HEADACHE OVER THE EYES? LOOK FOR NASAL CATARRH

Catarrh Never Stops in One Place---
It Spreads Rapidly---Often Ruins
Health Completely

In this changeable climate it is the little colds that drift into Catarrh. Unless the inflammation is checked it passes rapidly from the throat or nose to the bronchial tubes and then to the lungs. You can't make new lungs any more than you can make new fingers or toes, but you can cure Catarrh.

The surest cure consists of breathing in the healing balsamic essences of CATARRHOZONE, which is simply a medicated vapor so full of rich curative properties that every trace of Catarrh vanishes before it.

"The soothing piney vapor of Catarrhozone is the most powerful medicine I ever used," writes Mrs. Edmond J. Christine of Saskatoon. "Every breath drawn through the Inhaler sends a grateful flogging through the air passages of the nose and throat. Catarrhozone cured me of frightful headaches over the eyes, relieved me of a stuffy feeling in the nose and an irritable hacking cough that had been the bane of my life for a year. My general health is greatly improved, my appetite and digestion are considerably better than before. Catarrhozone has been the means of giving me such health as I always desired but never possessed."

Even though Catarrh has a firm hold on you and affects your throat, nose or ears, you can thoroughly cure it with Catarrhozone. Large size guaranteed, costs $1.00; smaller size 50c.; sample size 25c. All storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

POTATO BUGS APPEAR

The potato-bug or Colorado Beetle as it is less generally known has made a tardy appearance this summer to the great joy of the farmers. For a time it was thought that the pest had been exterminated either by unfavorable weather conditions or by some parasite but its appearance in various sections is now reported. The insects are more numerous on old land and both young and mature insects have appeared. The potatoes have had a good start however and it is thought will survive the attack of the insects.

HER LITTLE GIRL WAS SO BAD WITH DIARRHŒA

She Passed Nothing But a Thickish Blood.
DR. FOWLER'S
EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY
Cured Her in Four or Five Days.

Mrs. WILLET ELLIS, London, Ont., writes: "My little girl had Diarrhœa so bad that nothing would stop it. In fact she got so bad she passed nothing but a thickish blood. I even steeped raspberry leaves, but all to no purpose, until a neighbor told me to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which I did, and with such good results that after four or five days she was quite normal again. I would not like to be without it. I used it when we were in Saskatchewan too, for we could not get on without it out there."

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY has a world wide reputation for the cure of all Summer and Bowel Complaints. It has been on the market for over 65 years, so you do not experiment with new and untried remedies when you purchase it. Insist on getting "Dr. Fowler's." It is manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited Toronto, Ont. Price, 35c.

CY WHITTAKER'S PLACE

"Tah!" said a voice, and Mr. looked up. The man who had arrived on the previous night stood in the sitting room doorway.

Emily saw the stranger and slid from Captain Cy's knees. The captain rose.

"Bos'n," he said, "this is Mr.—Smith, who's going to make us a little visit. I want you to shake hands with him."

The girl dutifully approached Mr. Smith and extended her hand. He took it and held it in his own.

"Is this the"—he began.

Captain Cy bowed assent.

"Yes," he said, his eyes fixed on the visitor's face. "Yes. Don't forget what you said last night."

Smith shook his head.

"No," he replied. "I ain't the kind that forgets unless it pays pretty well. There's some things I've remembered for quite a few years."

He looked the child over from head to foot, and his brows drew together in an ugly frown.

"So this is her, hey?" he muttered musingly. "Humph! Well, I don't know as I'd have guessed it. Favors the other side of the house more—the respectable side, I should say. Still, there's a little brand of the lost sheep, hey—enough to prove property, huh? Mark of the beast, I s'pose the psalm singin' relations would call it. D—n 'em, I!"

"Steady!" broke in the captain. Mr. Smith started, seemed to remember where he was, and his manner changed.

"Come and see me, honey," he coaxed, drawing the girl toward him by the hand he was holding. "Ain't you got a nice kiss for me this fine mornin'? Don't be scared. I won't bite."

Bos'n looked shrinkingly at Mr. Smith's unshaven cheeks and then at Captain Cy. The latter's face was absolutely devoid of expression. He merely nodded.

So Emily kissed one of the bristling cheeks. The kiss was returned full upon the mouth. She wiped her lips and darted away to her chair by the table.

"What's your hurry?" inquired the visitor. "Don't I do it right? Been some time since I kissed a girl—a little one, anyhow," he added, winking at his host. "Never mind; we'll know each other better by and by."

He looked on in wondering disgust as Bos'n said her "grace."

"What in blazes!" he burst out when the little blessing was finished. "Who put her up to that? A leftover from the psalm singers, is it?"

"In the Case of MY Little Girl—"

In choosing and using a soap for your "Little Fairy" you will find no soap so mild, so neutral, so agreeable to tender skins as FAIRY SOAP.

Being made from products that you could eat, FAIRY SOAP agrees with even the tender skin of a babe.

FAIRY SOAP

is white—pure—floating. It comes in a handy oval cake. We could charge you five times the price asked for FAIRY SOAP and we could add nothing to its quality.

In higher-priced soaps you are paying for high-priced perfume and fancy wrappers—not better soap.
