Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

RING NOTES

"Porky" Flynn and Andrew Morris will meet in Fall River, Dec. 15. Battling Hurley and Cy Smith will come together in New York next Monday night.

Pal Moore and Tommy Murphy will meet again in New York Dec. 15.

Kid Shea and Jimmy Moriarty, have been signed to box in Lawrence, Dec. 15.

Tom Jones, the manager of Ad Wolgast, will soon have Wolgast in a glass case. Jones announces that he will not let Wolgast box in any bout limited to less than 30 rounds. Jones has not much confidence in Wolgast in 10-round bouts when he figures that Wolgast is likely to lose the decision in bouts of that limit. A 20 or 25-round bout will tell who is the better boxer between Wolgast and anyone he meets.

SANS SOUCI SPRANG SURPRISE ON QUEEN HOTEL LAST NIGHT

Campers are Now at Head of League
--Pirates Won From the Athletics.

There was rather a surprise sprung on the bowling experts last night when the Sans Souci team trimmed the Queen Hotel five in its own lair and climbed to the top of the City League. It was a close game and was not decided until the last ball was rolled when the score stood 1233 to 1238 in favor of Sans Souci. In the other game the Pirates won for the first time since the series started downing the reorganized Athletics 1219 to 1110.

The league standing as a result of last night's matches is as follows:

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Sans Souci	2	0	1.000
Queen Hotel	3	1	.750
Pirates	1	2	.667
Athletics	0	3	.000

Sandy Staples was the star bowler of last night's double-header averaging 94 and rolling 105 on his second string. He was off color on his first string or he would have had a much better average. Don Winslow Staples' opponent rolled 97 on his second string. Trips was high man for the Athletics with an average of 84. For the Pirates "String" Harrison rolled well averaging 88 2-3.

OAK HALL WINS.

Manager Foster's team of haberdashers continued its victorious career at the Arctic Alleys last night, the victims in this case being the doughty five from the F. B. Edgecombe establishment. There was nothing to it, Oak Hall taking two strings by big margins and putting up a great fight on the other. The totals were 1134 to 1110.

The Cathedral choir team will attempt to make Oak Hall climb down tonight. The game between the two teams will be rolled tonight instead of Saturday, the latter being an inconvenient day.

The scoring on the Arctic Rink Alleys last night was as follows:

BOARD OF APPEAL TOOK UP CANADIAN CASES YESTERDAY

Calgary Turf Club Reinstated—Kinsey Girl of Danville Suspended Until Money is Refunded.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—The Board of Appeals of the American Trotting Association, in session here today, made public its findings in a number of cases, among them the following:

Sustained protest of N. K. Cornwall, of Thamesville, Ont., and his brown gelding Bonnie Claude, against Collection of fee by Bothwell Driving Club, also of Ontario.

Permanent reinstatement granted the Calgary Turf Club and Alexander Storey of Northwest Territory, Canada Hearing continued on application of Milton Churchill, of Hamburg N. Y., and Brown mare Fiesta Bell for remission of fine.

New York, Dec. 7.—The board of the review of the National trotting association began its annual session yesterday. Pres. P. P. Johnstone of Lexington was chairman and his associates are J. M. Johnson of Boston, from the eastern district, H. N. Bam of Poughkeepsie, Atlantic district, and A. P. Handles, Ottawa, O, western district. The central district was to be represented by George C. Brown of Springhill, Tenn., but he was absent on account of illness. Several appeals and protests were heard, some of which were decided later on behind closed doors. Among the cases was that of J. H. Gaines of Newport, Vt., against F. B. Lang of Barton, Vt., E. J. Morrell of Danville, Que., and the bay mare Kinsey Girl, 2:16 1/4.

This mare was found guilty of performing in a race where time was suppressed, and besides the fine of $100 there is still $331.25 of unlawful winnings to be repaid. Mr. Morrell, the owner, was exonerated, as Lang had made the entries where Kinsey Girl raced, so he and the mare are suspended until the balance due is refunded.

None of the other cases were of much importance except to those specially concerned, but there are trotting turfmen here from many states. Sec. W. H. Gocher of Hartford, who has charge of the docket, says the board will probably be in session until Thursday.

HANS HOLMER WILL RUN IN SCOTLAND

Confident that he is the fastest distance runner in the world, says a New York writer, Hans Holmer soon will sail for Edinburgh, where he will compete in the famous Powder Hall Marathon on New Year's day. In order to fill this engagement, Holmer has withdrawn his entry from the Boston Marathon, which is scheduled for Christmas day.

"It has always been my ambition to win a foreign classic," said Holmer. "Several times I was tempted to make the trip, but I kept putting it off because I knew I would improve with time. Now I am faster than ever before, and I feel sure that I will win. I intend to bet every dollar I own that I will defeat my opponents in that race on New Year's day."

Holmer will leave New York on Dec. 17. This will bring him to Scotland a week before the race.

HACK WON ANOTHER

Chicago, Dec. 7.—George Hackenschmidt defeated Jesse Westergard, the Iowa wrestler, in two straight falls last night. The first fall was taken in one hour, two minutes and fifteen seconds, with a double bar arm hold and the second in eleven minutes and twenty seconds with a reversed body hold.

HOOF BEATS

The death of Will Logan removes a figure from the harness horse world whose loss will be mourned deeply.

H. P. Gallop of Ashmont has a three-year-old by Bingen that appears to be the making of a sensational trotter.

Mac Thistle, 2:17 1/4, a brother of Independence Boy, 2:03 1/4, is one of the stars of the Lafayette, Ind. sale this week.

The Sailorman, 2:14 1/4, is now owned by Andrew Crawford of New York and will be used on the Harlem river speedway.

The three-year-old by Todd, out of Nancy Hanks, was not broken until late in the summer, but worked in 2:24 1/4 this fall.

Alfred Vanderbilt made a decided hit as sole judge in the heavy harness classes at the Chicago horse show last week.

The brother to Silver Silk, 2:08 1/4, by Moko out of Green Silk, is pronounced one of the best yearlings ever at Walnut Hall farm.

PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE IN PROVINCES MAY FIZZLE OUT

Difficulties in Way of Organization--
Moncton Delegates Now in Halifax Consulting Crescents.

Halifax, Dec. 7.—The men who are trying to organize a professional hockey league for the coming season are having a difficult task and it would not be at all surprising if the professional league fizzled out. Messrs. Norman and Donald, the Moncton representatives and C. Chisholm, of New Glasgow, arrived in Halifax last night and today had an interview with Frank Stewart and Roy Eckersley, representing the Crescents.

The matter of a professional league was thoroughly discussed and it will be finally decided today if a professional league will be formed. The hitch seems to be in New Glasgow, but the organizers of that town have promised to give a definite answer today.

If New Glasgow falls in line the league is likely to be organized, but if they refuse to play professional hockey, we are likely to have the alleged amateur sport again.

HACKENSCHMIDT IS AFTER CHAMPIONSHIP

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Providing George Hackenschmidt succeeds in defeating all of the leading heavyweight wrestlers now in this country and Frank Gotch does not "come back," from his retirement, the Russian Lion will again claim the championship of the world. Hack declared here today he believed Gotch was sincere in his statement that he had retired for good, and that if he disposed of Westergard, Roller, Ordeman, Americus, Yussif, Mahmoud and Zhyzsko, he believed he was entitled to claim his old honor.

Followers of the wrestling game here are of the opinion that Gotch intends to reappear on the mat, and in that case Hack believes he should be granted another try at the championship.

ECHOES OF BRITISH ELECTION

The London Daily Mail, in a report of a recent speech by Mr. Lloyd-George quotes him in part as follows:

"The budget passed six months ago. It has been a complete financial success. All the protectionist budgets have been a failure; they have not produced the cash. Our budget has been in operation six months—some of the resolutions eighteen months. Out of the money of the budget we voted twenty millions last year and this year to raise the old people above poverty. Out of the money raised by that very abused budget we have spent ten millions more upon building ships and equipment of the navy. We are going to bring in an additional 200,000 poor old people who are now branded with the stain of pauperism. We are going to make them State pensioners—like Dukes. That means two millions, and all that is in the taxes of the budget. We have got the cash to start an insurance scheme that will insure two millions of workmen against the evils of unemployment. We are starting next year—and all the money is arranged—a scheme to insure fifteen millions of work people, men and women, against the necessities, the distress, that come to households when the bread-winner's health breaks down.

"All the taxes are coming in, including whiskey. All the estimates have been justified. And these great schemes for keeping the invader from our shores—yes, for keeping hunger and want from invading the hearts of the people—were in the budget. And they (the Lords) threw it out as if it was an unclean thing. Ah! we will reckon with them. (Loud cheers.) Why did they do it? We dared to touch the ark of the covenant—the land—taxed the landlords rent.

"Nor did we injure trade. Before the budget trade was depressed we were down in the trough of the wave; since then the good old ship has been rising, rising and rising, and we are not yet on the crest. Our trade is leaping up by millions. I don't say that is all due to the budget, but by means of this fiscal instrument we have extracted twenty-five millions a year without injuring business."

Speaking at Northwest Manchester just after dissolution Mr. Bonar Law, then Unionist M. P. for Dulwich, was vacated his safe seat in order to contest the northern constituency (where he was beaten on Saturday) said that the issue which was to be put to the electors was this, "Is the British nation going to be master in its own House or is our Government to be subject to a Cabinet whose policy is dictated to it by a faction which has members double what it ought to

MRS. EDDY IN DEATH WILL GUIDE CHURCH

Boston, Mass., Dec. 6.—Even in death Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy will shape the destinies of the Christian Science Church, and after her body is laid to rest on Thursday the affairs of the greatest of new schools of thought and religion will go on as though governed by the living hand of the founder.

Through the written commandments of Mrs. Eddy the board of directors of the mother church will continue to work. A meeting of the directors with Archibald McLellan, chairman, presiding, was called for today when it was expected it would be definitely decided where Mrs. Eddy's body will be buried. It was also to be decided whether or not a sculptor will be allowed to take a death mask of the dead leader.

The funeral on Thursday morning at eleven o'clock will be held with the utmost simplicity and the attendance will be small. Two reports are current as to the place of burial. One is that the remains will be interred in a costly mausoleum near Chestnut Hill, the other is that the remains will be placed in a crypt beneath the altar of the mother church.

Until arrangements are made after the funeral, the directors of the Christian Science Church, Archibald McLellan, Stephen A. Chase, Allison Stewart, John V. Dittmore and Adam H. Dickey, have taken full charge of the church management, and the scope of these powers includes matters of organization, finance and discipline. They are supreme in the mother church and control branch churches.

All were the personal nominees of Mrs. Eddy, and they are a self-perpetuating body. They are all men of middle age and long identified with the management of the denomination. Mr. McLellan is editor of the "Christian Science" periodicals in this city, and is a native of Moncton, New Brunswick.

At the mansion at Chestnut Hill, where the body lies in an upper chamber, there are no outward signs of grief. There is no crape on the door, the window shades are up, and the household comes and goes as usual.

Al Kaufman is kicking because he is termed the "hope of the white race." It has cost him many matches and considerable money, he says.

Charley Hitt and Kid Henry have been matched to box in Albany next Tuesday night.
