PRIVATE SPARRING EXHIBITION.

A number of local followers of sport saw a six-round boxing exhibition which was given privately, last night. A local boxer and a St. John man who has been here for some time, were the principals. The bout was tame until the fifth round. The last two rounds were rather lively with the Fredericton man hitting his own with the other, who was aggressive.

STOLE A MARCH ON THEM.

Premier Hazen's arrival in the city last Thursday evening to attend the meeting of the government, was awaited with more than usual interest. A and B, who represent the decent element of the Conservative party here, wanted to see him in order that he might get the correct version of the dispute which led up to the action for criminal libel now pending in the courts. C, who represents the vicious element of the party, also wanted to see the Premier, and not wishing to take any chances, he stole a march on the other fellows by boarding the train for Fredericton Junction. He met the Premier, accompanying him back to the city and it is needless to say, "posted him up" during the run in.

Y. W. C. A. CALENDER

The young ladies of the Y. W. C. A. of the University of New Brunswick have prepared a calendar as they usually do at this season of the year and will have them on sale shortly. The calendar was designed by Miss Marianne G. Otty of the senior class. It is printed in Red and Black the college colors with touches of gold and is of excellent appearance. Miss Otty's design typifies college activities from the point of view of the lady student. The central figure of the design is a studious co-ed in cap and gown. Grouped about her are dance programme, hockey-stick, football, college song-book and other articles emblematic of the athletic and social activities of the university. The whole reflects credit on the designer. The calendar was printed in The Daily Mail job department and the work like all the other turned out here is well done.

George, youngest son of Mr. Joseph Millican, is quite ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Hatheway is expected to be very successful in his chosen profession. At the local High School he has had a good record.

AROUND THE MARKET.

Considering the state of the weather, the market this morning was a fair-sized one. Chickens were scarce and commanded from 80 cents to $1 per pair. Potatoes brought $1.20 per barrel. Butter sold at 24 cents and eggs brought from 35 to 40 cents. Pork sold at 10 cents, lamb at 8 and 10 cents, beef at 7 and 8 cents, and turnips at 50 cents. Apples are becoming very scarce and command good prices. Local grocers and butchers were much in evidence in the market this morning and bought considerable produce.

MRS. SARAH ODELL
DIED THIS MORNING

The death of Mrs. Sarah O'Dell took place suddenly in this city at nine o'clock this morning. The deceased, who was boarding with Miss Allen, on University Avenue, was about yesterday in her usual state of health. At seven o'clock last evening she was seized by an attack of apoplexy and died this morning without regaining consciousness. The deceased was about sixty-five years of age and was the second wife of the late Charles O'Dell. She is survived by two daughters, both of whom are married and who reside in South America.

The late Mrs. O'Dell was a daughter of the late Chief Justice Kincaid, of Nova Scotia. One sister, Mrs. Chas. McDonald, resides in Westmount, P. E., and has been notified of the death by telegram.

The late Chas. O'Dell, husband of the deceased, died some years ago in this city. He was a civil engineer by profession, and was engaged in the construction of the Intercolonial Railway. He lived for some years in Upper Canada but returned to Fredericton. He was a son of the late Hon. W. H. O'Dell, for some time provincial secretary, and a brother of the late Senator W. H. O'Dell.

MANY COMPLAINTS
CONCERNING TEACHERS'
PENSION ACT

Members of Provincial Government Busy Explaining Why Certain Applicants Are Not Eligible for Pension

The announcement of the names of the teachers who are the first to receive pensions under the act relating to the pensioning has already caused a storm of protest from teachers who consider themselves to be eligible for pension and from their friends. The names of the fourteen teachers declared eligible for pension by the Board of Education were hardly made public through the press yesterday before members of the provincial government were receiving messages from applicants whose names had not appeared in the list. The long-distance telephone was used in some cases.

COMPLAINTS EXPECTED.

These complaints were not unexpected however, as it was well known by both officials of the education department and by members of the government that many teachers well-deserving of pension would be excluded from that benefit by the provisions of the act under which pensions are granted. In the majority of cases, in which applicants have been declared ineligible for pension, the applicant is of the opinion that he has taught the required thirty-five years. The records of the Education Department however, do not show that length of service. In many instances there has been sufficient loss of time to make the period of service less than thirty-five years. In others the applicants have taught for a portion of the time in non-public schools and are consequently not eligible for pension.

DISTRESSING CASES.

Two particularly distressing cases have been reported. Female teachers are concerned in both, one residing in Newcastle and the other near Moncton. In the case of the latter, another year's service will bring eligibility for pension. The teacher however, is well over sixty years of age and her eyesight has failed to such an extent that she can barely see. She is keeping on with her work, however, in the hope of completing the thirty-five years of service necessary. In the other case the aged teacher is living in a hospital, having been crippled for some time. It is claimed that she has taught the required number of years but by the technicalities of the act she cannot

REV. SUB. DEAN STREET
WILL RETIRE ON DECEMBER 31ST

His Resignation Accepted by Bishop Richardson—Has Been in Church For Fifty-Six Years.

The resignation of Rev. Sub-Dean T. W. Street, which has been expected for some months has been tendered to the Bishop of Fredericton and accepted by him. The resignation will take effect on the 31st instant, but Rev. Mr. Street will continue to reside in Fredericton until spring, when he will remove to St. John where he will reside.

Rev. Mr. Street has been sub-dean of Christ-Church Cathedral since 1902 when he succeeded Rev. Mr. Whalley. He is nearing the age of eighty and has spent fifty-seven years of his life in the church.

NATIVE OF WOODSTOCK

The retiring sub-dean was born in Woodstock in 1831, being the eldest son of the late Rev. S. D. Lee Street formerly rector of that parish. After attending school at Woodstock he entered King's College, Fredericton, now the University of New Brunswick and was graduated by that institution in 1851. On June 3rd, 1855 he was ordained by the late Bishop Medley and shortly afterward went to St. Stephen as curate. Three years later he went to Upper Canada where he was engaged as a private tutor for some years.

IN WAR OF SECESSION

The outbreak of the War of Secession in the United States attracted him to the latter country. He went to the front with a New York regiment as his chaplain. During the four years of fighting he was present at numerous engagements, the capture of Richmond and Petersburg being two of the most important. At the conclusion of the war Rev. Mr. Street was appointed to the diocese of West New York under Bishop Cox, but returned to New Brunswick in 1894, when he was appointed rector of Bathurst by the late Bishop Kingdon. Since 1902 he has resided in this city. Mrs. Street was formerly Miss Whipple of St. John West.

Rev. Mr. Street has a large number of friends who will greatly regret his retirement from active work in the church. He is a brother of Mr. A. F. Street of this city, who is seriously ill.
