MORGAN'S SPECTADLES

illustrative of the scale of his domestic affairs, reaches me, says a writer in The Manchester Guardian. My correspondent was in a London optician's shop when another customer entered, and, striding up to the counter, brusquely inquired, "Can you make me another pair like that?' -presenting spectacles of the "goggles" type in tortoise shall rims and gold frames. "Yes," said the opti-cian, "I can." Send them up to to my place as soon as they're ready. You know who I am," were the laconic instructions given as the cus-tomer strode out of the shop as quickly as he had entered. The opcician explained that that was Mr. Pierpont Morgan. The spectacles were delivered, and m_V friend, making inquiries in the matter, heard the end of the affair from the optician. Pierpont Morgan returned to the shop, and, speaking more effusive ly than on the first occasion said:

Was Troubled With His Heart. HAD TO GIVE UP WORK.

When the heart begins to beat i.re-gularly, palpitates and throbs, skips beats, and sometimes seems to almost stop, it causes great anxiety and alarm. Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social or business duties, through this unnatural action of the heart.

To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and per-

Mr. Alfred Male, Eloida, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with my heart for two or three years. I thought some-times that I would die. I went to the times that I would die. I went to the doctor, and he said he could not do any-thing for me. I had to give up work. My wife persuaded me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. The first box relieved me, so I kept on until I had taken seven boxes, and they cured me. I would not be without them on any account, as they are worth their weight in gold. I advise my friends and neighbours who are troubled with heart or nerve trouble to try, them."

LIBERAL SSTAND FOR

The counting and scrutinizing of the largest vote ever taken, so said the secretary, took so long at the annual meeting of the Reform Club last night in the Windsor Hotel that it was nearly eleven o'clock before sitting was brought to a close.

ALLEGANCE TO CROWN

A resolution in support of the stand made by the Liberal party against the naval contribution was moved by Mr. Andrew McMasser in the following terms, and Mr. Timmis, seconded by Mr. Gosselin, 110 posed that copies be telegraphed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and to Bir Geo. Ross

"That the annual meeting of the Montreal Reform Club places on record its appreciation of the fight made by the Liberal party at Ottawa for Canadian autonomy, and expresses the hope that the Senate of Canada will taken all constitutional means to give an opportunity to the Rt. Hon. Mr. R. L. Borden of implementing his promise to bring the question of the naval contribution before the Canadian people for decision." Vigorous speeches were made by Messrs. Andrew McMaster, A. K.Cam eron, Ant. Perrault, R. L. Calder, W. T. Castle and Dr. Hersey.

FOR NATIONAL ALLEGIANCE

Mr. McMaster forcefully defended the Liberal party against Mr. Borden's accusation of disloyalty at Toronto, and said that the party stood for national allegiance before aught else. But he said, it was necessary to make people coming into this country believe that it was of Can ada that they must think first. We have all joked at the expense of the American statesmen who are always telling their people that the United States are the greatest thing yet, but that policy, after all, was the right one, even if it were sometimes carried looked first to the old land in crisis it was hardly to be expected that members of either nationalities would do so, and if English people were encouraged to look across the sea it was not to be expected that the German should not look back to the Fatherland and the Italian back to Italy, and even, the American set-tler back to the United States. The only way to make this a great nation was to cultivate an allegiance to Canada itself, and to stick to self government of purely Canadian affairs. The Empire was an associa tion of self governing kingdoms, not a series of dependencies, and he stated that the Conservatives, in not too far. Even if English emigrants recognizing this fact, which was fully recognized by both parties in England, were a generation behind the times. Concluding his speech with an assertion of loyalty. Mr. McMaster expressed his full confidence in the Ice Cream and Fancy Ices in any
