LOWER ST. MARYS

The closing exercises of the school at Lower St. Mary's were held at 10 o'clock, Friday morning and were very interesting. A large number of visitors were present who seemed to enjoy the excellent program provided.

The room where the exercises were held has been beautifully and tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and certainly looked well.

The prize winners in Miss Cartan's room were Mildred Watters, Ivy Vivian, Mary Dinnsmore, Maurice Sears and Della McCluskey.

In Mrs. Hamilton's room were Marion Limerick Grade 1, Thomas McCluskey Grade 2, and Earl Estrabrooks Grade 3, Miss Mildred Watters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Watters seemed to be the star pupil.

She won three prizes for perfect attendance, high standing and highest marks and proved himself to be a very bright and devoted scholar.

Following is the program which was well selected and and those taking part were well trained.

Opening address—Phillip McCluskey Song—School.

Dialogue—Mrs. Buttermilk. Song—"School House."

Song—Canada. Dialogue—"The British Flag."

Dialogue—May Day. Donkey Song—Eva Bloom.

Dialogue—Hunter and Rabbit. Song—Summertime.

Dialogue—Daisy's Dialogue—Tramp's Vis t.

Song—School House Dear Goodbye. God Save the King.

At the conclusion of the exercises ice-cream was served to the children who started off rejoicing on their summer vacation.

MILITANT SUFFRAGETTES

The residents of St. Mary's were entertained today when two Assyrian ladies put on a bout on the main highway. After the second round, time was called and an altercation ensued. No trace was arrived at and the contestants went behind a building to resume hostilities. According to last accounts they were still at it and going strong.

ANOTHER FALL

A horse belonging to Mr. Rolly Manzer of Marysville slipped on the pavement on Queen Street this morning and it was necessary to take off the harness before it could get up. No damage was done, but this adds another to the long list of falls and near accidents on the Queen Street pavement.

AT CHERRY BANK

Mr. F. B. Edgecombe and family have taken up their abode at Cherry Bank for the summer months.

George Broadhurst, whose pen has produced everything from farce to serious drama, has written a musical play called "The Song of the World."
