Chatham World-Thieves entered the Randolph's warehouse, Tuesday night with a slickness and caution worthy of professionals. They first stole brace and bit and chisel from Groat's blacksmith shop. They removed pane of glass in a back window of the warehouse, by cutting away the putty, and then reached in and turned the button that fastened the hinged sash. Then they swung back the sash and entered. They lighted many matches, and ransacked both floors the warehouse from end to end ampling candy, cigarettes, cigars d other things. The clerks do not
