

LIBERALS READY FOR THE BATTLE

Crushing Defeat of British Tories is Predicted—Land Union's Tactics—Some of the Devices That Were Adopted—Caught a Tartar in Mr. Lloyd-George.

London, Nov. 26.—The veto conference has collapsed, and, if the advice of Mr. Lloyd-George and Mr. Winston Churchill is followed, Parliament will be dissolved in the first week in December, and the general election will be over before Christmas. The news of the breakdown of the conference will have been no surprise to your readers, for I have never concealed my belief that failure would be the end of this historic experiment. It was not necessary to doubt the good faith of the eight gentlemen who composed the conference to foresee that a point must be reached when "settlement by consent" would become impossible.

THE REASON WHY

Mr. Asquith entered into the conference with a sincere desire to bring about a pacific settlement, but he was determined also that his Government should secure a Parliament in which the will of the people should prevail. That is the essential point of the whole situation. The conference failed, not because of any unreasoning obstinacy on the part of Mr. Asquith and his liberal colleagues, but because Liberalism is Liberalism and Toryism is Toryism and "never the twain shall meet"; and because also at the last moment true to their instincts, Lord Londonderry and his secret caucus of Peers intervened and gave Mr. Balfour his orders.

AN UNBRIDGEABLE GULF

An "unbridgeable gulf," as Mr. Masterman has put it, separates the two parties and the two policies. Mr. Asquith and his colleagues entered the conference determined to win liberty for the people, and would have made some compromise to secure that end. The Tories were determined not to yield one iota of the Lords' power of the veto. Well, they have had their way, and the country will give them their answer. It will be an answer little to their liking, for it will be a death blow to Toryism. Mr. Asquith will come back stronger and more powerful than ever to carry on the great work of social reform already so splendidly begun. We shall have the whole of Scotland on the side of Liberalism, the industrial north and the Midlands will be almost solid, and we shall win back some of the counties.

TRICKS HAVE BEEN EXPOSED.

The shameful tyranny that was exercised on the people a year ago will not be practiced to the same extent this time. The people who coerced and terrorized the agricultural laborer and the men of the villages into voting Tory last January have been so thoroughly exposed by the Gladstone League that, for very shame, they cannot repeat their hateful practices, at least on the same scale, and the villagers and farm laborers have, I believe, learnt their lesson, and are somewhat ashamed, too, of the part they were made to play a twelve months ago.

The Tories are going into battle in a state of panic and disorder. They have nothing to offer the people except protection and conscription, but they are already beginning to raise all sorts of bogeys—Socialism, "disruption of the Empire," and so forth. These have all lost their effect; they have been tried too often.

THE BYE-ELECTIONS.

The bye-elections in South Shields and Walthamstow gave us some insight into the mind of the people after four years of Liberal Government. For these seats were fought at a time when, in the ordinary way of elections in this country, the Government would have sustained a reverse. Of the two, Walthamstow was the greater victory. In the northern constituency the certainty of success led to many Liberal absences from the poll, and so to a reduced majority. In the Essex county division, victory was never in doubt, and, notwithstanding the Tuesday poll, which the Tories secured by a trick, instead of Saturday, which was necessary in such a constituency, Sir John Simon's majority has, as I indicated it would, been increased.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The Tories have taken their two defeats as a sign of the coming disaster, but an equally significant portent is to be found in the results of the municipal elections. These are fought on political lines, and, generally speaking, the city and borough councils are dominated by Tory majorities, and in many cases the strange paradox is seen of a city returning Liberal members to parliament and Tories to the city council. The women's vote to some extent accounts for the Tory constitution of many of the municipalities, but this November Toryism has had a rude shaking from one end of the country to the other. Even in such a Tory city as Sheffield there are Liberal victories to record, and the prospect is not remote that, alike in the council chamber and the House of Commons, this great working-class constituency may have Liberal representation.

THE LAND UNION'S TACTICS.

The spirit in which the Tories are setting about to defeat the people at the next election is strikingly shown in an incident for which the Land Union of Captain Pretzman is responsible. This absurd organization which is demanding the repeal of the land taxes, was barred out from Walthamstow because of the injury it might do to the Tory candidate. Its weapons are misrepresentation and "bluff," and two recent illustrations of its methods have provoked amusement and laughter. In its bluffing style it announced that form IV—the return of his property which is not intelligent or fair-minded landowner has the least difficulty in making—was to be contested in the law courts and utterly destroyed. The result has been that the Judge of the High Court, before whom the case was tried, dismissed the action as "frivolous" and "misconceived," and there is no sign that the Land Union intends to appeal to a higher tribunal.

CAUGHT A TARTAR.

In its campaign of misrepresentation the Union has "caught a Tartar" in Mr. Lloyd-George. The Union circulated in the Tory press a statement that in a certain district in London valuations of land and property were being made at the rate of seventy a day. The Chancellor of the Exchequer took a serious view of the statement, for, if true, it meant that no attempt at valuing was being made. Accordingly, Mr. Lloyd-George asked for the name of the officer who was making these seventy valuations a day and his district. The reply of the Land Union was that the information had been supplied by a gentleman holding a responsible public position which he feared he would lose if his name were made public. Mr. Lloyd-George replied, offering all security to the gentleman if he would only supply the information to the Treasury, which would enable Mr. Lloyd-George to deal with the defaulting valuation officer. The Secretary of the Land Union still refused to give any information, and Mr. Lloyd-George, in a final, scathing letter, has invited Captain Pretzman to father these charges in Parliament where he can do so without fear of pecuniary risk. In this spirit of bluff and misrepresentation the Tories are proceeding to make war on the people's liberties. They will not succeed.

THE ARMY OF LIBERALISM.

Complete demoralization has fallen upon their party, and they find themselves faced with the army of Liberalism, well organized, brilliantly led, and full of enthusiasm for a great cause. Nothing can stand against them, and I believe that there will be a closing up of all the democratic and progressive forces of the country in order to defeat the common enemy. In their desperation the Tories have started a second "whirlwind" campaign in Lancashire, hoping that, if they can convert the county palatine, the old saying will come true, that "what Lancashire thinks, today England will think tomorrow." They may save themselves the trouble. By an ironic coincidence they inaugurated their campaign in Manchester on the very day that the Board of Trade returns for October were published. The psychology of the British tariff reformer is a thing that passes all understanding. When Mr. Chamberlain started his "raging, tearing propaganda" seven years ago, he used statistics which were so manifestly false that, when their falsity was pointed out, he saw at once the impossibility of defending them, and took refuge in the lame answer that he used the figures "only as illustrations." His disciplines in this movement take the more convenient method of simply ignoring the figures—as they have done the October Board of Trade returns. There is no other course open to them, for the old gibe about the three kinds of lies—"lies, damned lies, and statistics"—loses its meaning in face of the steady boom in trade that has been going on since 1903, in defiance of Mr. Chamberlain. The statistics for October are remarkable and encouraging. Trade is expanding all round, and I am assured by an official of the Board of Trade, who has means of knowing that the boom is going to continue. No time could be more propitious for a Liberal appeal to the country.

Her Face and Body Were Litterly Covered With "BOILS"

Mrs. John H. King, Johnston, N. B., writes:—"Last summer I was very much troubled with boils, and my face and body were literally covered with them. A friend advised me to take Burdock Blood Bitters. I got three bottles, and before I had taken all the first one my boils began to go away. I had just taken a few doses out of the last one when they all disappeared. My husband has also used Burdock Blood Bitters with much benefit."

Boils in themselves are not a dangerous trouble, but still, at the same time, are very painful. They are caused entirely by bad blood, and to get rid of them it is necessary to put the blood in good condition, and for this purpose there is nothing to equal that old and tried remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters.

ENTOMBED MINERS MAY BE STILL ALIVE

Providence Ky., Nov. 26.—Officials of the Providence Mining Company and State Mine inspector are still hopeful that the eleven miners imprisoned in the shaft of No. 3 by a gas explosion yesterday may be alive. Air is being forced into the workings through steam pipes leading to the drills. The mine seems to have been freed from gas and preparations are being made for entering the mine.

Iodine stains on woodwork should be removed at once, as they make an ugly spot. Soak up with blotting paper, then rub the spot with a soft cloth moistened with camphor.

HAD KIDNEY TROUBLE.

COULD NOT CROSS THE FLOOR PAIN WAS SO GREAT

Miss Hazel Hess, Winchester Springs Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with my kidneys for five years. They were so bad, at times, I could not cross the floor for the pain. The doctor could not do me any good and a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I bought six boxes and now I have been cured for over four years. I will recommend them to every sufferer."

No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well. When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to filter out of the blood are left in the system. Then how important it must be to see to it that this system of sewerage is not clogged up.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a purely vegetable medicine, realizing quick, permanent relief, without any after ill effects. A medicine that will absolutely cure backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

ACSA GRAY'S CENTENARY

The 100th anniversary of the birth of Asa Gray, the greatest botanist of the 19th century, has just been celebrated at Boston. "He was one of the earliest and most effective apostles of Charles Darwin in the United States and was for more than thirty years professor of natural history at Harvard university. His herbarium of 200,000 specimens and his library of 2,200 botanical works were presented to the university in 1864. Recognition came to him rapidly from colleges, universities and learned societies in this country and abroad. His separate papers included more than two hundred titles and every one of them carried a new meaning to the scientific world. He welcomed the doctrine of evolution as offering an interpretation of many of the mysteries of nature, just as with al. most equal enthusiasm Rev. Henry Ward Beecher saw in it a way of escape from much of the dogmatism that had fettered the logical freedom and the subsequent developments have justified the faith of both in its value, though Professor Gray differed from Darwin in his belief that "variation" was guided by an intelligent power. The service that he rendered in increasing the sum of human knowledge was not the kind that wins immediate or vociferous applause, but the labors of few men have been more broadly constructive or have opened more widely the doors to new fields of useful knowledge.
