Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

CHEAPER TO TRAVEL THAN

STAY HOME IN SWITZERLAND

In the Former Country You Can Buzz Around For Fifteen Days on Railways Owned by the Government at a Cost to Yourself of Just Eight Dollars and Fifty Cents.

Zurich, Switzerland, July 18.—Fifteen days' railway travel for $8.60; Sounds absurd, doesn't it?

In America you can't travel fifteen days on freight train for that counting as money the time served on stone-piles working out fines and costs. On a passenger train ordinary fares will put you back twice $8.60 in fifteen hours. Six or eight hours riding will easily eat up $8.60.

But in Switzerland there is nothing absurd about the idea of riding on the cars fifteen days for $8.60. Folks are a little sore because it costs so much that's all. Until about a year ago you could do it for $7.60. The high cost of living has pinched even the Swiss federal railways.

First, you go and have your picture taken. Regulations say that the picture must be unmounted, carte-de-visite size, and that the head must be at least three-eighths of an inch in height. That costs a franc, twenty cents. So, really, to be quite exact, it costs you $8.80 for your fifteen days' travel.

Then you go to the nearest station of the federal railways and ask for a fifteen-day third-class ticket. You present your photograph and plank down fifty francs, $9.60. (After a while you get a dollar of this back.)

Presently they give you a little folder of stiff paper, with your photo pasted therein. This you sign.

Then you hasten to get on the first available train and go some place. You hasten because your fifteen days have begun to file and you want to make the most of them. You take the first train because one train is as good as another.

SOME REBATES, TOO.

You are armed with a pass good for 15 days on all the regular steam roads in the republic of Switzerland on some of the electric lines, and on most of the steamboats plying on the Swiss lakes. Also it gets you a 20 to 50 per cent. reduction on tickets on most of the privately-owned mountain railways, on which fares are usually very high. You are privileged to ride over 2,775 miles of rail and water routes every hour of the 24 for half a month.

It figures out 48 cents a day.

If you want to go in for a year's riding on Swiss railways you can arrange it on a basis of 20 cents a day.

You will do all this only if you have gumption enough to do as Swiss do when you are in Switzerland. If not you will elect to ride first-class, after the fashion of "Lords, Fools and Americans" and spend $8.60 for railway fare in one day instead of 15.

The native Swiss, when he chooses to travel in his own country, travels third class. It is cheaper and really pleasanter than travelling first or second. The third class coaches are as good in every respect as our ordinary day coaches, and in one respect better. The seats are made of clean polished oak, not of unsanitary plush as are the seats in our day coaches. The Swiss cars are corridor cars, like our own.

EXPENSE WILL BE LIGHT.

If you choose to follow the native custom to travel third class on a 15-day season ticket and put up at humble hostleries, you can spend two weeks in Switzerland with a total outlay much less than it will take to live 15 days in an American hotel where rooms are a dollar a day apiece.

You will get a stout cane and a "rucksack" (the Swiss knapsack) and with these and your magic ticket you can see almost everything worth seeing in Switzerland. You will sleep under eiderdown above inland floors in marvelously clean rooms, which cost you 40 cents a day. You will breakfast for a franc, and dine liberally for 30 cents. Your lunch of Swiss cheese, bread and milk will cost you five cents.

Thus you will see the glories of the Jungfrau cross the indigo blue waters of Lake Lucerne traverse the chalet-dotted vales of the Bernese Oberland look with wonder upon the immaculate asphalt of Zurich and pluck forget-me-nots in the very shadow of the Blumlisaphorn.

All this time your magic ticket will be to you as the wonderful carpet from King Solomon's throne. It bears you hither and thither as you will. Board any train anywhere, going in any direction and it insures you transportation thence to the border. That is, as long as you maintain a reasonable resemblance to the photo pasted therein. Don't grow a beard or shave off a beard or work any other rash and radical change in your personal appearance. If you face doesn't match your picture you must hit the gravel.

When your fortnight is up, and you have turned in your ticket and have pocketed your dollar rebate, you go away wondering. You wonder how they do it. You wonder how they can run a railway system that is a very where almost every hour and make perfect connections all around. Most of all you wonder how they can do it and afford to carry you about fifteen days for $8.60.

And you wonder how it would feel to ride from Montreal to Vancouver.

FIVE MILLIONS
FOR COTTAGES
FOR FARM HANDS

London, July 18.—In the course of the debate on the Irish estimates in the House of Commons, attention was drawn by the Nationalist members to the need of further cottages for agricultural laborers, and Mr. Birrell announced in reply that the Government had determined to provide £1,000,000 for the purpose.

In 1906 Mr. Bryce, who was then Chief Secretary for Ireland, carried through Parliament a bill authorizing the grant of four and a quarter millions for laborers' cottages on what were called land purchase terms—at 3½ per cent. interest and annuity—and since then 23,000 cottages have been erected. These four and a quarter millions, Mr. Birrell stated recently, are now nearly exhausted, and when they reach the end of it there would still be forty-two rural districts with schemes affecting 3,582 cottages. After considering the question, the Government had decided to provide another million on the same terms, to enable further schemes of this kind to be carried out. Legislation would be necessary for this purpose, and he hoped the measure would be regarded as non-controversial. A number of the existing "mud-heaps" were unfit for human habitation, and he hoped to insert in his bill clauses making obligatory their actual demolition, and securing that the additional million of money should only be spent in the erection of cottages for genuine agricultural laborers.

Mr. J. Redmond acknowledged the generous spirit in which the Chief Secretary had met the wants of Ireland. Although, in his opinion, the grant of the additional million would Chicago, Ill., July 18.—According to a special story in The Chicago Tribune, under a Washington date line, Secretary Richard A. The investigators who concur in the majority report, which carries condemnation of the course of Former Chief Forester Pinchet, J. R. Garfield and Louis R. Glavis, according to The Tribune story, are Senators Nelson, Flint, Sutherland, Root and Representatives McCall, Denby and Olmstead.

It also is declared that a minority report will be filed to which the signatures of Senators Purcell and Fletcher and Representatives Maddison, James and Graham will be attached.

BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

TO INCREASE CAPITAL

Montreal, July 19.—The increase in the capital of the Bank of Nova Scotia from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000, for which authorization is to be sought is the first move of the kind under the management of Mr. H. A. Richardson. The shareholders will meet on September 1, to take action on the proposition.

The needs of the growing time in this country calls for more banking capital, and it is evident this strong institution is not going to be behind hand in that connection. It has a reserve of $5,500,000 one of the few banks which can boast of such an amount in excess of its paid-up capital. Since 1900 the bank has raised its dividend rate from 9 to 12 per cent.

Previous to 1898 the bank's capital was $1,500,000 and since then several additions have been made. 1898, $255,100 at 210; 1899, $104,900 at 220; 1901, $140,000 at 230; 1905, January, $340,800 at 260; 1905, December, $159,200 at 255 and 1906, $500,000 at 268.

The present market value of the stock is around 280, at which it yields 4.28 per cent.

Copenhagen, July 19.—Fire broke out today on the German Tank ship Standard which recently arrived in the harbor with a cargo of petroleum from Philadelphia. The oil was soon blazing fiercely. The authorities ordered that all the shipping tied up here be prepared to quit the port at a moment's notice. The Standard has been in bad luck since sailing from America. On June 30 she was in collision with the White Star liner Baltic although she was able to continue her voyage unassisted.
