SEE IF YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Irritable and Feverish it Means Waste-clogged Bowels

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely, eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign it's little stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggists for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Exlir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

try to rule Rome instead of letting Rome rule. Bishop O'Dwyer's protest is one of those lightning flashes that illumine a wide expanse of sky. It answers in a startling way the question: "Will Home Rule mean Rome rule?" It will be found that the Irish, while remaining devout Catholics, will control their own secular affairs and govern themselves with the minimum of friction between Orange and Green. Why should Canadians not sympathize with the desire of Irishmen to show that they are as capable of governing themselves at home as they prove to be abroad?

THE LATE J. DE LANCEY ROBINSON

(By D. R. Jack, in the St. John Telegraph)

The death of J. de Lancey Robinson took place suddenly at his home at Fredericton, on Friday, Jan. 31. He was a man of quiet and retiring disposition, but yet well known to many persons, particularly to those of Loyalist descent. Concerning the Loyalists and their times he was a veritable encyclopedia. There was probably not a Loyalist of any prominence who settled within the confines of the province of New Brunswick concerning whom he could not, off hand, give some interesting information.

Mr. Robinson was born at Pine Grove, Douglas, York county, on June 19, 1841. He was the youngest son of Lieut.-Col. John Robinson, of the Tenth Regiment of Foot, and of Eliza Maria, daughter of Col. Anthony Allaire, of the Queen's Rangers, an officer greatly distinguished in the war of the American revolution.

His only surviving brother is Thomas Barclay Robinson, of St. John.

Mr. Robinson was educated at Fredericton, but never took up any business or profession. Upon the death of his father he continued to reside for many years upon the family estate until upon the destruction of the homestead by fire, he removed to Fredericton, where he has since resided.

On Oct. 10, 1864, Mr. Robinson was married to Susan White Hubbard, daughter of W. D. W. Hubbard of St. John (N.B.), a granddaughter of James Peters, of Ashburn and grand niece of the Hon. Attorney-General Peters, of New Brunswick. By her he had five children, as follows:

1. Frances Eliza, who married Arthur W. Carr, of New York, and who is well known in St. John, having spent several summers with her family in the vicinity of the city.

2. Mary de Lancey, wife of George W. Diblee, a prominent business man of Fredericton, of Loyalist descent.

3. Susan Phillips Dudley, died when about forty years of age.

4. Francis de Lancey, unmarried, a well known architect of New York.

5. Cortlandt Allaire, unmarried, manager of the Bank of British North America, Union Street, St. John, (N.B.)

The history of this branch of the Robinson family is most interesting, containing as it does the names of many men distinguished in the Peninsular War, the American Revolution, and other military engagements. Its well authenticated history begins in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and the family genealogy for a copy of which the writer is indebted to John Morris Robinson Esquire, banker, late of St. John, traces the family history step by step down to American pre-Revolutionary times, including among its distinguished members "His Excellency of the Right Reverend Father in God, John, Lord Bishop of London," as the quaint diction of nearly two centuries ago has it, John Robinson, D. D., the first ecclesiastic and the last sine? the Reformation to hold the office of Lord Privy Seal, being also an Ambassador and First Plenipotentiary at the Congress of Utrecht; hence the title of "His Excellency."

The first member of the American branch of this family was the Hon. John Robinson, of Virginia, who was governor, or president as he was then styled, of that colony on the retirement of Governor Gooch.

He was followed by Colonel Beverly Robinson, of New York, who married Susanna, daughter of Frederick Philipse who owned an immense landed estate on the Hudson river. By this connection Mr. Robinson became immensely rich, and when the revolutionary controversy commenced, he was living upon that portion of the Philipse estate which had been given to his wife. The Loyal American Regiment was raised by him principally from among the men employed upon his estate. His standing entitled him to high rank, and he was accordingly commissioned colonel at the regiment. Beverly son of the senior Colonel Beverly Robinson, was lieutenant-colonel, and Thomas Barclay was major of this regiment.

The notice of the marriage of Lieut.-Col. Beverly Robinson, Jr., grandfather of J. de Lancey Robinson, will be found in the New York Gazette of Monday, Jan. 26, 1778, and reads as follows: "Wednesday last (i. e., Jan. 21st) was married at Flushing, Long Island, Beverly Robinson, Jr., Esquire, Lieut.-Col. of the Loyal American Regiment, to the Amiable and accomplished Miss Nancy Barclay, youngest daughter of the Rev'd (Henry) Barclay, formerly Rector of Trinity Church in this Place." (New York.)

Lieut.-Col. Beverly Robinson, Jr., was the father of John Robinson, who was born July 18, 1788, and entered the service of the Tenth Regiment of Foot, the latter in turn being the father of the late J. de Lancey Robinson. The Tenth Regiment was known as the Bloody

TROUBLED WITH KIDNEYS COULD NOT SWEEP FLOOR.

It is hard for a woman to look after her household duties when she is suffering from a weak and aching back, for no woman can be strong and well when the kidneys are out of order.

The weak, lame and aching back comes from sick kidneys and should be attended to at once so as to avoid years of suffering from the kidney trouble which is sure to follow if the back is neglected.

On the first sign of a pain in the back, Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go right to the seat of the trouble.

Mrs. Joseph Throop, Upper Point De Butte, N.B., writes:—"I cannot speak too well of Doan's Kidney Pills. For two years I was so tired, life was a burden and I got up more tired than when I went to bed, and my back was so lame I could hardly straighten up. I took different kinds of medicine, but none of them did me any good until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so and to-day I don't know what it is to be tired and my lame back is all gone. I can recommend them to any person suffering with lame back and that terrible tired feeling."

Price, 50 cents a box, 3 for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

Tenth, and in it Col. Robinson served through the Peninsular war. At its close, desiring to marry and found a permanent home, Col. retired on half pay and settled at Pine Grove, before alluded to.

Col. John Robinson married on Dec. 31 1818, Eliza Maria b. May 1795, daughter of Colonel Anthony Allaire, another distinguished Loyalist officer of whom a full account will be found in Acadiaensis.

Lieut.-Col. John Robinson died on Dec. 7, 1866, and his wife on July 25, 1874. They were the parents of ten children, of whom the subject of this sketch was the youngest.

The writer of this sketch enjoyed the privilege of an almost life-long friendship with the late Mr. Robinson, and gathered from him, particularly during the later years of his life, many facts regarding the Loyalists and their families, all of which have been most carefully preserved.

For Mrs. Robinson and the family connection, which is a large one, there will be the deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.
