LANGFORD BESTED JOE JEANNETTE IN FIFTEEN ROUNDS

Hugh McIntosh Still Backs Jeannette
but Boxing Fans Pick Sam to Beat Burns.

Sam Langford the Weymouth, N.S. colored boxer outpointed Joe Jeannette at Boston Tuesday night and is now looked upon as likely to give a good account of himself when he meets Tommy Burns in London next December.

Concerning the bout the Boston Globe says:
When referee Charley White declared Sam Langford the winner over Joe Jeannette in their 15-round bout at the Armory A. A. last night most of the fans figured that it meant the elimination of Jeannette from the list of the contenders for the crown held by Jack Johnson.

Others had a different view, and among them was Hugh McIntosh the Australian promoter who arrived at the arena, just in time to see the last two rounds. While Langford did some effective work in those rounds, McIntosh still figures that in a contest to a finish Jeannette would defeat Langford. McIntosh also felt that Tommy Burns will defeat Langford when they meet in England in December.

After seeing the articles of boxing that Langford put up last night the local fans differ with McIntosh in every particular.

The bout was about the best that has been boxed at the club, and the way that Referee White did his work as the third man in the ring kept the men boxing hard about all the time.

BOTH IN SUPERB SHAPE.

When Langford and Jeannette stepped into the ring it was plain to the members that both had been through a careful course of preparation for the bout for they looked in superb shape, and the way that they withstood the rights and lefts that they handed to each other all through the bout showed that they were.

While Jeannette looked to be the heavier of the two there was not enough difference in their weight to give him any advantage in that respect. A few times it looked as if Langford would make the result a decisive one, but Jeannette's wonderful recuperative powers stood him in good stead and he always came back before Langford could get over the K. O. punch.

WHAT MADE JOSEPH WEARY.

Langford's lefts to the jaw and stomach and his rights to the jaw made Jeannette look weary many times. Sam did some good countering and got inside many of the stiff lefts that Jeannette shot for his face.

Langford did not use his right uppercut a great deal, but when he did it would land on Jeannette's chin with such force that Jeannette's head would go back. The latter did a great deal of his scoring with a left jab to the mouth and nose and a right on the kidneys and stomach.

For a while Langford could not seem to avoid Jeannette's left jab, but after a few rounds he gauged it well and after that Langford got inside most of them and countered on the body with either right or left.

Langford showed that he could box about as well at close quarters as he could at long range and he certainly shot many hot rights and lefts to Jeannette's body and kidneys.

IN BAD WAY IN 10TH.

While Jeannette was staggered a couple of times, it was not until the last round that Langford had him in a very bad way; but the round ended before Langford could bring about the result that the fans were looking for.

ST. JOHN OARSMAN WHO HAS ROWED HERE DIED THIS WEEK

Geo. L. McLaren Rowed Against Crew
Containing Judge Wilson and Hon.
E. H. Allen.

The death of George L. McLaren at St. John this week brings back to the memory of the old timers the days when rowing was very popular right here in Fredericton and local crews splashed in the blue waters of the noble St. John. The late Mr. McLaren was a member of the famous McLaren crew which in its day rowed against the Paris crew and other famous fours.

The Telegraph speaking of the death says:

"George L. McLaren, whose death was announced yesterday, was in his day a noted oarsman. He was a member of the famous McLaren four-oared crew and rowed his first race on the Kennebecasis in 1872 against the Paris crew. On this occasion, he was in his 18th year. The McLaren crew was beaten by the narrow margin of eight seconds. There are now only two surviving members of the McLaren crew, James K., of the police force, and William H., of Carleton. The fourth member, Robert, died about twelve years ago. George L. was the youngest member of the crew and all were sons of the late John McLaren. Since the breaking up of the four-oared crew, the late Mr. McLaren had rowed in several races, which he won."

THE RACE HERE.

The occasion when the McLaren crew rowed here was early in the seventies while an exhibition was in progress. Elijah Ross of Paris crew fame, now the sole survivor of that famous four was the coach of the Fredericton crew. The latter contained only two Fredericton men, Wm. Wilson at present Judge of the York County Court and Ed. Allen, now Hon. E. H. Allen. The other members of the crew were St. John men brought here for the occasion. The race was rowed opposite the city under the agreement that if either shell fouled the other the crew of the fouled shell should win the race. While the race was in progress the McLaren crew crowded the Fredericton—St. John crew so close to the shore near the mouth of the Nashwaakasis that the shell was in danger of grounding On the ground that the McLaren crew had fouled them the members of the other crew claimed the race. The judges decided that it should be rowed over again and on the Fredericton—St. John crew refusing to row awarded the race to the McLaren Brothers.

RING NOTES

Pal Moore and Owen Moran have been matched to box in Philadelphia Oct. 28.

Charley Harvey of New York was a spectator at the Armory A. A. last night. He just returned from California and does not speak very encouragingly about the game in that state.—Boston Globe.

Promoter McIntosh, who came over to Boston last night, sails for morning from New York. He was disappointed at not seeing more of the Langford-Jeannette bout. McIntosh says that Bill Lang, the Australian heavyweight who boxed Al Kaufman in Philadelphia the other night, will not be able to box for at least four months, as he broke a bone in his left hand during that bout.—Boston Globe.

If suet or lard is kept in tins it will keep much fresher than if earthenware jars or pots are used.

UHLAN WILL AGAIN TRY TODAY TO BREAK RECORD WITH WAGON

First Grand Circuit Races at Hartford
Run Off Yesterday—Bisa Won
2.14.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 7.—For the first time since the opening of the Connecticut state fair on Monday weather conditions this afternoon made it possible to run some of the grand circuit races at Charter Oak Park. The 2.12 pace and the 2.14 trot were won respectively by Joe Boy and Bisa in straight heats.

The other big feature, the biplane act of Frank Coffyn, proved a disappointment owing to engine trouble

2:14 TROT

Weather conditions were ideal for the fair and about 10,000 were in attendance. The wind and sun quickly dried the track which was a veritable bog after last night's downpour. There were five starters in the 'first heat of the 2.14 trot in which Orlean and Husky Harry broke badly on the half mile and both were distanced. Bisa and Bervaldo were making a close race of it on the stretch when the latter broke and Bisa went under the wire by a neck. The second heat was also close the three horses being bunched until a short distance from the finish when Bisa let out and won by a narrow margin with Bervaldo second, and Olive F. third.

The 2.12 pace with only three starters, was easy for Joe Boy, Mike Wilcox taking second money and Dr. Fox third.

2:12 PACE

The racing committee has decided upon the following programme for Thursday: 2.20 trot; 2.09 Charter Oak $10,000 stakes; 2.05 pace and 2.11 trot. If the track is in good condition as is expected, Uhlman will try to break the track record driven to a wagon. In a workout mile late today, Uhlman made the last half mile in 1.04.

BELVASIA MADE NEW RECORD AT HILLSGROVE

Hillsgrove, R. I., Sept. 7.—A new trotting track record was established in the third blue ribbon meet of the season here today, when Belvasia owned by D. W. Caylon, of Foxboro, Mass., negotiated the third heat of the 2:23 stake trot in 2.12, the fastest heat ever trotted over the track.

Crash was a favorite in the 2.21 trot, with Carrie R. well thought of, and the pacer made a great battle. Crash broke three times in the last heat and trailed the field making it necessary to carry the race over for tomorrow because of darkness. Foote Prince owned by C. E. Pitman, of Carmel, N. Y., won the 2.17 pace in a gruelling finish with Kentucky Belle, the race being unfinished yesterday. O. G. Camp, of Waterbury, Conn., took first money in the 2.27 pace with Oliver Direct. The Favorite, Lady Laurel, made the going in this race for the place.

BROWNETTE WON ONE HEAT AT LEWISTON

Lewiston, Me., Sept. 7.—The features of today's racing at the Maine state fair was the 2.14 pace which was unfinished. Every heat was a fight and pretty driving was shown. Knoxville B. won the first two heats but Brownette took the third, winning out in the stretch. Higgins won the 2.40 trot in straight heats and Prince Aldeen took the 2.35 pace.

John Young put seven youngsters by Bingara in the list last week.

A. H. Merrill does the starting at Plattsburg, N. Y., this week.

Major Wellington, 2:16, has been turned over to Lon McDonald.

Lady Jayquitta, a two-year-old, by Jay McGregor, trotted a quarter over the Lexington track the other morning in 30 1/2 seconds.

BASEBALL NOTES

Briscoe Lord is with the Athletics, Harry Lord is with the Chicago White Sox.

It is stated in Rochester that New York Americans have traded Catcher Fred Mitchell, last year with Toronto, to Rochester for Catcher Blair and Shortstop Tooley.

This is the last week of the New England league race.

Jack Nelson, a famous ball player in the early 70's, died Monday at his home in Brooklyn. Nelson's last engagement was at Indianapolis. He was a fine batsman and clever shortstop. Born in Portland 66 years ago, he went as a boy to New York.

ELKINS-ABRUZZI

MARRIAGE REPORT

Paris, Sept. 7.—The date for the wedding of Miss Katherine Elkins and the Duke of the Abruzzi has been fixed for the latter part of February of next year, according to reports in circulation here. There is every reason to believe the Duchess of Aosta has withdrawn her opposition to the match at last.

It is understood that before the marriage takes place, Miss Elkins will receive the title of Countess of Teramo, in honor of one of the largest towns in the Abruzzi district. The statement is made at the same time that Miss Elkins will become a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

The marriage portion will, it is reported, be $5,000,000.
