SCAREMONGERS ARE BUSY

The following extract from an article telling of the doings of the scaremongers in the Old Country was clipped from an English exchange:

The scaremongers are having the time of their lives, and bewildered John Bull is told to look out for enemies in the heavens above, the earth beneath, on the waters around our doomed little island, and down beneath the waters in the bed of the ocean. The other day I saw a list of twenty-seven places in these islands in which these airships had been seen and heard within the last day or two—places so far apart as the Orkney Islands in the north to Dover and Portsmouth in the South and Hull and Grimsby in the East, to Liverpool and Somerset in the west. Everybody's seeing them, and anyone who declines to be scared out of his life is no true patriot. Indeed, the more funky a man is the finer citizen he is supposed to be by the scaremongers. They would like to have us all running about this way and that like so many chickens in a farmyard when a hawk is seen to be hovering above—fluttering, chirping, and showing every sign of adject terror. It is a curious demonstration to be engineered by a party of warriors!

Of course we are told that this vast flock of airships is from Germany. Each night scores of them are let loose from the Fatherland, they come whirling over here with the speed of a hurricane, and then like ghosts they disappear at dawn, and are all snugly perched up at home again before our innocent countrymen are awake and abroad. But some watchful gentlemen have caught glimpses of these prowlers in the upper chambers of the air—and what do they say of the shape of these flying monsters? They all agree that it is the shape of a sausage—and I ask if anything could be more grimly significant than that? The sausage stands for German strength in its most deadly form. The sausage has made Germany known and feared throughout the world. And when John Bull sees a colossal sausage floating in the air he feels that the day of doom is at hand, he is convinced that ere long he will be loaded with chains, marched off to that region beyond the Rhine, and there butchered to make a Teuton holiday—or perhaps to make more sausages. So poor John Bull finds relief in writing to the papers and willing editors yell, "Bring forth the fatted type and set it"—and so the game goes on.

Here is Canada also, the "scare-ist" has become something approaching and established institution, but he is a pale and ineffectual "star" compared with his British prototype and he is not taken in earnest. It almost begins to look as if the Anglo-Saxon, heretofore the coolest, calmest and most resolute of mankind, is becoming a neurasthenic and a hysteric, and in danger of becoming the laughing stock of his contemporaries. The attack is likely to pass off, for the race is a solidly based one, but in the meantime we must not allow ourselves in this country to be stampeded into any foolish steps which, while costing the country dearly, are performing no needed or useful purpose.

Hon. H. F. McLeod informs the Fredericton organ of the paggers that he never made certain statements on the political situation at Ottawa attributed to him by a Montreal newspaper. The Provincial Secretary is known as a very modest man and talks so little when away from home that it is difficult to understand how any newspaper reporter could misconstrue his utterances. It is not unreasonable therefore to assume that the scribe who penned the interview in question labored under the belief that he was doing the provincial secretary a good turn.

Halifax Chronicle: The returns from Alberta show that the farmers stood almost solidly behind the Liberal party! This is typical of the sentiment throughout the Dominion. The farmers are the backbone of the country, and they are on the side of Liberalism and progress. It is only in the cities and towns where the influence of the Big Interests, New wealth and so-called "society" is most strongly exercised that Toryism is able to maintain its hold.

A customs officer at Coaticook, Quebec, who wrote a letter during the last federal election complaining of the disloyal utterances of certain nationalist candidates committed a grave offence in the eyes of the Borden government and was dismissed from office. Hon. Dr. Pugsley brought the matter up in Parliament a few days ago and pleaded for the man's reinstatement. The ultra loyal Tories however, refused to entertain the proposition.

It is now twenty-two days since the draw-span of the Fredericton bridge was carried away by the ice, but the business-like Flemming government has not yet provided the people with a means of getting across the river.

A young lawyer who recently went west from New Brunswick stumped the Bow Valley in Alberta for the Tory candidate in the recent political campaign. The returns show that the Liberal candidate led at every poll.

The Liberal Government of Alberta seems to have the farmers solidly at its back. Most of the cities of the province where the big interests were able to make their influence felt elected Tory members.

There is more trouble ahead for Premier Borden. His Nationalist allies are now threatening to desert him on the closure.

BIG TURF EVENTS AT EPSOM DOWNS

London, April 22—Historic Epsom, the oldest of the great racing courses of England, Newmarket excepted, will be the scene today of three great turf events, the Great Metropolitan Handicap, the Great Surrey Handicap and the North Park Plate. The famous City and Suburban Handicap is also scheduled for decision at Epsom tomorrow. The big event of the year at Epsom is, of course, the Derby, to be run this year on June 4th. Epsom has been a racing center for over two centuries, the first meet having been held there in 1711. It was not until 1730 that regular annual meetings were inaugurated, however. The Oaks—which famous turf classic will be held this year on June 6th—was begun by Edward Stanley, twelfth Earl of Derby, in 1779, and the Epsom Derby was inaugurated the following year. The first foreign horse to capture the classic was the French colt Gladiateur, owned by Count Lagrange, in 1805. It was at about that time that the Derby began to be recognized as one of the greatest of turf events. For fifteen or twenty years after its inaugural it had a small value and there was little distinction in winning it.

Waist makers in France work ten hours a day and the average pay earned by them never exceeds 48 cents.

FROM HALIFAX TO VANCOUVER

WOMEN ARE PRAISING DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Nova Scotia Mother Tells How They Cured Her Aches and Pains, and Made Her a Well Woman Again

Ecum Secum Bridge, Halifax Co., N. S., April 21.—(Special)—From Vancouver to Halifax come daily reports of the splendid work Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing for the suffering women of Canada, and this little place can show a splendid cure of its own. Mrs. Orastus Pace, the mother of a large family, was a sufferer from those aches and pains only women know. Today she is a strong, healthy woman. Dodd's Kidney Pills did it.

"I had a pain in my left side and down through my hips," Mrs. Pace says. "I had headache all the time. My heart was weak, and at times a pain around it added to my fears. Some days I was hardly able to walk."

"I read of a number of cures of cases like mine by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and sent for three boxes. Today I am a well woman and can do as much work as ever I could."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mrs. Pace because her troubles came from diseased kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys, and as ninety per cent. of women's troubles come from kidney trouble, Dodd's Kidney Pills have come to be known as suffering woman's best friend.

OUTLOOK FOR NASHWAAK

It is not known yet what portion of that cut or if any will be manufactured at the Marysville Mills. Preparations for rafting at the mouth of the Nashwaak are being made. Some lumber from the Peniac, Tay and other streams have already arrived at Marysville.

WANT EXHIBITION STAKES.

The directors of the Fredericton Park Association met last night and discussed various matters. The project to have a mid-summer meet was dealt with further. It was also decided to have a committee wait upon the executive of the Fredericton Exhibition and ask that the exhibition offer a couple of stakes as an encouragement for the breeding of harness horses, these stakes to be raced for during exhibition week. Another committee is to wait upon the management of the Fredericton baseball team and endeavor to prevent a clash of dates between races and baseball. The directors of the Park Association will meet again Wednesday night.

AFTER DELINQUENTS.

The Finance Committee met yesterday and discussed some matters of routine business. It was decided that the City Treasurer should take steps to collect taxes up to and including the year 1911-12.
