"HANS" WAGNER

Pittsburg, Pa., July 23—Wagner, of the Pittsburg Club, says:—

"I am tired of playing National League ball. I do not think a man ought to have to play ball except when he feels like it. We are not much better than well fed slaves now. We are supposed to be ordered around by the manager as his fancy dictates. I am tired of it."

The disgust the former baseball won der expressed was heightened today, when he went to the garage in town where he keeps his automobile to find that a constable had levied on it said to be for a rent bill of $333.34 owed to the garage. Honus was compelled to look through the glass in the door and see his go-cart. Then he hunted up his attorney and filed a suit to secure possession of the machine.

BARRING AMERICAN HORSES WAS "BIT OF GREED" SAYS CHRONICLE

New Glasgow Paper Makes a Few Remarks Concerning Recent Sudden Reversal of Opinions.

The New Glasgow Chronicle hands out a few on the question of barring American horses from the Maritime Circuit. Incidentally, that paper makes a few remarks concerning those who were instrumental in putting up the bars.

After commenting on the recent reversal of opinion on the part of those who early in the season desired to have Yankee horses barred the Chronicle says: "It looked at the time as if it was a mean scary bit of business to bar American horses, but it was not, it was merely a bit of greed. A few owners of horses wanted the whole cake and they did not want the 'Yankees' to get any of it. Now, they have found there is no cake, for the people won't go to races when they think a bunch of get-togethers are managing the business. Horse owners and track managers should remember that it is the glorious uncertainty of who is going to win that takes the public to races."

Concerning local conditions the Chronicle says: "In our opinion the good crowd that was at Union Track on July 1st did not all go there to see the bunch of pacers with their feet tied together race, nor even the trotting race as they saw that race before, having seen it regularly for the past six months; they went there to see that colt race—to see Monachille, Lily Shaner and Achille the Great race. Here were two new comers, one from the 'Bosting states' and the other from Halifax—Could one or both down the local champion trotter Monachille? One of them could, the other couldn't, but Monachille surpassed herself and it was fine sport."

The St. Peter's team was shut out in the evening with a score of six against them. Over 1,000 people saw both games. The weather was unfavorable rain threatening all day. The team that played St. Peter's has been strengthened since the game against the St. Johns.

The players in the evening game were:—

St. Peter's—A. Mahoney, F. Mahoney, J. McCormick, C. McCormack, Harrington, Britt, Dever, Doherty, Hodd.

Woodstock—Pickel, Neptune, Iott, Hughes, Black, Milmore, Dow, Ryan, Dalling.

The St. Peter's are gentlemanly ball players and made many friends in this town. The Woodstocks are no doubt the fastest ball team in the province.

Score by innings, afternoon game: St. John 000100000—1 Woodstock 30000000x—3 Batteries—Harrington, Keeler and Dever; Peasley, Iott and Black.

Woodstock's Indian Pitcher Mystery to St. John Team—Ragged Game Played at Calais.

St. Stephen, N. B., July 22—On the Calais diamond this afternoon Calais defeated Fredericton 3 to 2. It was a rather ragged game with errors on both sides frequently made.

The Fredericton line-up was: Catcher Dolan; pitcher, Brogan; 1st base, Walker; 2nd base, Hodgson; 3rd base, Malloy; short stop, A. Finnamore; right field, Wandlass; centre field, Boyce; left field, Walker or Bailey.

Fredericton plays St. Stephen on Saturday.

Woodstock, July 22—Woodstock had no difficulty in winning both games from St. Peter's in Connell Park today. The score in the afternoon was three to one and the St. Peter's team was shut out in the evening with a score of six against them. Over 1,000 people saw both games. PACKY PROVES IT BY CONAN DOYLE

New York, July 22—Packy McFarland, the "stock yards champion," returned to this country from England on board the Adriatic which docked yesterday.

Packy fought Freddy Welsh at the National sporting club of London on May 30, for a purse of $6,500 and a side bet of $1,000, the referee calling the battle a draw.

"If ever I won a fight in my life," said Packy today, "I won with Welsh. I had him at every angle and every one in the house thought I was going to get the decision."

"I had a letter from Sir A. Conan Doyle, the famous English author and lover of fair play, in which he commends my fight and says he thinks I was entitled to the decision."

Charles Tappan of Attleboro has refused $12,000 for Chatty Direct. The offer came from William Wright of Pine Hill farm, Duxbury.

Walter Cox plans to start Aileen Wilson, Asa Wilkes, Earl Jr., Sara Ann Patch, Lady Isle, Branhman Baughman, Prince Alexis, Melva J. and Bisa at Grand Rapids.

Score by innings, evening game: St. John 000000—0 Woodstock 000123—6 Batteries—Hodd and Dever; Neptun and Black. Umpire—Chas. Donnelly.
