

German Settlers Give Hearty Cheers For Sir Wilfrid Laurier

A Never-to-be-forgotten Scene at Regina--Opening the Exhibition--His Tour Making the Premier a Better Canadian--The Message He will Bring Back will be an Impetus to the East--A Speech in the Rain at Stoughton.

Weyburn, Sask., Aug. 3.—The scene at the great meeting in Regina last night prior to Sir Wilfrid's brief but memorable utterances regarding the petition of the German settlers to contribute their boys for service in the Canadian navy was a never-to-be-forgotten one. Following the address from the Regina Liberal Association there were welcomes from the Liberal Club, composed of newly-settled young Englishmen, by the President, James Crockall, and from the Hebrew settlers in Yiddish translated into English. Then Theodore Schmitz, President of the German society, rose and spoke for the German settlers from Germany, Austria-Hungary, Switzerland and Russia, presenting his plea that his people might prove their Canadian loyalty by manning the new navy with their boys. Having presented his petition, Mr. Schmitz turned to the great audience, and, speaking in German, told them he had communicated their message to the premier. Some five hundred Germans in various parts of the big Arena sprang to their feet, each waving a Union Jack, with which he had equipped himself, and gave German cheers again and again. Sir Wilfrid was unmistakably moved, and delivered the eloquent Imperial answer wired last night. The Premier was today showered by congratulatory messages.

OPENED THE EXHIBITION.

This has been another day of travel, with brief stops at various points to greet waiting deputations. Before leaving Regina Sir Wilfrid formally opened the Provincial Exhibition. President J. F. Bole, M. P., in introducing him, expressed universal pleasure with the Premier's intimation at the City Hall yesterday that he hoped to again visit the west in the early future, and on behalf of the association invited him to be present and open the Dominion Exposition at Regina next year.

MAKING HIM BIGGER.

Replying, Sir Wilfrid said his obligations were such as prevented off-hand acceptance of the invitation. "But," he added, "if God spares me, I hope to revisit you all in the not distant future." He was experiencing an education on his tour. "It is making me a bigger, and, I trust, a better Canadian," he said. After visiting various fair buildings, and discussing the exhibits, the Premier spoke of the rapid growth and development of the western country, and the large scale on which it conducted its enterprises. The message he would take back would be an impetus to the east.

IN A DRIVING RAIN.

The train stopped in a drenching rain at Stoughton, where a large crowd had gathered to welcome the Premier. Sir Wilfrid spoke briefly from the car platform, and donning a raincoat, alighted and shook hands with many in the gathering. On his arrival here tonight the Premier was accorded an enthusiastic reception. A band led a procession through the town, and Sir Wilfrid, in a short address, expressed his appreciation. A civic banquet was tendered, at which Hon. George Graham and Messrs. Pardee and Macdonald spoke. The Premier will spend tomorrow here, and will address a public meeting at night.

BRITISH OBJECTIONS TO CANADIAN PREFERENCE

Blow to Tariff Reform—Lord Advocate of Scotland Says That Canada Does Not Want a Preference—Alludes to Attitude of Western Farmers.

London, Aug. 2.—Right Hon. Alexander Ure, Lord Advocate of Scotland, speaking at Great Missenden, said: "Those self-made, muddle-headed people who preached preference wanted to give Canadian farmers an artificially increased price on their produce, but the farmers themselves the very day this policy was preached in the Commons, repudiated it, and said they only wanted fair play in their own market." It is proposed he said, to give Canada a preference she did not want, and to shut out Australia and South Africa.

The News says the spread of revolt against a preference to Canada is the most recent and the severest blow to the tariff reform cause here. "The west is supplying the driving force to Canada, turning against tariff in the very hour of the English protectionists are exhorting her to testify on behalf of protection."

The Morning Post protests against the repetition of the free trade press report of a "gigantic delegation" to Sir Wilfrid Laurier in favor of the abolition of the tariff, and says Laurier is so likely to commit political suicide as to embark on a fatal free trade policy from the practical viewpoint.

Sir George White, V. C., who is now the Governor of Chelsea Hospital, on the 6th inst. celebrated his 75th birthday, and a large number of well-known soldiers, including Lord Roberts, were present. During the morning there was a gathering of about 100 survivors of the Indian Mutiny, and a photograph of the group was taken. Almost immediately afterwards Colored Sergeant Wells, whose age was 84, was suddenly taken ill and died within a few minutes. He was formerly in the Cameron Highlanders, and was known as the "Father" of that regiment.

WESTERN GRAIN GROWERS DENOUNCE PROTECTION

Sir Wilfrid Listens to Some Strong Language on the Matter of Tariffs--Is told that Western Farmers Look to Him to Remedy Existing State of Affairs--They Thank Him for What He Has Already Done, but Want More Yet.

Weyburn, Sask., Aug. 3.—"Protection is a great wrong. It makes nations dishonest, one with the other; it makes individuals selfish—and dishonest; it teaches a mischievous principle that we are to expect to receive value without giving value in return."

In one of the frankest addresses Sir Wilfrid has received during the tour, the grain growers of the district presented their memorials this morning, headed by President Shepperd. All wealth, Vice-President Smith of Yellow Grass, pointed out, was the product of labor applied to nature. The manufacturer was entitled to the wealth the factory produces of the products of his own labor. "But," the address continued, "the manufacturer steps in and says 'I must have also as much as I can get from the other fellow.' The farmer says, 'if you appropriate my earnings you are a thief.' Now the manufacturers are all honorable men, and did not like the thought of being called thieves and robbers, so they went to Sir John Macdonald, then in opposition, and waited for chance that reinstated premier. Sir John said: 'I shall wipe out the words thief and robber and put protection in their place.'

THANK LAURIER FOR PAST FAVORS.

"If it is wrong to rob, it is wrong to make robbery legal."

The address proceeded to congratulate and thank Sir Wilfrid for what he had done since attaining power, notably preferential trade with Britain, and added: "We do not underestimate what you have done, nor are we ungrateful, but when we expect you to lay the axe to the root of the tree and cut down, you only cut off some branches. Now if it was wrong for the government of Macdonald to pass this law, is it not wrong for your government to perpetuate it as a whole or in part?"

"We are happy to know you admire the British free trade policy and regard Britain in this respect as the light of the world. We appeal to you for relief and redress.

"We admired you when you stepped back after earnest efforts and said the next proposal for reciprocity must come from the United States, and set about opening up other markets for us. President Taft now asks for closer trade relations and we hope the government will be able to secure for us the advantages of this valuable market."

"As free men we strongly object to pay tribute to our fellow citizens. We ask no favors. We urge our rights. We are willing to pay our share towards the revenue of the country. We are free men. Treat us as such. If we are slaves, we ask our freedom, if we refused we must demand it. Our resources are not exhausted. Our appeal is to you, Sir Wilfrid."

The premier, in replying, reiterated his personal adherence to free trade. All the progress he looked for had not yet been made, but the claims of the grain growers would be fully gone into. He stated the governments readiness to discuss reciprocity with the United States.

"I believe that the crematorium will make greater progress as the rising generation at school hears less about fire and brimstone," said Mr. J. Brookman at Southport the other day.

AMATEUR AVIATOR SERIOUSLY INJURED TRYING NEW AEROPLANE

London, Eng., Aug. 4.—Rev. Mr. W. J. McCaughan, who was injured in jumping from an upper window of the Kelvin Hotel on July 26 at Belfast after courageously assisting some of the occupants to escape, died from his injuries at the hospital today. Rev. Dr. McCaughan was at one time pastor of New St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on King street, Toronto, being inducted to this charge on March 25, 1897. In 1899 he went to Chicago, and recently returned to Ireland.

New York, Aug. 3.—Dr. H. Walden, an amateur aviator was seriously injured today at Garden City, Long Island, while testing a new aeroplane. Dr. Walden was encircling the aviation field when something went wrong with the aeroplane and it dropped fifty feet to the ground like a plummet. The physician was unconscious when removed from the wrecked monoplane and was hurried to the hospital. It is believed that he is internally injured. Dr. Walden has been experimenting with a new stability device and was trying it out on a monoplane which does not glide as far as biplane when the motor ceased. The aviator had been flying half an hour when something went wrong and the machine crashed to the ground.
