BASEBALL NOTES.

Everybody was delighted with the new ball plant, and the most delighted and surprised man of the lot was Pat Powers. "That is one of the finest ball grounds in America," said Mr. Powers. The players of both teams were more than surprised at the extent and magnificence of the Island Stadium.

Mickey Joyce, the Royals' speedy left-fielder, has a record of which any ball-player might be proud. During the past four years he has never missed a practice, nor has he ever failed to catch a signal flashed to him from any part of the field.

Jim Bailey, who went south with the Royals on their training trip, and was farmed out to the Bridgeport Club on account of his inability to hit, has been dubbed "Biff Bailey" and is hitting the ball to all corners of the lot. He is playing first base.

BALL PLAYER GETS FORTUNE

South Bend, Ind., May 11.—Jack Hendricks, the lawyer-baseball player, who last season managed the Fort Wayne Central League team, and who this year is managing the Tenver Western League Club, has fallen heir to $100,000 through the death of an aunt in England.

Hall, another recruit of the Royals is also playing with the Bridgeport Club. Hall is a shortstopper, and his work in that position has been keeping the Bridgeport fans in a high state of enthusiasm ever since his arrival.

Kid Foster, of last year's Skeeters and at present with the New York Highlanders, is laid up with an attack of pleurisy, the result of being hit by a pitched ball in Washington recently. Earl Gardner, his side partner,

MCDONALD WON THE MATCH FROM LeBARR BEFORE VERY SLIM CROWD

Fredericton Fans Shy of Wrestling Game--Nedeff-Smart Exhibition Blamed for this State of Affairs--Had to Pass Hat Through Crowd Last Night.

Dan McDonald won from George LeBarr in the wrestling match at the opera house last night before the smallest crowd that has witnessed an event of this kind in many moons. So slim was the attendance that toward the close of the match Billy St. Clair, McDonald's manager, passed the hat among the spectators to get a few dollars for the loser.

Fredericton fans are a little shy of wrestling matches after the George Nedeff-Jim Smart exhibition a short time ago and another reason for slim attendance last night was insufficient advertising and publicity.

Before the wrestling began Dan McDonald informed the spectators that he had never wrestled before so small a house. He had been brought to Fredericton on a percentage basis but did not see where there was anything coming to him. Fredericton had been stung with the Smart-Nedeff match and that had made the attendance small. He was ready to meet and throw both Nedeff and Smart, the Syrian three times in an hour and then Smart.

No referee was on hand so search for one was made through the audience. Mike Murphy was unable to act, so Andrew Perry of Wigan, England, volunteered. Mr. Perry evidently did his best, but his efforts did not meet with the approval of either spectators or principals.

FIRST FALL

The match started with LeBarr playing a waiting game and McDonald aggressive. The Frenchman went to the mat after four minutes had passed, but his bridging prevented the Cape Bretoner putting his shoulders down. LeBarr did not appear to be in good condition, but in spite of this was able to break McDonald's holds and get away from him repeatedly. At times he took the offensive. McDonald tried toe-holds several times, but with no success. The referee after 18 minutes awarded a fall to McDonald, but the crowd yelled "No!" and the men kept on. LeBarr then became aggressive. McDonald bridged several times successfully, but the Montrealer got a fall in 23 minutes.

SECOND FALL

McDonald went right after LeBarr and took the next fall in 9 minutes. At first LeBarr broke McDonald's hold easily and his supporters applauded vigorously. At times LeBarr became aggressive, but for the greater part of the time Dan was doing the work. He kept trying for a toe-hold and finally got a fall.

THIRD FALL

McDonald had to work 16 minutes for the next fall. LeBarr again adopted defensive tactics and let McDonald do the work. Several times Dan's friends yelled for a fall, but the referee did not allow it. At the end of ten minutes both men were on their feet. LeBarr varied his tactics by going after McDonald and almost got a fall. His supporters called for it, but Referee Perry would not allow it. McDonald then became aggressive. His toe-holds would not work and he tried a half-nelson with the same result. He finally took a hold that LeBarr could not break and tired the Frenchman out.

At the end of the match LeBarr said he wanted a return match with McDonald and was also ready to meet any man in the world at 158 pounds. Little Pat Harrington, who is singing at the Bijou, was an interested spectator of the last part of the match and sang between the falls.

IT LOOKS THAT WAY

Another race between Fred Cameron, the winner of the Boston Marathon, and Jim Corkery, the Toronto boy who finished third in the same race, is announced. This coming soon after the race in which the two competed the other day at Amherst looks suspiciously verging to the "matched race" idea. Corkery's home is in Toronto. A Toronto amateur cannot jump from his home to the Atlantic Coast every couple of weeks or so. On the other hand he might stay down by the seas. Any way it looks like the thin edge of the wedge.—Montreal Herald.

FERGUSON AND BURNS FIGHT ON MAY 28th

Los Angeles, Cal., May 12.—Promoter T. J. McCarty, has announced a series of boxing bouts indefinitely arranged, or in progress of arrangement, for May and June.

The Lew Powell-George Memsic 25-round battle will take place on May 31, instead of the coming Saturday; the winner to be matched against Wolgast for the lightweight championship.

The change in date is due to an injury to Memsic's leg. Wolgast will be pitted against Owen Moran in a 10-round bout here during June.

The Jack Burns-Sandy Ferguson engagement will be switched to Vernon and made a 25-round affair. They will meet on May 28, the winner to be matched against Sam Langford. Bantamweights Frank Conly and Pal Moore of New York will clash in a 25-round bout at Vernon, June 4.

FRACTURED PITCHER'S SKULL

Jackson, Mass., May 11.—Because the opposing pitcher struck him out in a pinch in a game between Deemer and Philadelphia (Miss.), Grover Ellis hit the pitcher, Dan Shitel over the head with a baseball bat, and the latter is lying home with a fractured skull.

There will be a race meeting on the Union Park, New Glasgow, N.S. on May 24th. Large fields of entries are expected in the different classes. Halifax, Charlottetown and Sydney are expected to be well represented. There will also be races, half mile heats, at Moncton on Victoria Day.

An X-ray examination has revealed a fractured elbow joint in the pitching arm of "Rube" Waddell of the St. Louis Americans. Waddell was hit by a pitched ball during the game here today and had to retire. It is not believed he will be able to play again for six or eight weeks.

ABOUT THE BOXERS.

Joe Dondro and Joe Nedean will meet at Dover, N. H., May 16. Jimmy Moriarity and Frank Peron will clash at Manchester, N. H., May 20th.

Al Delmont and Bobby Tickle have been matched to box at New Bedford, May 23.

Aleck McLean, manager of Matty Baldwin, received two offers the other night. The Akron, O. promoter wants Baldwin to meet Phil Brock on May 24 and the Milwaukee promoter wants him to box Ad Wolgast June 6. McLean will likely accept the Milwaukee offer.

Bill McCarney, the commissioner for some of the San Francisco promoters who has been in Boston for several days trying to match Langford with Ketchel or some other noted boxer, has gone to Philadelphia. He will try to induce Al Kaufman to accept an offer to meet Langford in a 29-round bout at San Francisco.

The Cunard Company disposed of the liner Umbria for $20,000. The vessel will be broken up by the Forth Shipbreaking Company.

CAMERON WINS AGAIN, AT WINDSOR TONIGHT

Halifax, May 11.—Cameron again defeated Corkery tonight in a three mile race in the time of 16 minutes 1 second. Corkery who was but two seconds slower, crossed the line about 16 yards behind Cameron. Patterson whom the people expected to give the winner a hard drive, was lapped three times in other words beaten by a quarter of a mile. Rodgers who was in no condition to run having practically no training, quit at the end of the first mile. The men were not after records, Cameron and Corkery watching each other closely and alternating every now and then in the lead until the last lap when the Amherst wonder shook himself and finished in a terrific burst of speed, drawing away from Corkery at every stride. It was a wonderful full sprint and brought the crowd howling to its feet.

St. John, May 12.—Ernie Sterling, accompanied by Trainer Latimore, left yesterday morning for Windsor where tonight he will compete in a ten mile race in which Cameron, Corkery and some fast Halifax men are entered.

DUKE OF SUTHERLAND AMERICA'S CUP CHALLENGER

New York, May 11.—Although no official information could be obtained at the New York Yacht Club owing to the absence from town of Secretary George A. Cormack, and from the club-house of all the members of the Regatta Committee, it is again understood that a challenge for the America Cup will be received from the Duke of Sutherland, the contest to be arranged for the summer of 1911.

When the first announcement was made, a few weeks ago that the Duke of Sutherland intended to try to lift the America's Cup, the news was received by yachtsmen generally with considerably more acclaim and enthusiasm than any similar statement during the last few years.

Many yachtsmen on this side of the Atlantic are taking the report of the Duke's intention quite seriously. Nothing has been said so far as to the type of craft or as to any changes in the measurement rules, the last named being a great bogey with Sir Thomas Lipton who sought to have them amended considerably.

There seems to be no likelihood that the New York Yacht Club holder of the America's Cup, will agree to any such changes in anything like the near future. But it is not believed—the opinion being based on statements attributed to the Duke of Sutherland—that this condition will in any way interfere with the much-hoped-for contests if the Duke finally does decide to go after the great trophy.

Just when the formal challenge will be received is a matter of guesswork at the present time, and the King's death has added greatly to this conjectural condition.

No list of circumstances will ever make a paradise.

CAESAR, THE KING'S DOG

London, May 11.—Roaming about the palace, looking for the familiar face of its master, the King, is one of the most disconsolate of mourners. It is the late King's favorite dog, Caesar, a rough-haired terrier. He was the King's constant companion, going with him on every journey, and sharing his room. Many stories are told of Caesar. At lunch one day at Biarritz, when Caesar was receiving his usual bone from the King's hand, a guest at the royal table observed that the dog should be getting familiar with the language of the French dog. "I am afraid," said the King, "he gets along very badly with them. In fact, he is anything but a help to the entente cordiale."

Harry Lauder says he had an uncomfortable feeling at having to sing at Sunday entertainments in America, and won't do it again.
