JOHN F. SHERIDAN SURPRISES FRIENDS BY RESIGNATION

American League Umpire Suddenly Determines to Quit the Game—Was Professional Umpire 30 Years.

Washington, June 28.—John F. Sheridan, of the American League, for 30 years a professional baseball umpire, packed his baggage here today and half an hour before the time for the first game between Washington and New York, surprised Umpire Egan, his partner, with the announcement that he had shouted "Better out" for the last time.

"Egan," said Sheridan, "I've quit and you'll have to go it alone today. I'm going to Chicago on the next train."

He left a short time afterward for Chicago, where he will report his resignation to Ban Johnson, president of the American League, tomorrow morning.

Egan said he had no idea of Sheridan's intention until the latter told him that he had quit. Egan, thereupon, telegraphed Sheridan's action to Pres. Johnson.

Sheridan is the oldest umpire in point of service in the country. He began in Columbus, Ga., in the old Southern League, and has been in the American League since its organization. He told Egan he intended to go to his home in San Jose, Calif., where he has an undertaking business.

It is reported among the players that Sheridan may be induced to take a position as a chief of umpires, the establishment of which has been discussed in the American League.

TEX RICKARD WAS VERY MUCH WORRIED

Reno, Nev., June 27.—Promoter Tex Rickard of the Jeffries-Johnson fight, was greatly worried tonight by the receipt of a telegram from a Chicago newspaperman, stating that it was rumored there that the fight would positively be called off.

"Get busy," concluded the message, and Rickard inferred that the rumor had been taken seriously and would be published broadcast.

"There is absolutely no truth in this new rumor of state interference," Rickard said. "I have the personal assurance of Gov. Dickerson that he will not interfere. I can't imagine how such a report could have reached Chicago. I know it is not true, but I am afraid that the constant repetition of such rumors will prevent many persons from coming to Reno."

Gov. Dickerson is expected here tomorrow.

MAN GOES INSANE TOO MUCH BASEBALL

Haverhill, June 28.—Charles L. Hight, of 19 Albert avenue, is baseball crazy. The physicians who examined him reported the facts to Judge Fuller of the district court today, and Hight was committed to the insane asylum at Danvers.

Hight believed himself to be a baseball manager. He reveled in baseball and thought he could play any position required, could play the game all alone and considered himself the greatest producer of baseball in years.

He also had an idea that he was going to buy a bright pink automobile, in which he intended to ride on to the baseball field and dazzle the fans, but the police spoiled his plans today, when they took him into custody on a warrant alleging insanity.

TWO REFEREES WILL BE IN RING

Reno, Nev., June 27.—Late tonight it was learned that a second referee will be appointed for the great battle of July 4. This was decided upon after a careful review of the situation by Tex Rickard, who was agreed upon to act as third man in the ring. Tex said tonight:

"I don't want to make any chance whatever of anything going amiss at this fight. I have studied it from all angles and have considered the risk of one of these big fellows sending in a wild swing at a moment when I might be breaking them. Then what would be the consequence? I might go down and out, and who would give the decision to satisfy the bettors all over the world?"

"To avoid any contingency like that a supplementary referee agreeable to both men will be selected on Thursday."

It is likely that Eddie Smith, of Oakland, Calif., or Jim Morrison, of Seattle, both of whom are honest and acceptable, will be the pair from which the pick will be made.

Henry Piet, the French lightweight who boxed Kid Goodman here some months ago, has returned to England.

TOMORROW'S RACES PROMISE TO BE OF UNUSUAL INTEREST

Many Horsemen Are in the City for Holiday Races—Good Weather Means Good Sport.

Everything is progressing smoothly for the great curtain raiser races of the Maritime Circuit to be held here tomorrow and Friday.

The first day of the races will be taken up with the 2.21 pace and 2.18 trot class, and the 2.30 pace class. All the purses, five in number, are for $300 each. Six horses are entered in the 2.31 pace and 2.18 trot and five will start in the 2.30 pace.

Mr. Clair Wolverton, of Indiana, who is in charge of the Adams and Mitchell string, will make his first appearance as a driver in this part of the country. He will drive Alice A. 2.20, in tomorrow's races.

Peter Carroll, the Halifax horseman, will handle the ribbons over Orphan Girl, 2.19. Charlie Dustin will drive Fred Duncan's Idle Moments, 2.21. Mr. James Adams, part owner of the Adams and Mitchell stables, arrived in the city last night and is registered at the Barker House.

Prince Louie, 2.25, in charge of William Sharron, arrived from St. Stephen yesterday afternoon. Frank Boutillier's and Peter Carroll's horses have also arrived, coming in over the I. C. R. yesterday afternoon.

G. W. Gerow is expected to arrive here from Port Fairfield this evening. Frank Downes, who has privileges at the meeting, came to the city this morning from St. John.

FRANK SHANNON HAS BEEN RELEASED

Brockton, June 27.—Frank Shannon a Brockton New England league infielder, was this evening released by manager Steve Flanagan. Shannon is one of the veterans of the league, having played with Lowell, Haverhill and Brockton in the past seven years.

He played with Brockton in the New England league nearly 20 years ago, later being with the old St. Louis Browns. He played in several other leagues, and in 1903 joined the Lowell club under Fred Lake. He was with that team until three years ago, when he played with Haverhill.

Shannon joined Brockton last spring and played the entire season, distinguishing himself by his timely hitting. He practically won an exhibition game for Brockton against the Boston Americans last summer, sending in all of Brockton's runs by his hitting.

His fielding this season has not been sure and he had fallen off in batting. Tom Stankard or Andy Lawrence will be used at second base, and Pond, the University of Maine outfielder, secured from the Red Sox, will play an outfield position. He reported here today, as did Lawrence.

(Shannon was formerly a member of Jessie Burke's Worcester team which played in St. John last season.)

BASE BALL LINERS

George Merritt, of Buffalo, beat his former team-mates, the Skeeters, 4 to 0 yesterday, and on Saturday Kissinger, for the Skeeters, beat his former club, the Bisons, 2 to 1.

President McCaffery is preparing his defence of the McMillan protest, and there will be some pretty pointed arguments handed to the Eastern League Board of Directors at this week's meeting.

Detroit appears to have made a mistake in letting Ed. Lafitte come back to the Eastern League. He looks like a big leaguer from head to heels, as witness his one and two hit games and numerous shutouts. Yesterday he held Newark to a pair of hits, both by Jack Kelly.

Those Athletics are sure enough the Red Sox jokers this season.

The Harvard-Yale game today at the Highland grounds in New York will be the headliner in baseball.

The Doves will play double headers here with the Phillies, Thursday and Friday.

Big Bill Burns, the left-hander, secured by Cincy from the White Sox, put it all over the Cubs and Reulbach yesterday.

After several weeks' idleness, with a thumb split in Boston, Ira Thomas was back in the game Monday for the Quakers.

They're betting even money in Pittsburg that Hans Wagner will be in the hunt for the batting honors in the National League season.

BOXING GOSSIP

A fourteen round bout scheduled to be held in San Francisco Saturday night was called off by order of Chief of Police Martin.

Harry Mansfield, a prominent English featherweight, who defeated Jim Driscoll a few years ago, died in Bristol, England, the other night.

STILL HOPEFUL THAT RAILWAY STRIKE MAY BE AVOIDED

Further Conferences will Take Place and Trainmen are Believed to be now Willing to Forego Some of Their Demands.

Montreal, June 28.—This was a day of conference between the representatives of the trainmen and conductors' unions and the vice-presidents of the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk. Apparently nothing was gained save the fact that on all sides the principle of further conference was recognized, which gave hope that such discussion might lead to an eventual settlement without open hostilities.

Practically the whole day was given over to these conferences by the union leaders. In the morning they met Vice President Fitzhugh, of the Grand Trunk, and had a talk with him lasting over two hours. In the afternoon they met Vice-President McNicol of the C.P.R., and were in conference with him from 3 until 5.30.

The most encouraging feature of these long conferences was that it was promised that the men and officials of both roads would meet again when some further grounds for settlement might be arrived at.

So far as the railroads are concerned their attitude is much the same. The Canadian Pacific has accepted the award of the board of arbitration, but may make further concessions in the interests of peace. The Grand Trunk had refused the finding of the conciliation board, and also declined to grant the demands of the men, but has expressed a willingness to make reasonable approaches so as to find a basis of agreement that may prove the means of reaching a peaceful settlement.

The men made the same demand upon both companies for the uncompromising acceptance of the standard of wages for the district east of Chicago. But their present attitude is not now as determined as it was. Instead of declaring that they stood by this standard wage as their irreducible minimum and announcing that no discussion upon any other basis would be of any use, they have shown a more conciliatory attitude, and are quite prepared to talk the whole matter over with the railroads.

The indications are that in the end there is a possibility of mutual concessions being agreed to which will put an end to the present rather strained position. This the more so as the conferences yesterday were carried on in the most amicable manner.

Deputy Minister of the Interior.

HOPEFUL OF SETTLEMENT

"We met the representatives of the trainmen and conductors this morning," said Vice President E. H. Fitzhugh, of the Grand Trunk, "for the first time since the wage trouble arose, some six months ago, and discussed the matter thoroughly. The men presented their demands and views and the company expressed its own. While we could not accept the proposition made by the men, nor would they accede to the view we expressed, the discussion was carried on in a friendly manner, and I have every hope that an amicable adjustment will be arrived at. The matter being still under discussion, I can say nothing further save that we have not arrived at an impasse yet."

Vice-President McNicol today took charge of the negotiations on behalf of the Canadian Pacific. At the close of the meeting he was even more reticent than Mr. Fitzhugh.

"The matter of an agreement between the company and the trainmen and conductors" said Mr. McNicol, "is under negotiation at the present time. I therefore think it is inappropriate to give any information to the press on the subject. Any statement to the contrary is unauthorized."

Statements were made this evening by Vice-Presidents Murdoch and Berry that conferences had opened new points of view on either side which has led to a better mutual understanding. As a result they hoped that the railroads would feel more like meeting their point of view. While they were cautious about admitting that the men might join in the compromise movement, it was fairly evident that they felt more like making some concessions than in the earlier days of the controversy.

Kid Goodman has signed to box Johnny Glover and Freddie Corbett in Bangor July 4.

Young John L. Sullivan of Westfield, who has been boxing in England and Ireland for several years, knocked out Tom Stokes in eight rounds at Liverpool, Eng., the other night.

Jim Driscoll, the featherweight champion of England, who had to account of malaria, arrived at his home in Cardiff, Wales, the other day. A large crowd was at the depot to call off his match in this country on meet him.

Johnny Kilbane and Patsy Branigan will meet in Akron July 4.

Jimmy Britt is now the manager of Packey McFarland in England.
