THIS MYSTERY STIRS NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Aug. 5.—Metropolitan and Newport circles are stirred by a real mystery. Pets of society, debutant smart set lions and lassies, inquisitive society writers for gossip journals and uncaptured bachelors of marriageable estate are in a perfect fever of excitement.

For (of course) it's all about a beautiful young woman.

Young—not too innocently so—daintily charming, with the poise of a queen, the wit of a Parisienne, the coquetry of a rainbow—she has set the society folk of New York City and Newport into a buzzing babel of whispered comment and speculation.

Who is she? Ah, there's the rub. Likewise the mystery. For, guess as they may, scheme as they will, plot at they do, not a single person save a sacred inner few of the upper ten who have been standing sponsor for her, has been able to fathom the identity of the exquisite "Girl with the Pink Mask" as she has been named.

At every society function of consequence recently she has appeared, gowned in creations that have caused feminine gasps of envy and masculine marathons to her bewitching side.

Rich she must be, superbly beautiful she undoubtedly is, and of high social station without doubt—else why the entree she has gained to the most exclusive affairs held in the metropolitan city and Newport?

HER GLORIOUS EYES.

Yet not a hostess has introduced her to a single guest and not a hostess will help to solve the mystery. She always appears with a dainty pink silk mask from which peep two glorious eyes of steady blue, brimming with mischief.

Her hair of wavy brown fittingly crowns this queen of mystery and her slender figure would grace a goddess.

She rarely lingers longer than a brief half hour, usually vanishing as mysteriously as she comes, long before the majority of the guests have had time to know of her presence.

Ask anyone of those prim dames who preside over the social destinies of New York's most exclusive set about the "Girl with the Pink Mask." You will meet uplifted eyebrows, a

TO TRY OUT "GUNBOAT"

New York, Aug. 7.—Whether "Gunboat" Smith is the fighter that he has been cracked up to be by his followers on the western coast will probably be determined here tomorrow night, when the Californian will be tried out by that best known of all trial horses, Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman. "While Flynn falls far short of championship calibre himself he has been able to detract more than one of the "heavies" who has been hailed as a coming champion. If the "Gunboat" wins the fight it will add considerably to his reputation. The bout is scheduled for ten rounds and will be pulled off in Madison Square Garden.

With Mathewson, Marquand and Demaree pitching gilt-edged ball, the Giants will doubtless breeze in pulled up in the National League race.

bland smile and a soft cadenced rejoinder about as follows:

"Yes? Why, really I do not know what you mean. Most certainly any person who has honored me by being my guest is known to me personally. A girl with a mask? Really, that is quite beyond my comprehension. You can say for me most emphatically that those who attended my receptions are not expected to come togged out in any such bizarre attire." And there you are.

A LAW

Be it enacted by the Board of Health of the City of Fredericton, as follows:—

1. Food products intended for human consumption, and generally or frequently eaten without being cooked, and not enclosed in a natural inedible covering or rind, shall not be exposed for sale within or outside of any shop or other place of merchandise situate in the City of Fredericton, unless adequately protected by a suitable covering from flies and other insects, and from the dirt and dust of the place of exposure or street, whereon such place is situate. This By-Law shall however not apply to such food products exposed for sale in the Phoenix Square Market in the said City of Fredericton, during the hours established by law for the continuance of such market.

2. Dressed or partly dressed meat intended for human consumption, shall not be conveyed for commercial purposes over any street or highway of the City of Fredericton, unless efficiently protected by a suitable covering from insects, dust, and exposure to the weather, and such meat shall not be exposed for sale where it is liable to such contamination or injury, unless so protected. The term "Meat" in this By-Law, shall be held to include fish and all other food products of animal origin liable to contamination or injury by exposure.

3. This By-Law shall come into force on the first day of August, A. D., 1913.

Passed and enacted by the Local Board of Health of the City of Fredericton (District No. 1) this thirty-first day of July, A. D., 1913.
