FOUND AN EMERGENCY

According to The Montreal Witness Hon. Bruno Nantel, one of Mr. Borden's National colleagues in the government, has recently made his confession of faith on the naval question. He says that it was always agreed among the Nationalists that in case of emergency they would support any action that seemed necessary. Here is the way The Witness deals with the matter:

"One of the two Bourassa ministers who were carried into parliament on the wings of the 'No Navy' shout, and whose resignation on the ground of consistency was due long before that of Mr. Monk, Mr. Pelletier has long ago gone openly back on his electors and on the professions of his platform supporters. Mr. Nantel has been more modest about it, but has at last made his confession of faith. He now declares that the Nationalists had always agreed that, in case of any emergency, they would favor any action that was necessary. Did Mr. Nantel announce that at St. Jerome? Has anyone heard any of the Nationalists say it? Of course they may have done so. Their leader poses as a great imperialist. But does Mr. Nantel not remember how he sat back on the platform while Mr. Jean Prevost, on his behalf, denounced anything that might be done to aid Great Britain, when he waxed warm over the way our children would serve as food for the cannon and bullets of Germany, Japan and China. 'We will,' said Mr. Prevost, 'never be ready to say to the English to take our families for such purposes.' What, never? Well, says Mr. Nantel, except when Mr. Borden calls it an emergency."

The city council ought to get busy and fence in that big air-hole below the Highway Bridge. The legislature is to meet next week and with Mr. Pinder and the chief commissioner at loggerheads there is no telling what might happen. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Then there is the chief commissioner's other dear friend, Commodore Stewart, M.P.P. He is an amateur yachtsman and might get the idea into his head during his sojourn here that he can manipulate an ice-boat. As independent men are scarce in the new House it will never do to expose the worthy commodore to any unnecessary risk.

"No truck with the Yankees" was a favorite slogan of the Tories at the last federal election. It has since transpired that while this doctrine was being preached by one wing of the party another wing, headed by that great patriot, Sir Rodolph Forget, was circulating a railway prospectus in France which set forth among other things that Murray Bay, Quebec, was some town because President Taft's summer cottage was located there. In other words, President Taft was used as a sort of "adjunct" to one of Sir Rodolph's railway schemes.

Premier Flemming is going to have his work cut out for him during the approaching session of the legislature. He has more followers than any premier has had since Confederation and they are out to get all that there is going. They are already planning to raid the treasury for an increase in the indemnity from $500 to $700 and the indications are that the raid will be successful. The rate-payers of the province are paying well for their verdict of June last.

The county councillors of Cumberland County, N.S., recently voted to increase their indemnity from three to four dollars per day and it took them six days to get through with the business of the January session. The county councillors of York received $2.50 per day and by wisely killing time they are able to get through with the January session in four days.

The Maritime Merchant quotes Manager Sutherland of the Amherst Boot and Shoe Co. as saying that the output of that concern this year will total one million dollars. The Amherst Boot and Shoe Company was founded in 1867, and it was not until 1901 that it sent its first traveler to Western Canada. The Hartt Boot and Shoe Company of this city was founded in 1909, and had travelers in the West that year. The Mail understands that the Company's output this year will pass the half million dollar mark. The Amherst concern does a big jobbing trade, while the Hartt Company handles only goods of its own make. The Amherst factory had a half million dollar trade in 1899, the year the Fredericton concern was started, so that leaving out the jobbing trade, our factory has more than held its own with its Nova Scotia competitor.

It is reported from Ottawa that Mr. Edgar N. Rhodes, M. P. for Cumberland, N. S. since 1908, will become Solicitor General in the Borden cabinet. At one time the name of Mr. O. S. Crockett, M. P. for York, was mentioned in connection with the position, but it now looks as if he had been compelled to step aside in favor of a man who is his junior both in years and political experience. If Mr. Crockett had any sand he would pitch the Tory outfit and return to the Liberal fold.

The Northumberland County Councilors have decided that thirty dollars is too high a price to pay for affiliation with the N. B. Union of Municipalities and have decided to withdraw from the organization. The York County Council sent five delegates to the convention last year at a cost of $200 and consider that they got good value for the money.

That renowned fighting machine, known as the Flemming government, is announced to meet here tomorrow to prepare the sessional program. Provincial Secretary McLeod having returned from Bermuda full of fight the meeting ought to be a lively one.

And just think of it. On the day the House of Lords rejected the Home Rule bill the Nationalists captured a seat in Ulster. They now have a majority of the members from the north of Ireland.

THAW'S FIVE YEARS IN MATTEAWAN

Fishkill Landing, N. Y., Feb. 1—Harry K. Thaw today completed five years' incarceration at the Matteawan Hospital for the Criminal Insane, to which institution he was sentenced after the second jury which tried him for the murder of Stanford White found him insane. To all appearances Thaw is in much better condition physically and mentally, than he was during the first year or two of his confinement in Matteawan. He seems to take a philosophical view of his situation and appears to be much more contented than at first. Much of his time is spent in reading or in conversation with the prison attendants and the few inmates with whom he has struck up an intimacy. Recently the monotony of his days has been considerably relieved by a magnificent phonograph presented to him by his mother. So far as is known there is no contemplation for the near future to gain Thaw's freedom by habeas corpus proceedings.

More than twenty thousand men of the warships of the United States Atlantic fleet contributed twenty-five cents each for a wedding present to Miss Helen Gould in appreciation of what she has done for the service.

STOCK MARKET

New York, N. Y., Feb. 3—A decline in Southern Pacific took traders by surprise, but they immediately jumped to the conclusion that Union Pacific was trying to sell part of its holdings of Southern Pacific in the market. Decline in U. S. Steel was attributed partly to the strike talk and partly to the reports of an enormous ore find in Wisconsin which independents' interests were said to have obtained options on.
