CANADA FIRST

A few years ago there was a great cry against the exodus of Canadian young men to the United States. It was claimed that we maintained schools of a very high standard—a very much higher standard than the average school in the United States—with the idea of educating our children to be good citizens of Canada. No sooner did they complete their school or college courses however, than they found that they could make more money by moving to the United States. The very superiority of our educational institutions over those across the border, made it easy for our young men to obtain situations there. Young Canadians were better equipped to fill responsible positions than their own youths. It is well known that in United States cities, Canadians were given the preference. Some years ago it was estimated that there were between 80,000 and 100,000 native born Canadians in the single city of Chicago, and that there were nearly as many Canadians in the United States as there were in all Canada.

The twentieth century opened with six Governors of States, a large number of United States Senators and a larger number of members of Congress, as well as the Presidents of the two greatest railroad systems in that country, all native-born Canadians. It was appreciated that all this was very unfair to Canada. Why should we educate young men for the purpose of making them valuable citizens of another country. The upshot of the agitation was the cry of "Canada First" became very popular. There were appeals to buy only Canadian goods wherever possible and to "boost" our own country on every possible opportunity—to be patriotic—to be loyal—in fact, to boil it down into one word—to be sensible.

Have you noticed what has happened in recent years as a result of all this? The exodus has ceased. There are now more Americans coming to Canada than there are Canadians going to the United States. Large manufacturers of implements, clothing cameras, wire fencing, drugs and a hundred and one other things, find it necessary to establish factories in Canada in order to hold the Canadian trade.

And now we want to ask the residents of Fredericton if patriotism can not be taken one step farther? Is not loyalty to Canada only a stepping-stone to loyalty to Fredericton? Why should we educate our children to make them good citizens of Toronto or Montreal? Can we do anything to keep them at home? And the answer is the same—Be loyal to your town. Do everything possible to advance the interests of Fredericton. Do not send your money to build up huge corporations in Toronto or Montreal. Spend every cent you have to spend right at home. Cut out mail order buying. Be true to your neighbors.

If we did all this do you not think it would have a good effect on Fredericton as the "Canada First" cry did on the country in general? Would we not be able to attract new capital and new industries and find employment for our sons and daughters at home?

Is it not worth a trial?

London Advertiser—Hon. Bob Rogers and Hon. George E. Foster advise Conservatives in Drummond to vote against the Laurier Government or, in other words, to vote for the Nationalist candidate, whose stock-in-trade is a racial appeal. There is no surprise in this. It is precisely what low-grade politicians like Rogers and Foster would be expected to do.

The local government, profuse in its promises with respect to the campaign against tuberculosis, has done nothing yet to further the important movement. The Association now finds itself without funds and in no position to carry on the work. It is a shame that the government, which promised to use every effort in its power to stay the ravages of consumption, should such little regard for its solemn promises. Last year in St. John alone, tuberculosis claimed 107 victims.—St. Andrew's Beacon.

Hamilton Times—Hon. George E. Foster, who is seeking to re-establish himself in the party councils, the other day served this notice on the party chiefs: "If there is still any man who thinks he can read me out of public life, or lie me out of public life, I am ready to have a friendly, but pretty firm, interview with him." Somebody ought to inform that man from Montreal who was offered Foster's old job just how the land lies. It might save Judge Doherty's feelings.

Baltimore American—Since, according to university professors, gossip is meritorious as giving pleasant shocks to the vasomotor systems of women, why not make it a part of the regular college course and have the thing scientifically done? It is no doubt bungling in the art on the part of an amateur that shifts the shocks from the vasomotor system of the gossip of the sensibilities of an innocent party.

The $8,100 Gleaner, which borrows most of its editorials from The Toronto News and other Tory papers, appears anxious to find out the identity of the man who writes the editorials for this journal of the fire-side. At the risk of being called impolite, we wish to say that it is none of The Gleaner's business.

Halifax Chronicle—"Down with Laurier, the militarist and Imperialist!" cry the Quebec Nationalists. "Down with Laurier, the tin-pot navalist and anti-Imperialist!" cry his enemies in Ontario and elsewhere, who are the chief shouters for the Tory Party. It is a desperate game.

MAINE WOMAN'S TERRIBLE MISTAKE

Stonington, Me. Nov. 10.—Mistaking gasoline in a pan for water, Mrs. Edward Wood, wife of a lobster fisherman, dashed the liquid over a small blaze in the kitchen of her home today and in the explosion that followed her six year old son and four year old daughter perished. Mrs. Wood was so seriously burned that recovery is doubtful.

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN NEXT CONGRESS, 29

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Sixty-second congress:

Democrats elected 225.
Republicans elected 164.
Socialists elected 1.
Doubtful district 1.
Total, 391.

Democratic majority in house, 29. Complete returns on the election of representatives in congress indicate that the Democrats will have a working majority of 29 in the next house. The number of Democrats elected to congress, according to the latest unofficial returns, is 225. The Republican representation will be 164 or 165, or eight seats less than the Democrats have in the 61st congress.

New York, Nov. 9.—The political upheaval of Tuesday was followed today by a general survey of the field which disclosed with greater detail and precision just what results were accomplished.

Latest calculations on the national house of representatives, based on complete but unofficial returns, show that the Democrats will have a safe working majority of thirty. The outcome of the United States senate is now definitely settled. The Republicans are assured of sixteen new senators, which with thirty-four holdover senators, gives them a total of fifty and a majority. The Democrats which, with twenty-five holdovers, gives them a total of forty. Two senatorships are in doubt, namely the succession of the late Mr. Dolliver in Iowa, and of Mr. Carter in Montana, where there is a prospect of a tie.

The governorships in two states are not yet reported as being beyond doubt, namely, Colorado and Idaho.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The election its lesson are pressing forward the administration legislative programme so as to get it out of the way before the Democrats control congress next year.

The discussion of the election results brought out the individual opinions of the president and those of some of his official family.

It was pointed out among other things, that it was in the east that the most harm to the Republican party was done, much of the outcome in the west having been discounted in the primaries.

Some comfort was found in the relative smallness of the Democratic pluralities as compared with the figures rolled up in the past when Democratic primacy was attained. New York's apparently less than 70,000 plurality was cited in this connection. The expressed view of some of the members was that the defeat of the party in these state elections may readily work for good. President Taft realizes the necessity for getting through all needed administration legislation in the three months session beginning next month. He called on members of the cabinet today for a statement of the situation in their respective departments and the matter will be taken up in detail on the president's return from Panama.

NEW REPUBLICAN CHAMPION

Boston, Nov. 9.—Undismayed by the decisive defeat of the Republican candidate for governor yesterday, there has arisen a new champion in Massachusetts with aspirations to lead the party to victory a year hence, in Joseph Walker of Brookline, speaker of the house of representatives, who announced tonight that he would be a candidate for the nomination for governor next fall. Speaker Walker's statement was as follows:

"I have been elected to the legislature of 1911. I am a candidate for speaker of the house of representatives. I shall not accept another nomination or election to the house, but shall run for governor of the commonwealth next fall. I believe that the greatest evil in politics today is the excessive use of money. Unless the nomination of my party comes to me without the use of money, directly or indirectly, I do not wish it."

REPUBLICAN ROUT IN NEW YORK

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 9.—On July 2 next when Governor Horace White hands over the reins of governor to John A. Dix, New York state will have what it has not had since the election of Roswell P. Flower in 1891, a Democratic governor. The new executive chosen by the voters yesterday will have a legislature safely Democratic in both branches. Democratic associates in the various elective state offices.

One of the first and most important duties of the next legislature will be to elect a successor to U. S. Senator Chauncey M. Depew, whose term will expire on March 3 next. Walter B. Parker, ex-chief justice of the appeals, who stumped the state in behalf of the Democratic ticket; Edward M. Shephard, Thomas M. Osborne, chairman of the Democratic League, and John B. Stanchfield, are among those suggested as possible candidates.

According to returns at present available the senate will have thirty Democrats, twenty Republicans, and one Independent and Republican, twenty-six votes being necessary to control. The last senate had thirty-five Republicans and sixteen Democrats.

Seventy-six members are needed to control the assembly. The Democrats elected eighty-seven and the Republicans sixty-three. The last assembly numbered ninety-four Republicans, fifty-four Democrats one United Citizens League member and one elected by the Independence League.

Thomas F. Conway, as lieutenant governor will preside over the senate with indications pointing to the election of Senator Thomas F. Grady for many years minority leader, as leader of the Democratic majority.
