MORGAN'S BODY HAS ARRIVED

It Now Rests Among the Art Treasures of His Library

Funeral Service Will be Held on Monday Morning and Interment Will be Made at Hareford

New York, April 11.—The body of J. P. Morgan lies tonight among the art treasures of his private library. It reached New York on the steamer France, in a driving rain this afternoon, and at dusk was taken from the ship's mortuary chapel and placed in a heavy velvet and resplendent silver and gold, to a motor hearse, which conveyed it from the pier to the library.

Hundreds traveled the drenching rain and stood in the streets to watch it pass. Among the rare bronzes, costly paintings and other art objects which he brought here from Europe, the dead financier will lie in state till Monday morning, when the funeral services will be held in George's Protestant Episcopal church.

The steamer came into the harbor with her flags drooping at half-mast. Through thick weather (and amid torrents of rain she crept to her straining by a fleet of tugs to warp her big ship into her slip. All her passengers, save the funeral party, were ashore half an hour before Mr. Morgan's body was taken from its resting place in the mortuary chapel to the hearse.

Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, the dead financier's daughter, and Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton, his granddaughter, the only women in the funeral party were met aboard the vessel by Mrs. J. P. Morgan, Jr. The three women left in an automobile for the Morgan home before the body was removed. J. P. Morgan, son of the dead man, met the France at quarantine and remained aboard with Herbert L. Satterlee, H. H. Harjes, a partner in the Morgan Banking Company in Paris, and Dr. George of the financier, joined the party Dixon. Junius S. Morgan, grandson when the vessel docked.

When all other passengers had left the vessel the men of the funeral party assembled in the mortuary chapel, to follow the body to the hearse. Ten uniformed men of the France's crew carried the heavy casket. Across it was draped a great American flag—the which the United States government gave to France to commemorate her maiden voyage as the largest ship which the French had ever sent to America.

London, April 12.—Society gathered in full force today at Westminster Abbey for the wedding of Lady Beatrice Cecil, who is intimately related to no fewer than half a dozen of England's greatest families, and Hon. OFFER FOR WHARF

The Wharf Committee at a meeting held last night considered the application of Mr. D. J. Purdy of the Crystal Stream S. S. Company for improved wharf accommodation. It was decided to inform Mr. Purdy that his line would be given the use of the city wharf near the foot of King Street for the annual rental of $100 and that an additional thirty-five feet in length would be built on to the present warehouse and the top of the wharf planked for an annual rental of $50. The company under the terms offered can berth either one or two steamers at the wharf.

Liberals at Ottawa Are Putting up Stiff Fight

Government Making a Desperate Effort to Apply the Gag but so far Without Success—Anxious to Stave off Enquiry Into Administrative Scandals Which are Looming Up—Do Not Want Pelletier's Mail Bag Lock Deal Proposed—Fireworks are Expected in the House Next Week

Ottawa, April 11.—The week in parliament has ended with the Liberals still fighting and the closure rule not yet adopted.

The government has been trying hard to apply the gag for the past four days, but in spite of its majority of fifty it has not yet succeeded. The Liberals have kept the floor in spite of Hon. Mr. Hazen's motion for the previous question.

Next week fireworks are expected. The government is certain to make another attempt to force the closure through, so that it may be in a position to refuse investigation of the various scandals which are developing. With the post office lock deal involving $350,000 and with some peculiar dredging contracts which are coming to light things are moving too fast for them.

Telegrams continue to pour in upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier congratulating him upon his courage and urging him to continue the fight. It will be resumed Monday and the struggle continued from day to day.

LIBERALISM FULL OF FIGHT

Liberalism is holding Premier Borden strictly to account before the people of Canada for his personal participation in the disgraceful gagging and howling down of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in parliament.

"Liberals in this country," declared Mr. German at the conclusion of his short and telling speech, "do not intend to lie down to machine politics, gag rule and steam-roller methods. The prime minister made a public pledge in Montreal last September. He declared that he would submit his proposals to parliament and if they were not approved and passed he would immediately appeal to the people. Let him face the responsibility of his words or be branded as the first public man in Canada, who openly violated his public pledge. If he can afford to lie down under the machine politics, let him lie. We can afford to let him take his place in Canadian history as the man whose short and ignoble career began with the unholy alliance with the Nationalists and ended with applying the guillotine to the people of his country."

Equally strong and significant were the words of Mr. Nesbitt, who followed. He was deeply hurt as a Canadian, he stated, at the attitude of the government in acting as they had done to the man who was universally revered and esteemed by all Canadians. It was not enough for supporters of the government to seek to excuse their conduct. It was not enough for Meighen to deny the statement published in the Liberal press that Sir Wilfrid had been howling down. After hearing Mr. Meighen's denial he had carefully read over the whole report of the proceedings in the Globe.

TORY PAPER DENOUNCES "GAG."

Ottawa, April 10.—The Ottawa Citizen, the leading Conservative paper here, says:

"If the Naval Bill is put through by closure methods, with the Liberals fighting bitterly for what many consider the privilege of free speech and minority rights, the principal effect it will have will be to give the Senate new reason for its existence and for exercising the veto power for which it was originally intended."

"The closure means a dangerous revolution in Canadian parliamentary methods. Its perils are clearly apparent to both parties alike. It might develop into a tool which, in the hands of a less scrupulous government, would expose the country to mercenary aims. Even though it is the only way remaining whereby the majority may enact particular legislation according to its will and desire, the permanent perils are greater than the immediate need."

"All of this the Senate will undoubtedly declare. It will willingly assume the role of Savior of the country."

He had read there the record of what had transpired. When the Globe stated that members of the government had shouted across the floor while Sir Wilfrid was standing ready to speak on the recognition of the speaker: "Sit down, sit down," the report, "as I know from my own observation and memory was absolutely right," declared Mr. Nesbitt. It was useless to try to escape responsibility and allege that it was a managerial trick.

AUGUSTA CATHOLICS TO CELEBRATE

Augusta, Ga., April 12.—Impressive religious services are to be held in St. Patrick's Church in this city tomorrow in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of the church and the centennial of the establishment of Catholicity in Augusta. BOOMHOUSE AT MOUTH OF NASHWAAK BURNED

The Boomhouse on the Barker property near Barker's Point on the Nashwaak river was destroyed by fire late Thursday night or early yesterday morning. It is not known how the fire started but it is supposed that some men while smoking must have wandered into the building and perhaps dropped a match or a spark from their pipes. The building has been used for years, first by the Alex Gibson Company, then by the Nashwaak Lumber Company. It was used by the Partington Paper & Pulp Co. last year while rafting logs at the mouth of the river. At the time of the fire there were stored in the building tools and supplies belonging to the company and its employees. They were valued in the vicinity of three hundred dollars. The structure with contents will be a total loss.

TORY DENIAL USELESS

There is not a man on this side of the house who would have made that motion to shut off a speech by Mr. Borden," he added with scorn. "We have shown him, when he was leader of the opposition, as much respect and more than he was shown by his own side. (Liberal hear, hear.) Let me tell members of this government that when they conduct themselves so towards a Canadian of the eminence of Sir Wilfrid Laurier they have gone so far as to lose the respect of all right-thinking and independent people in this country."

Members of the government may think such actions clever and smart. If they think the people of Canada approve of their measure of their conduct let them appeal to the people and take their judgment."

Mr. MacKenzie, of Cape Breton resumed the discussion when the house met this afternoon. It was, said he, the expectation and right of the Canadian people to insist through their representatives in parliament for free speech in the only tribunal in the country where the people's rights were denied. "In disregarding this," said Mr. MacKenzie, "the present prime minister is taking a step which should be fought at every point."

NO NEED OF CLOSURE

There was no constitutional authority for the government measure which sent this sum of money out of the country and out of the control of parliament. So far as granting supply was concerned, there was no necessity whatever for a closure measure. Supply had been granted

TARIFF THE ISSUE IN BYE ELECTION

Boston, April 12.—Politicians of all parties are keenly interested in the special election to be held in the Thirtieth congressional district next Tuesday to choose a successor to John W. Weeks, who resigned his seat in the House to accept the United States senatorship. The election is regarded as important because it is the first to occur in any part of the country since Mr. Wilson became President. Furthermore the contest among the candidates has been made on the tariff issue and the result is expected to show the attitude of Massachusetts towards tariff revision. The contest is a three cornered one, the candidates being former Congressman John J. Mitchell, Democrat; Alfred W. Cutting, Republican and Norman H. White, Progressive.

STOCK MARKET

New York, April 12.—The market opening was moderately active and prices were lower but there was evidence of fairly good though not aggressive support. Room traders were bearish and seemed to be confident of their ability to produce scattered liquidation by weak holders. C.P.R. was a strong feature. Traders, however, refused to regard the stocks strength as a reflex of European optimism. They attributed it instead to bullish manipulation by local speculators for effect on general list. Amalgamated Copper and Steel were affected by less favorable reports regarding general business in weekly reviews of the commercial agencies.

THE POPE IS RECOVERING

Steady Improvement in the Health of the Aged Pontiff

Received in Audience Three Bishops Who Headed a Pilgrimage to Rome

Rome, April 11.—Despite the injunctions of his physicians and the remonstrance of his attendants, Pope Pius, this afternoon, received in audience three bishops who had headed a pilgrimage to Rome to visit him and bestowed on them the papal blessing.

Tonight His Holiness, wearied by his efforts, fell into a deep sleep immediately after his physicians had made their customary call. The meeting of bishops was pathetic. As they entered the sickroom they threw themselves at the feet of the Pope who was sitting in his armchair. The Pope smiled and, lifting his hands over their heads, bestowed his blessing. This, he said, was intended not alone for the prelates but for the pilgrims who had journeyed to Rome to pay him tribute.

The bishops, who had been warned to make the audience as short as possible, left the papal bedroom, their eyes brimming with tears. Neither Prof. Marchiafava nor Dr. Amici were present during the reception.

The recovery of the Pope from his relapse from the influenza apparently is progressing rapidly. His sisters speaking today with the parish priest of Riese, their birthplace, who was with the Venetian pilgrims visiting the vatican, said the condition of the pontiff was now so satisfactory that it was possible he would be able within a few days to receive some of the pilgrims from his native region. They declared it was the desire of their brother to do so, but that nevertheless his physicians were gently resisting such a plan, wishing that their patient have immunity from excitement in his weakened state of his constitution.

BIG WIRELESS PLANT FOR CANAL ZONE

Washington, D. C., April 12.—Bids were opened at the Navy Department today for the construction of the towers and buildings for the great wireless plant which the government purposes to erect in the Canal Zone. The plant will be a duplicate of the one recently completed at Arlington. It will be located on the San Pablo site, at the station of Caimito, on the re-located line of the Panama Railroad, about midway between the terminals. There will be three 600-foot steel towers and the station will be equipped with a 100-kilowatt radio set. It is calculated that the new station should be able to communicate easily with similar high-power stations to be erected by the navy in the Hawaiian Islands, Samoa, Guam and in the Philippines.

IN MEMORY OF HENRY CLAY

Lexington, Ky., April 12.—The one hundred and thirty-sixth birthday anniversary of Henry Clay, the famous Kentucky statesman, was celebrated today with interesting exercises conducted under the auspices of the Lincoln School of this city. The address of the day was delivered by Henry Clay McDowell, a great-grandson of the statesman.

RECEIPTS FROM "CAPT. BING."

The receipts from the first two performances of "Captain Bing" amounted to $798.26 and the expenses were $122.38, leaving a balance of $675.87. The receipts from the third performance amounted to $109.75. The expenses were $36.10, leaving a balance of $73.65, of which the Victoria Hospital will get $24.55. The Fredericton Baseball Club will receive $362.48, almost enough to wipe out the deficit of 1912. Miss Hazel Leavitt, under whose direction the opera was put on, gets the same amount as the club.

TARIFF BILL UP IN CAUCUS

Shoe Machinery Has Been Transferred to the Free List

Members of the Senate are Receiving Protests From all Quarters Against Proposed Changes

Washington, April 11.—Shoe machinery, now taxed 45 per cent., on a reduction to 25 per cent., as proposed by the tariff bill, was ordered transferred to the free list by the Democratic caucus of the House today. It was the first real break of the Democrats from the Ways and Means Committee rates.

For three days there had been a great deal of speech-making from members with and without grievances but all amendments proposed had been steadily voted down with majorities satisfactory to the Democratic leaders.

The other development of the day was the agreement of the Louisiana members on an anti-free sugar program in the caucus, with Representative Croussard on guard to offer a series of amendments to the sugar schedule to represent the sentiment of the Louisiana cane sugar interests and the best sugar sections.

The wool schedule was quickly disposed of by the caucus.

An amendment by Representative Baker of California, to transfer paving posts, railroad ties and telephone, telegraph and other poles to the free list in place of the proposed 10 per cent. duty, was voted down.

Tonight Democratic Leader Underwood said the caucus would not be able to get through the bills for several days and that its consideration by the House probably will not begin for another week.

Hundreds of protests against the rates in the proposed tariff are reaching members of the Senate, where advocates of higher protection apparently gave determined to centre their attack. The Senate Finance Committee spent three hours today in conference over the House bill, and with the aid of treasury experts went through the metal and earthenware schedules. Several small changes in duties were practically agreed upon, but the committee will take no formal action on any feature of the bill until after it has passed the House.
