsoever He would. Thus, as St. Paul says, the words of this salvation began to be spoken by our Lord. He brought "life" and "immortality" to light, both the general reward of everlasting life to be given to the world, and the special reward to be granted to the Church.

EVERY farmer finds himself now and then with a few idle hours in which both himself and his help must look for "odd jobs" to keep them busy. Use these hours to make concrete fence posts. You can make a few at a time, storing them until needed. Then when you want a fence in the new field, your posts—everlasting, concrete posts—are all ready to use. The making of fence posts is only one of scores of every-day uses for concrete on the farm described in the book,
