RING NOTES

Abe Attell and Frankie Conly will meet in Los Angeles July 29.

Rev. Dr. S. DeCourcy, an English minister, is making an effort to have boxing made one of the sports at the Olympic games in Stockholm in 1912.

Prof. Maurice Parmelee of the University of Kansas, is a strong believer in boxing. "I consider pugilism one of the best sports mentally, morally and physically," he says. "The great danger to the human race today is that of physical degeneracy, and prize fighting is one of the best means of avoiding this danger. A great mistake commonly made is to judge prize fighting by the evils associated with it. Gambling is pointed out as one of the worst of attendant evils, but gambling occurs in connection with other sports as well. Moralists and ministers who condemn prize fighting would do well to consider this. It is the evils of pugilism that need to be eliminated, not the boxing itself."

SANDY FERGUSON WILL GET GREAT CHANCE OUT IN AUSTRALIA

McIntosh Intends to Try Him Against Best Fighters in Antipodes—To Take Langford Later.

Sandy Ferguson is one of the American pugilists promoter McIntosh of Australia, plans to take to the Antipodes. McIntosh will match Ferguson against Bill Squires first, and if he wins that battle he will be matched with Bill Lang. If Ferguson wins over Lang, then the promoter will stack Ferguson up against Langford or Jeanette. Should Sandy still continue to come out victorious, then the promoter will endeavor to match him against Jack Johnson. It is a great chance for the sorrel-topped boxer of Moncton.

GIBSON SAYS LANGFORD WILL BEAT JOHNSON

New York, July 12.—"If Sam Langford can ever drag Jack Johnson into a ring for a boxing match, he will whip the champion in less than five rounds. Johnson whipped practically a dead man in Jeffries and nobody knows this better than Johnson."

Thus spoke Billy Gibson, one of the master matchmakers of this country and the moving spirit in the Fairmont A. C.

"If Langford ever meets Johnson, I'll bet my fortune on Sam. I think so well of his chance that I'm willing to go broke on the Boston man."

SAM LANGFORD IS AFTER LIL ARTHA

San Francisco, Cal., July 13.—"Sam" Langford, the Canadian-born colored boxer, and his manager, "Joe" Woodman, are speeding on their way to New York, to make a determined effort to compel Jack Johnson to fight. A match between Johnson and Langford, it is decided, would prove an attractive card, though it is admitted it would not begin to figure with any of the great championship matches of the past.

"I will post $10,000 as soon as I arrive in New York," declared Woodman in behalf of his fighter. "Johnson will fight anybody but Langford, and the public knows it by this time. Johnson is the man Langford is after. We will make Johnson fight or quit talking before many days are passed."

BASEBALL LINERS

Myron Grimshaw of the Toronto Ball Club is able to walk around again, but is still very weak. He was injured on July 1st.

Ed Barrow is in a Montreal hospital undergoing treatment for blood-poisoning in one of his hands. The Tigers were badly treated at Philadelphia this trip. They have returned home for a four days' series with Washington.

Philadelphia baseball writers have figured out that the Athletics are going to win the pennant in the American league. There is no getting away from the fact that Connie Mack has a great team. His pitchers have been going well all season, and he is well fortified in case of injury to any of his infielders. Still, the season is not half over, and a lot of things may happen before the remaining 80-odd games are played.

The Athletics have obtained their present lead at the expense of their nearest competitors, New York and Boston, from whom they have secured 22 out of their 49 victories.

Jimmy Barrett, who is playing with Milwaukee, is practically leading the American Association batsmen with an average of .394. Cravath and Congalton, who have also played in Boston, are seventh and eighth, with averages of .335. Hichman, Carr, Altizer, Hayden, Clymer and Orth follow Congalton in the order named. Raftery, a New England boy with Kansas City stands 17th in the list with .301. "Hobe" Ferris, with Minneapolis, is 24th with .277.

Mother (reprovingly), to a youngster just ready to start for school—"James, that hole was not in your glove this morning." James (promptly)—"Where was it then, mother?"

He—"The minister preached a scathing discourse on the extravagance of women." She—"Yes, and there his wife sat with a forty dollar hat on." He—"That was probably the cause of the sermon."

Little Tommy (to his barrister pa)—"Dad, do lawyers tell the truth in court?" Tommy's Father (K. C.)—"Yes, my son, certainly—a good counsel will do anything to win his case."

JEFFRIES SAYS HE WANTS ANOTHER CHANCE

Los Angeles, July 13.—The United Press reporter who interviewed Jeffries, was the first newspaper man who talked to the big grizzly since his return from Reno. He was admitted to the home of Jack Jeffries, where Jim is staying, Saturday morning. Discussing his long silence, Jeffries said:

"Until today I had not the heart to talk about my plans. I felt my defeat too keenly, and I felt that all of my friends who had wagered their money on my chances had been disappointed in the showing I made."

"It would be foolish for me to deny, however, that I have considered the idea of seeking another meeting with Johnson. In fact, I do not deny that I would like another chance to redeem myself, and I have already discussed the advisability of a return match with Sam Berger, with my brother Jack and Jack Kipper."

BUGS RAYMOND TRIES TO GET PLACE WITH CHICAGO SEMI-PROS.

McGraw Says He Will Come Back All
Right—No One Seems to Want Erratic Star.

Chicago, July 13.—Arthur "Bugs" Raymond, pitcher of the New York Giants, was about town today asking semipro managers if they could use him on their teams. He told several of them that he was sick of playing with the eastern crowd and being in the hands of a "keeper" all the time.

He approached Bob Welsh, manager of the Spaldings, among others, but Welsh told him he couldn't use him and that he had better return to the Giants and try to be happy with them. Raymond's home is in this city and he said he wanted to remain here if he could.

Manager McGraw laughed when he heard the rumors about the threatened desertion of his erratic star. "He will be back, all right," said McGraw. "I don't think anybody else wants him."

ENGINEER MAXWELL AND THE VALLEY RAILWAY SURVEY

(Telegraph)

D. F. Maxwell engineer in charge of the Valley Railway survey was at the Royal Hotel yesterday. He gave out the following statement typewritten with the request that it be published:

"I have read the report of the interview with Mr. Carvell M.P., relative to the Valley Railway survey and have to say that while I do not object to fair criticism, I always like such criticism to bear at least the elements of truth. As to 'maximum grades' which would prevent operation by the Intercolonial, we are trying to make the survey strictly in accordance with an act passed by the Provincial Legislature at the last session, and hope before we are through to demonstrate whether a line of the standard of the Transcontinental Railway can be got from Grand Falls, along the valley of the river, right into the city of St. John.

"As to the survey we are at present making through Carleton county and which I presume Mr. Carvell more particularly referred to in his interview, I wish to say that the grades, so far as they have gone, are quite as favorable for railway operating as the grades of the main line of the Intercolonial Railway north of Moncton, and much more favorable than the grades of the Intercolonial south of Moncton, and through Nova Scotia to say nothing of the grades of the several branches of the Intercolonial such as the Canada Eastern which has grades in places at the rate of 100 feet to the mile. Therefore Mr. Carvell's statement that we are using grades of 75 feet to the mile varies from the facts practically 50 per cent. As to Mr. Carvell's statement that the line as surveyed 'is as crooked as a ram's horn' I have to confess that I do not know just how crooked a ram's horn is, and therefore defer to Mr. Carvell's judgment in that respect. But I would venture the assertion, (although I have not yet made the calculation) that the line as at present located between Woodstock and Lakeville, a distance of about 15 miles, does not exceed in length ten per cent the air line distance between the points named.

"As to Mr. Carvell's reference to the provincial government's policy of establishing a station at the door of each of its supporters, I desire to say, that no member of the government, nor any supporter of the government, has ever attempted in the slightest degree to influence the location of the line, at any point, and so far as I am concerned, or any of the engineers in charge of parties under me are concerned, the work is, absolutely, non-political.

"But I think that Mr. Carvell's insinuations as to the thousand calls for stations is good evidence that we are coming pretty near to the people and have the line located about in the right place.

"While all the newspapers, and particularly those not in sympathy with the provincial government, have, so far as I know, refrained from criticising our work, I am quite surprised, and shocked, at such a brain storm coming from so prominent a member of the Dominion Parliament as Mr. Carvell.

"Personally, Mr. Carvell and I are the best of friends; yet that interview sounds as if it came from a person hat is vexed about something. Perhaps, however, the world looks different, when viewed from the tonneau of an automobile."
