Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

"So you resigned!"
"Yes, I couldn't stand the way the firm treated me."
"What did they do?"
"Took my name off the pay-roll."

Mr. Blinks (in art museum)—I didn't know you were such an admirer of curios, Mrs. Blunderby.
Mrs. Blunderby—Oh, yes, indeed; I just delight in iniquities.

"What kind do you mean?"
"The sort that are all wings and machinery and no meat."

Mr. Guzzler—Mortified to death, my dear. I find that my capacity isn't what it used to be.

TOM MADDEN SIGNS WITH BOSTON RED SOX FOR NEXT YEAR

Catcher Has the Goods and is Ex- pected to be Source of Strength.

Boston, Dec. 9.—Catcher Tom Madden called at the Boston American league headquarters yesterday, and after a heart-to-heart talk with Mr. Taylor, signed up for next season. Madden has the goods and should become a valuable member of the catching staff next season.

From now until after the joint meeting of the major leagues in New York next week, the magnates will devote most of their time and talent in trying to strengthen their teams by trading players.

It is practically out of the question to purchase the release of any first-class ball player; therefore, the changes in the makeup of the teams for next season must come in the way of trades and in the development of the best of the minor league players.

Every magnate will go to New York with the trades that he would like to pull off firmly fixed in his mind. He is sure to put a high value on the men he would like to dispose of, and a questionable value on the boys that he would like to secure.

Clubs also will make trades for men whom they do not intend to use, except for the purpose of carrying out some other trade. Even the cleverest horse traders of Eben Holden's day would turn pale could they see some of the clever inside moves mapped out by the shrewd baseball magnates, often coached by their clever managers.

We read in the Washington papers that McAleer would like to trade even with John I. Taylor on William Carrigan for Charley Street. Street is a very clever catcher, but now is on his way to Hot Springs, Ark., evidently a little off color, while Carrigan is meeting all customers with a smile at his store at Lewiston, Me., as strong as a Texas steer, sound in limb and body.

Pres. Taylor is standing pat on Jake Stahl's alleged declaration that he has given up major league baseball for good. Nothing has been heard officially from Mr. Stahl, and it will be time enough to cross the bridge when Mr. Taylor comes to it.

CONNIE MACK HAS ALL-COLLEGE TEAM

Connie Mack can come very near putting an all-college nine in the field and it is doubtful if any team winning a championship has had so many college men in the lineup. First baseman Harry Davis attended Girard college of Philadelphia in his early days, Jack Barry graduated from Holy Cross, where his work as shortstop attracted manager Connie Mack; second baseman Eddie Collins played on Columbia university nine, Albert Bender hails from Carlisle Indian school, Jack Coombs went to Colby, Me., Eddie Plank is from Gettysburg and Harry Krause from St. Mary's California.

HOOF BEATS

The Preacher, 2.12, is another good trotter from the half-mile tracks that will be tried in high society next year. He is owned by Howard Kerner of Great Barrington.

They have another fast yearling in Kentucky. The latest is by Directum Spier, 2.11, out of Brown Silk 2.19, the dam of 11, and has trotted a quarter in 34 seconds.

Myron McHenry is coming back to the harness horses, and has arranged to open a public stable at Poughkeepsie in the spring. John H. Shults will send him several head.

Wilkes Heart, 2.06, now owned by Warren Kimball of Haverhill, should be the king pin brush horse of that section. Next spring he will be seen on the Charles River speedway.

Teasel, 2.06, Bon Vivant, 2.10, Iceland, 2.10, Priola, 2.14, Artlissa, 2.17, The Wayfarer, 2.17, Effie Worthy, 2.20 and Bourbon McGregor, 2.15, were among the 40 horse kind leaving New York last Saturday for Europe.

Joseph G. Carroll of New York, who bought 16 head at the recent sale, 11 being weanlings, is going to embark in the breeding business and will race his colts as they become old enough. He has turned over to Lon McDonald the yearling Alfred Todd by Todd out of Little Tide, 2.17.

A remarkable performance under the circumstances was the record made by the 10-year-old trotter Lord Greendancer, who has been hitched to sulky just three times in the last year and was started on his third mile to take his record and trotted the mile in 2.28, one-quarter in 35 seconds. LADBURY LOST TO DARKEY GRIFFIN AT NEW YORK

Australian Showed Up Well For Four Rounds the Rest Was All Griffin's

New York, N. Y., Dec. 8.—Persistent use of a cutting left jab that seldom failed to reach its mark, gave "Darkey" Griffin a good lead on points over "Jack" Labdury, an Australian lightweight, at the Sharkey A. C. last night. The negro's advantage in reach enabled him to hold off his opponent with ease, most of the Antipodean's efforts falling inches short of Griffin's jaw and body.

It was a fast bout throughout the ten rounds, both men mixing matters willingly. While many blows were struck, neither pugilist had a decisive wallop in his repertoire and the final bell found them still strong.

From the fourth session to the end Griffin had matters pretty much his own way. He scored the only knock down in the ninth round, when he crossed a hard right on Labdury's jaw. The latter was up in an instant, however, and fought back hard.

QUEEN HOTEL WON FROM CURLING CLUB

The Queen Hotel team took the bowling Curlers into camp last night when the two teams met on the Queen Hotel alleys. The winners had a safe margin of 158 pins when the match ended. Jack Giles was high man with an average of 95.2-3. His last string was good for 111. That was beaten by one pin by Jack Sullivan's 112 on the first string.

The scoring was as follows:

AMERICAN TENNIS EXPERTS TO PLAY ON ST. JOHN COURTS

Beals C. Wright, ex-champion tennis player of the world, who arrived in St. John on Thursday, is very enthusiastic over the outlook for tennis meets in the Maritime Provinces next season. After conferring with Malcolm McAvity and C. F. Inches, he spoke of bringing to St. John some of the world's best players, and mentioned three in particular he would bring from the United States in July. Brooks and Wilding, the Australian team who won the world's championship in England last summer, will visit the United States next season, and Mr. Wright will use his influence to bring them to St. John. The Maritime Province tournament will take place in Halifax in July.

RING NOTES

Eddie Murphy of South Boston and Young Erne will box in Philadelphia tonight.

Harry Forbes and Earl Denning have been matched to box in Windsor, Ont., Dec. 21.

Jimmy Walsh and Joe Coster have been matched to box in Brooklyn Dec. 19. Teddy Murphy and Kid Solsburg will meet in the semifinal bout.

Hugo Kelley, the Chicago middleweight has accepted the offer of the Army A. A. to meet Frank Klaus and the bout will be staged Dec. 20.

Jim Flynn the Pueblo heavyweight wants to come to Boston and box. He writes that there will be nothing doing for a boxer of his class in California till next March.

Sandy Ferguson and Sam Langford will not meet at the Army A. A. next Tuesday night. Aleck McLean manager of Ferguson, says that "Sandy" is now training at Natick and if after he has worked some time McLean should be satisfied with Sandy's condition, McLean will match him with Langford or anyone else. McLean has the reputation of not letting any of his boxers go into the ring unless they are in perfect shape, and Sandy has got to be right before McLean signs him to box. —Boston Globe.

NATIONAL BOARD OF APPEAL CONCLUDES DECEMBER SESSION

Mark of 1.48 Must Remain Against Armory Boy—E. W. Spear Rein- stated After Long Suspension.

New York, Dec. 9.—The board of review of the National trotting association ended its December session here yesterday. Among the cases decided was that against the pacing mare Little Mustard, 2.13, which was campaigned last fall in Rhode Island and at Allentown, Penn., as Mary D. It was ordered that the unlawful winnings amounting to $370 be repaid and that W. L. Rhodes of Allentown, N.J., the trainer, who drove the mare be suspended until that is done.

The other parties implicated are J. M. Gorsline and Carl Taylor of Dayton O., and George A. Allen of Cincinnati, who formerly trained Mustard.

C. J. McGovern of West Lynn, Mass., asked to have the mark of 1.48 removed against his horse Armory Boy which won a handicap at three-quarters of a mile in that time over the track at Combination park, Medford Mass. His plea was denied, as the rules of the N. T. A. provide that records for all distances exceeding half a mile constitute a record for the full mile. This puts the bay state horse in a class for below that to which even the champion, Uhlán, is eligible.

In the case brought against Stephen Sweet of Providence it was found that he had raced the mare Lady Nelson, 2.14, as "Molly O." in 1908. Later on she was injured in a collision with a wagon in Providence, and Mr. Sweet set up the fact that she had a race record and was worth a large sum.

He was offered $1300, but refused it and for his alleged participation in the "ringing" of the mare Mr. Sweet is expelled.

E. W. Spear of Worcester Mass., who was ruled off in 1896 along with the horse Tim C., was reinstated today. The winnings of the horse have been refunded, the animal is dead and so are several others connected with the fraud.

Frank Thomas of Frightwood, D. C. was fined $50 for driving on a member's track while under suspension. The board adjourned to meet early next May at the call of the president.

ENGLISH WOMEN FOND OF ATHLETICS

in a few years will be so manlike that she will appear ridiculous in female attire."

Dr. Sargent contends that the physique of American womanhood has undergone a singular change in the last twenty years, mainly as the result of excessive indulgence in athletics. Dr. Sargent has in his study a composite statue modelled in accordance with the actual measurements of more than 10,000 women before the year 1890. Since the statue was completed, he says, the American woman's physique has been revolutionized until it now approximates that of a man. Her feet and hands have become larger, her hips smaller and shoulders broader, and her neck thicker.

MR. MARCUS STONE'S OPINION

Mr. Marcus Stone, the eminent artist, considers that the figure of the average Englishwoman has deteriorated in recent years. This is not due, as in the United States, to violent exercise.

"Few Englishwomen indulge in athletics sufficiently to change their development," said Mr. Marcus Stone. "Those who do are in such a minority as to be negligible. Undoubtedly the figures of Englishwomen have grown worse, and it is extremely difficult for an artist to find an ideal model. In my profession we are students of anatomy almost as much as doctors are, and we know how figures are corrupted. I hold that the corset is the reason for the feminine figure being worse than it was."

"You scarcely ever see a normal length of neck nowadays in a woman because the shoulders are of necessity held so high. The impression of squareness in the shoulders given by the modern girl is due to the unnatural holding in at the waist by the corset. Young women are growing flat-chested and that also I ascribe to the corset."
