ENGLISHMEN SET RIGHT BY HON. W. S. FIELDING

The most important portion of this letter of Mr. Fielding to the London Morning Post is that with which it closes. The Morning Post had said that Canada had sadly turned to the United States because Great Britain had refused to establish food taxes, with preferential treatment of food supplies from this country—"because," said the Morning Post, "Mr. Churchill had rudely and Mr. Asquith coldly, returned a flat negative to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's passionate appeal."

Mr. Fielding writes:

"I am well aware that this presentation of the situation is not made for the first time. It is high time that the delusion ended. You are wrong, absolutely and unqualifiedly wrong, in attributing to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and myself any action based on an alleged 'rebuff' from British statesmen—a rebuff which, so far as we are aware, never had any existence. I have no brief to defend Mr. Asquith or Mr. Churchill; I am sure neither of them will feel that any defence from me is needed, and as already stated, I do not wish to enter into party controversies between English Liberals and English Conservatives. But I have, in a sense a brief to see that this Canadian question, if it is to be discussed at all here, is correctly placed before the British public. Sir Wilfrid and his colleagues laboured to bring about reciprocity with the United States, because they believed, as they believe today, that it was the right policy, right economically, right from a general Canadian point of view, right from the true Imperial point of view; because it was the policy of the Liberal party, declared in their public party convention several years before they came into power; because, as has already been shown, it was not only the policy of Liberals, but also the policy of every Government, irrespective of party, that had held power in Canada from the beginning of Confederation. These and these only were the reasons for the reciprocity agreement.

"If it is not too severe a strain on your space, I shall be glad, without debating the merits of preference, to inform your readers of the attitude of the two political parties in Canada on the subject. I have a right to speak for the Liberals, for the duty fell upon me of proposing to Parliament the original British preferential tariff and all subsequent legislation dealing with the question.

"The Liberals created the preference fought for it against powerful opponents and established it firmly. They gave the preference freely, voluntarily and unconditionally. They recognized from the beginning that they could not expect to receive a return of preference from the Mother Country, though they felt that there might come a time when, through a change of sentiment here, some such return might be obtained. They held that if it suited the United Kingdom to grant a preference to the products of Canada, they would be pleased to receive it.

ceive it. But they never failed, when the subject was under discussion, to have it clearly understood that the question must be left to the free action of the people of the United Kingdom, and they have never given countenance in any way to those in England who too plainly suggested that if Canada failed to receive such preference she would become indignant, if not actually disloyal. Having exercised freely their own right to adopt the tariff policy that suited them, the Canadian Liberals were quite content that the people of the Mother Country should do the same. Consequently, they never expressed or entertained the slightest objection to any English statesman opposing the preferential system if he was pleased to do so. If Mr. Asquith and Mr. Churchill had 'banged the door' much harder, they would have been within their rights as English statesmen of the people of the United Kingdom, dealing particularly with the affairs of the people of the United Kingdom, and no Canadian Liberal would have felt that he had opposed to the British preference a right to complain.

"The Canadian Conservatives were established by the Liberal Government. Whenever they felt called upon to define their policy on the question they declared for a 'mutual preference,' that is, that Canada should only grant a preference to Great Britain when Great Britain was ready to grant a preference to Canada.

"I do not think the Canadian Conservatives troubled themselves about the remarks of Mr. Asquith or Mr. Churchill. As for the Canadian Liberals, I have the means of knowing, and do know, that nothing that Mr. Asquith or Mr. Churchill, or any other English statesman said about preference tariffs gave offence to Canadian Liberals or had the slightest connection with the making of the Canadian-American reciprocity agreement.

This idea that Canada turned to the United States because Great Britain would not pay a return in food taxes for the Fielding tariff preference on British goods entering this country, should now be pretty thoroughly exploded in Great Britain, as is also its companion false belief that the 669,557 Canadians who voted against reciprocity were 'loyal,' and the 647,927 Canadians who voted for it were 'disloyal'—loyal winning by the skin of its teeth, and British connection having a narrow squeak of it and being saved only by the close shave of a 1.06 per cent majority.

In fact the 'cruel rebuff to Canada's passionate appeal' argument is on its way to the limbo of forgotten things political in Great Britain, now that the party in opposition has set its face as decidedly as the party in power against duties on food or raw materials. Without these duties Great Britain cannot give this country a reference; for these are the only things this country can sell Great Britain in volume.—Manitoba Free Press.

PREMIER FLEMMING IN CONTEMPT OF COURT

Newcastle, May 29—There is trouble ahead for Premier Fleming. He was summoned to appear at court here today in the case of Mersereau against him, and failed to attend, sending a telegram that he was off to Toronto with his wife. R. A. Lawlor, one of counsel of Mersereau, said that the case could not proceed without the premier, who as surveyor general, knew more about the dispute than anyone else. He read an affidavit by plaintiff that he had served the premier with a subpoena to attend here today and paid him fifteen dollars conduct money. Mr. Lawlor said he had wired the premier yesterday, reminding him that he was wanted here today, and the latter had replied that he was going to Toronto with his wife and had an engagement in Montreal today on public business.

Mr. Tweedie then asked that a bench warrant be issued against the premier to compel attendance.

Mr. Justice McKeown made some strong comments on the want of respect shown to the court by the premier, but said he would not issue a warrant just now, but would adjourn the matter until June 24.

Mr. Powell, K. C., for Mersereau, asked for costs of day, but Mr. Tweedie opposed, saying it was no fault of the plaintiff that the premier had not come and the delay ensued. Plaintiff and all his witnesses were present and ready to go on with the case.

Mr. Powell said so was he, and why should his client be put to expense for less fault even than the plaintiff.

Ultimately the matter was stood over till trial. Other suits between the same parties stand over also. The court then adjourned till June 24th.

The play in which Marie Tempest will appear in this country next season is called "The Handful."

WESTERN REAL ESTATE MEN GREATLY EXAGGERATE

A former Fredericton boy, now residing in the west, in a recent letter to relatives in this city, advises eastern people to see the western lots before they make any purchases. He says that the enthusiastic real estate people, by continuous booming, create an undeserved reputation for the town. The quotation from the letter is as follows:

"The Town of — which is a fairly decent little place has a reputation created by real estate men, far greater than it should have. In fact they are selling building lots miles from the town where there is little or no prospect of the town ever reaching. The real estate game out here seems to be a great way of catching suckers and it strikes me that before a person in the east buys any so called town lots he should come out and see just what he is getting, otherwise 100 to 1 he is going to get badly burnt."

I Will Stake This Medicine Against Your Time

A Few Days Will Be Sufficient to Prove That You Are Curable

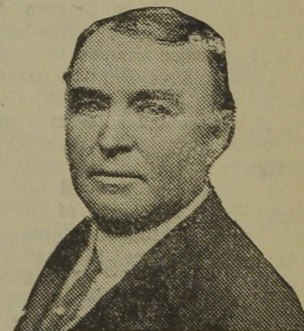

A few minutes of your time for a few days and I will demonstrate to you, without expense to yourself, that I have a medicine that drives Uric Acid poison from the system and by so doing cures kidney trouble, bladder trouble and rheumatism. I don't ask you to take my word for it, but simply want you to let me send you some of this medicine so that you can use it personally.

I am trying to convince sufferers from these diseases that I have something far better than the usual run of remedies, treatments and such things, and the only way I can demonstrate that fact is to go to the expense of compounding the medicine and sending it out free of charge. This I am glad to do for any sufferer who will take the time to write me. Understand, I will not send you a so-called "sample, proof or test treatment," nor will I give you a package of medicine and say that you can use some of it and pay for the rest, but I will send you a supply free of charge and you will not be asked to pay for this gift nor will you be under any obligations.

All I want to know is that you have a disease for which my medicine is intended, as it is not a "cure-all," and I give herewith some of the leading symptoms of kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles. If you notice one or more of these symptoms you need this medicine, and I will be glad to send you some of it if you will write me the numbers of the symptoms you have, give your age, and your name and address. My address is Dr. T. Frank Lynott, 340 Franklin Building, Toronto, Ont. You promise me nothing, you pay me nothing for it. All I ask, so there shall be no mistake, is that you send me the numbers of your symptoms or a description in your own words, and that you take the medicine according to the directions I send you. It is my way of getting publicity for my medicine so that it will become widely known.

You will agree when you have used it that it dissolves and drives out uric acid poison. It tones the kidneys so that they work in harmony with the bladder. It strengthens the bladder so that frequent desire to urinate and other urinary disorders are banished. It stops rheumatic aches and pains immediately. It dissolves uric acid crystals so that back and muscles no longer ache and crooked joints quickly straighten out. It reconstructs the blood and nerves so that you soon feel healthier and more vigorous, sleep better and eat better and have energy throughout the day. It does all this, and yet contains nothing injurious and is absolutely vouched for according to law.

Sufferers from these dreadful and dangerous diseases can surely afford to spend a few minutes each day for a few days to demonstrate to their own satisfaction if they are curable, especially when you consider no expense is involved, and I willingly give you my time and my medicine. All my fair-minded afflicted persons want to know is if a certain thing will cure HIM or HER, and here is an opportunity to find out without cost, obligation or important loss of time. THESE FEW DAYS may be the turning point in your life.

who will send medicine to anyone free of charge

All who are interested enough to write me for the free medicine will also receive a copy of my large illustrated medical book which describes these diseases thoroughly. It is the largest book of the kind ever written for free distribution, and a new edition is just being printed. I will also write you a letter of diagnosis and medical advice that should be of great help to you, but in order to do this I must know that you need my medicine. Write me the numbers of the symptoms that trouble you, and your age, and I will promptly carry out my promises. Show an inclination to be cured and you will be.
