AD WOLGAST

LOST TO "HARLEM
TOMMY" MURPHY

Went Twenty Rounds at San Francisco
---Murphy Says He is Ready to Meet Ritchie

San Francisco, Cal., April 19—For sixteen rounds "Harlem Tommy" Murphy, of New York, and Ad Wolgast battled today, with little to choose between them. Then Wolgast missed a right swing and paved the way for a fight-end decision in favor of Murphy.

Incidentally it served to bring the Harlem fighter to the front tanks as a lightweight championship contender after thirteen years of dogged effort.

In the seventeenth round Wolgast sent a terrific right swing to his opponent's jaw. It fell short, and the ex-champion spun around like a top and all but fell to the floor. Murphy then smashed the spinning Wolgast's face until the blood sprang in every direction. Wolgast wilted like a leaf and stalled and clinched to the end of the fight to avoid a knockout.

In the eighteenth round Wolgast received the worst beating of his long career. He opened with a rush, but a straight right caught him on the chin and stopped him short. Murphy fairly smothered his opponent in this round with cutting half-arm jolts to the face, and it required the services of Wolgast's entire retinue of seconds to patch his face between the rounds.

The nineteenth and twentieth rounds found Murphy beating a ceaseless tattoo on his almost helpless antagonist's body and face, but the power to deliver a finishing punch was lacking and the New Yorker was compelled to be content with a well-earned decision in his favor.

Wolgast was a sorry sight as his seconds carried him from the ring. Prior to the seventeenth round the battle was almost a repetition of the previous meeting between the two, which ended in a draw. Wolgast landed frequently on the body and Murphy devoting himself to his rival's face and head. Wolgast's punches, most of which were delivered and had little effect.

Murphy declared he was ready to meet Willie Ritchie for the title at a moment's notice.

"Murphy is the toughest ever," was Wolgast's only comment.

SWEDE FROM MINNEAPOLIS WON BOSTON MARATHON

Fritz Carlsen Made Fast
Time Broke No Record
---About Four Minutes
Slower Than Ryan---
Sockalexis of Oldtown,
Me., Second---Wins
Bride

Boston, April 20—Marathon laurels were fathered today by Fritz Carlsen a young Swedish athlete, of Cooke's gymnasium, Minneapolis, who captured the seventeenth renewal of the American long distance classic in fast, but not record-breaking, time. The Minnesotan covered the twenty-five miles of rolling roadway in two hours, twenty-five minutes, 14-4-5 seconds, which is three minutes, 56-3-5 seconds slower than the record established last year by Mike Ryan of New York.

Andrew Sockalexis, the Oldtown, Me., Indian, was second by exactly two minutes, and Harry J. Smith of the Bronx Church House, New York, who set the pace for three-quarters of the distance, during which he made new times at several checking points, was a good third.

Sockalexis, it turned out later, was fighting for an added prize in the form of the hand of Pauline Shea of Penobscot, who waited anxiously at the finish and swooned as the Indian staggered across the line. When Miss Shea had been revived she told the judges that she would marry the man anyway.

SPORTS OF ALL KINDS

They say Charley Carr's baseball school at San Antonio is to cost $750,000. Whew! Charley is some promoter. He must have engaged a corps of Ty Cobbs as professors at bank-president salaries.

Boston Globe—Dan McDonald, the New England 158 pound amateur champion boxer, is entered in the Canadian boxing championships from his home city, New Glasgow, R. S. It looks as if he had repudiated Boston as his place of residence since he was allowed to box in the New England championships.

Drat these busted kness! The fans would be mighty sad if Honus Wagner should be out of the game for any length of time. It is a case of the more he wallops at the better we like him.

Reports from Lewis state that Harry Lewis the Philadelphia boxer who has been living in London for some time, is planning a trip to Australia where he will engage in a series of bouts with the leading boxers of his weight.

HOOF PRINTS

A purse of $1000 has been hung up at Minneapolis for a two-mile race for trotters at the Minnesota State Fair in August. It will be a dash, open to all horses of the 2:20 class, and with a good field should be the feature of the meeting. One of the advantages of a two-mile race is that the winner seldom gains so fast a record as in a race at one mile.

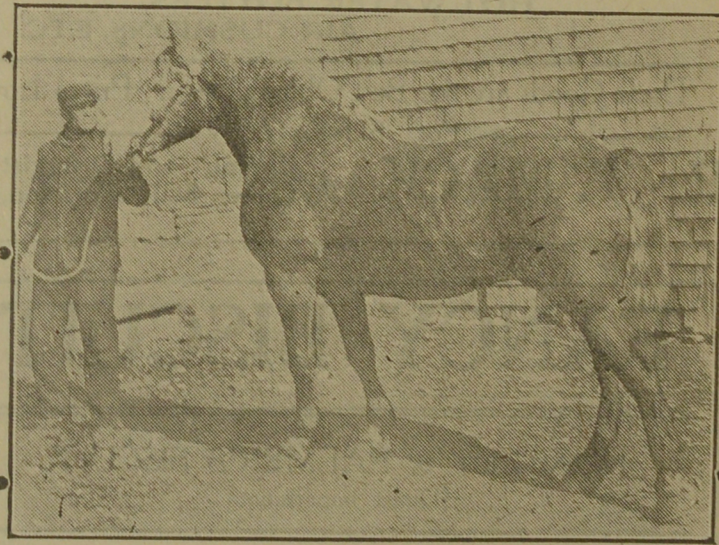

H. H. Lee has been appointed race manager of the Central Maine Fair at Waterville and has announced six early closing purses—three $500 events, for trotters eligible to the 2:18, 2:30 and 2:40 classes. Later, eight events will be added to the race program. There will be no classes restricted to Maine-owned or bred horses this year.

Reports have been received from about 10,000 correspondents of the bureau of statistics of the Department of Agriculture upon the cost of raising colts on farms to the age of three years. The average for the United States is found to be $104.06, or, if we deduct the value of work done by the horse before he has passed his third year, namely $7.52, the net cost is $96.54. This is 70.9 per cent. of the selling value of such horses, $136.17.

The Wireless Operators' union of San Francisco, Calif., was recently organized.
