TAKES LEAD IN
NEW ENGLAND"Hannah" Hoyt Fell Down as Pinch
Hitter Friday---Neptune and Wilson
in Error Column

Lawrence took the lead in the New England League Saturday, beating the Portland team 8 to 6. Many players well known in New Brunswick figured in the various games. "Hannah" Hoyt, who as first baseman for Brockton, showed a tendency to wallop the ball last week was sent in as a pinch hitter against New Bedford on Friday and fell down.

Joe Neptune and Wilson were with Lynn and each had a nice error to his credit but otherwise fielded well. Wilson at first-base, had ten put-outs and one assist and Neptune at short-stop, three put-outs and two assists. Scanlon, a pitcher known down here, held Lowell to one hit in two innings after Smith, the New York Giant recruit, who was sent to Lynn, was taken out of the box. Dee played third-base for Lowell and had two runs, two hits, two put-outs and four assists. One hit was a two-bagger and there was also a sacrifice chalked up to him. Ganzel, formerly of the Marathons, was at first base for the Portland Club. He had a run, a sacrifice, two hits and five put-outs to his credit. McGovern at first-base for Fall River, had a hit and ten put-outs.

Courtney, the Lawrence shortstop who was "beaten" in a Sunday game, had a home run and a two-base hit in Friday's game and figured in three assists.

SPORTS OF ALL KINDS

The Sydney Post: "It is rumored that two of the leading pitchers in the Nova Scotia league last year, along with Warwick, the crack box man of the Dorchester nine, will wear Sydney uniforms."

Harold Janvri takes throws at second on the dead run and puts the ball on the runner with a vim that is refreshing.

Cy Falkenberg, who has been doing things in the box for the "Naps" of Cleveland this Spring, had a wild spell the other day that made Manager Joe Birmingham a bit anxious, and he wanted to know about it, so he asked Cy.

"I'll tell you," replied Falkenberg, confidentially, "I let them get on so that I could warm up throwing to first." That floored Joe and he let Cy get away with it.

Ty Cobb's punishment was a fearful thing—something like a slap on the wrist. Still, who wished to see him punished, anyway?

That man Stengel of the Brooklyn is stinging the ball so that the other fellows feel it. Boston and New York have each been stung by this fellow.

Poster, the Washington's speedy little third baseman, is suffering from typhoid fever and probably he will not be able to return to the game for a month at least.

The Boston Globe says: "Arthur Peboy of Chicopee, who is boxing in Calgary, is claiming Chatham, Ont., as his home, evidently hoping to stand in better with the residents." Anyway isn't Pelku's name Pelletier and doesn't he hail from Montreal?

REVIVAL IN BASEBALL AT
McADAM THIS SEASON

Arthur Finnermore Coaching Team There---Will go to Cape Breton latter Part of Month---Grounds at McAdam Being Greatly Improved---Want Fredericton Team for Victoria Day Game

Art Finnermore, who has been around McAdam recently coaching the amateur team there says that that railroad burg is due for a big revival in baseball and already is looking for an outside team to play a Victoria Day game there and would prefer one from Fredericton. Arthur says further that there is lots of good material in the C. P. R. shops there many of the available players having played ball in Maine or this province.

The ball field at McAdam that has been in use for many a long year has been given some needed repairs under Finnermore's direction and is now in the best shape it ever has been. It is the intention of the McAdam people to further improve the grounds and to put up a good grandstand. Altogether the people down there expect baseball to boom.

Arthur Finnermore says he will leave for Cape Breton about May 25th, to play ball for the summer.
