Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

HOOF BEATS

New York sale this week. How much for The Bondsman? Peter the Great's fee has been raised to $500.

Silko is again the property of John E. Madden.

New York had a wonderfully successful horse show.

A broken pastern bone ended the turf career of Rose K., 2:01½.

The McKinney pacer Buck, 2:09½, has Tuna, 2:12½, for his dam.

Dick Wilson has sold The Patchen Boy, 2:10½, to Capt. C. P. McCann of Hood River, Or.

Willy, 2:07½, won the championship for trotters at the New York show. Belvasia, 2:12½, and Silent Brigade, 2:10½, are the turf stars of the big sale.

Fanny Patch, 2:08½, is the ninth 2:10 performer for the wonderful Dan Patch, 1:55.

The Algerian 2:19½, a trotting son of The Bondsman, won nine races out of 11 starts this year.

Morning Star, 2:04, has been retired from the matinee game and is on the road in northern Michigan.

Young Miss, dam of Bingen, 2:06½, will be bred to Willis, brother to Czarevna, 2:07½, and Grace, 2:08.

BATTLING NELSON WILL HAVE LAST CHANCE SATURDAY

The Battler Will Go Up Against Owen Moran—English Boxer is the Favorite.

While it is the general opinion of the sports that Battling Nelson cannot come back and again become the holder of the lightweight championship, his bout with Owen Moran, the English boxer at San Francisco on Saturday will show the fans whether they are correct in their view.

Moran will be lighter than the old Battler, but he has been more active in the game than Nelson for six months. When Nelson could get no better than a draw with La Grave, a second-rater, the sports felt that Nelson was only wanting his time trying to regain his title. Still, the Battler, like all the dethroned champions, has the idea he can come back but his showing against Moran may change his belief.

Moran, too, is not the boxer he was a year ago, but still the sports figure he is good enough to make Nelson show what they are anxious to know. Should Nelson win he will go after Wolgast, who took the title from him, but it will be March or April before he wins over Moran.

Wolgast, who is out to make matters as disagreeable as possible for Nelson by way of evening up accounts does not think he will have to meet Nelson, as he is of the opinion that Moran will win over him, and if Moran does, Nelson's chances of meeting Wolgast again for the title will have gone aglimmering.

JOHN T. TAYLOR

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 22.—John T. Taylor, son of James G. Taylor, who was the bow of the New Castle on Tyne, England, which came to this country in 1870-1871 and won the international four oared race, has just been appointed head of the aquatic department of the fine new Pittsburg Athletic Association. Taylor holds a large number of swimming championships and has competed at all the large meets in the last few years. In 1899 he won the relay championship at the Sportsmen's Show at Madison Square Garden in New York.

SILKO REPORTED TO HAVE BROUGHT $35,000

New York, Nov. 21.—Interest and attendance at the New York horse show gives no sign of falling off.

Two important sales were made at the garden. The five famous Mel Valley ponies, brought to this country by Wm. Foster of England, were sold to Mrs. H. C. Bowen of Belton farm, Greenwich, Conn., for $20,000.

The second sale was that of Silko, the famous trotting horse, by Walter Winans of England, to John E. Madden, master of Hamburg place. The reported price is $35,000. Silko is one of the finest stallions in the country.

Two Canadian horses were placed in the qualified hunter class, Lieut. Sifton taking first and Hon. Adam Beck, third.

The results were:
Hunter class, qualified hunters, up to carrying 180 pounds, performance over fences—Lieut. Clifford Sifton, Jr.'s b.g. Wasp, first; Frederick Bull's ch.m. Sunday morning, second; the Hon. Adam Beck's by.g. Sir Edward third.

From out of the southwest comes word that those fast pacing miles at Phoenix were made behind pace.

Tom Nolan, who trained Czarevna, 2:07½, and other fast colts for D. Comyn Moran, has located at Goshen, N. Y.

George Gano went in 2:03½ at Phoenix. This was a disappointment, as it was expected he would touch 2:00 this season.

McKEAN MAY NOT BE ON MOUNT A. TEAM TOMORROW

Special Train From Sackville Will Carry Mt. Allison Rooters—Both Acadia and Mount A. Confident.

Tomorrow will be the big day in football in the Maritime Provinces, when Mt. Allison and Acadia will meet on the Truro A. A. C. field to play off the drawn game played at Wolfville last week. Both teams will go into the game confident of victory. Owing to the short distance between Wolfville and Truro, there will be a big crowd of Acadia supporters will also be there in force, as they will run a special train from Sackville, leaving that town at 11 a. m., returning at 9 p. m.

MORE INJURIES.

According to latest reports, both Acadia and Mount A. will be minus the services of a regular player. A telegram to The Mail from Sackville says that there is a possibility of McKean not playing. If he is not able to get into the game, Thompson will take his place. On the Acadia team, Richmond is said to be the sick man, and will be replaced by Pattillo.

The line-up of the two teams, according to the latest reports will be as follows:

Mt. Allison	Acadia
Fullback
Trapnell	Reid
Halfbacks
Godfrey	Kaiser
Macdougall	Andrews
Milford	Porter
Smith	McDonald
Quarters
McKean or Thompson	Black
Buckley	Pattillo
Dichens	Webber
Forwards
Lawrence	Fitch
Parker	Brooks
Cochrane	Spurr
White	Spencer
Glendenning	Eaton
Peacock	Robinson
Moore	Pineo

SACKVILLE COMMENT.

Concerning the game at Wolfville, The Sackville Tri-une says:

"Acadia showed herself possessed of a very fast half line but one which is weak on tackling—save McDonald—and apt to fumble a bit. The Mt. A. halves tackled well but got little chance to show their mettle on offensive work. Once or twice in the second half, however, they got off nice runs and showed that they are dangerous. Acadia forwards outplayed Mt. A. in the first half but matters were reversed in the second. The quarters were quite evenly matched.

"The game was remarkably clean, so far as the two teams as a whole were concerned. The only unpleasant thing was in the fact that Lou Buckley, the crack Mt. A. quarter, was twice kicked on the head and once struck in the face with a fist, the same man being responsible for each occurrence. The man in question claimed that in each case the trouble was purely accidental. If that was correct the game may rightly be described as the cleanest between Acadia and Mount A. that The Tribune man has ever seen on the field of either college."
