Bobby Byrne, the clever little guard of the far corner on Fred Clarke's piratical crew is going better this year than ever. The diminutive veteran is working every minute of play, and his showing is most pleasant to the fans from the Smoky City. Bob has always been a consistent player, with careful attention to his work at all times, he has been a great help to the Robin Hood bunch of hustlers. The Pirates are going good now, and the little fellow expects to figure in another World's championship series.

BILL LANG PROVED VERY EASY FOR AL KAUFMAN

Australian Showed Up Well in Only Two Rounds--Was a Willing Fighter However.

Bill Lang had no chance against Al. Kaufman in Philadelphia Labor Day.

A report of the bout says: After having the better of Bill Lang in the first round of their bout at the Philadelphia baseball park, Al Kaufman proceeded to put the finishing touches to the Australian in the fourth and subsequent rounds.

In the second and third sessions Bill managed to hold his own, but to ward the end he became wild with his swings and Kaufman was able to get in telling jabs and punches that easily returned him the winner.

It was a fast bout from the start, the men wasting very little time in clinching and wrestling. They were both full of action. Of the two Kaufman was the faster and stronger. He made his blows tell and used a left jab for the face, and the nose and a right to the body that took some of the steam out of Lang.

In the late rounds of the bout Kaufman had Lang's measure, and the latter had to climb often to avoid punishment. Lang showed himself a willing fighter even if he was pushed to the ropes and pelted with blows of all kinds.

At the end of the sixth round Kaufman was strong and looked fit to go through the bout all over again.

HUGHIE JENNINGS WILL STAY WITH TIGERS

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 6--Reported rumors that Hugh Jennings would retire as manager of the Detroit baseball team at the close of the season have been given a quietus, Jennings has said he had not given the contract matter any serious consideration.

"If the Detroit Baseball Club wishes to retain me next season and the remuneration is such that it suits, I will be only too glad to direct the team," says Jennings.

Jennings says his marriage this fall will not prevent him from managing the Detroit team if the salary provided suits him and the club management wishes him. President N. van says he has not thought of Jennings' contract and that terms have not been discussed between them. He says he hopes Jennings will be with the team next season, and then refused to discuss the matter further.

MIDDLETON RACES WERE SLOW BECAUSE OF HEAVY TRACK

Willie Mack Won 2.22 Trot and Pace, Belle Mack Second--Brenton King a Winner.

The Labor Day races at Middleton, N. S., were run on a heavy track and the times made were not fast.

2.22 CLASS

The horse races were called at 2 p. m. The first one was of the 2.22 class, trot and pace, mile heats, best three in five, purse $200. Willie Mack won the race in three straight heats. Time 2.42, 2.41½ and 2.41. Belle Mack second money, Ferrone third money, Lookaway Boy fourth money, Ariel Wood was distanced in the first heat.

THREE MINUTE CLASS

The three minute class, trot and pace, purse $200, was won by Brenton King in the second, third and fourth heats. Lincoln winning the first heat and second money, R. W. E. third money, Paul Kruger, fourth money. Time of first heat 2.47, second 2.41, third 2.46 and fourth 2.43.

The track was in a heavy condition owing to the rain. This closes the sporting season in Middleton for this year.

READVILLE RACES

Readville, Mass., Sept. 3--Two events postponed on account of rain and a heavy track, were combined in one card for the closing of the grand circuit race meeting at the Readville track today. Besides the six races on the programme, there was another attraction in which interest centred. Edgars champion trotting stallion, of the world, the Harvester, 2:02, was to attempt to better his record made at Fort Erie three weeks ago. The races today included the classic Massachusetts stakes for 2.14 class trotters with a purse of ten thousand dollars the Bunker Hill stakes, a 2.15 pace, the purse being $3,000, the Norfolk with $2,500 stakes for 2.14 pacers, two trotting events in the 2.10 and 2.16 class with $1,000 purses and 2.16 pace also for $1,000.

SAW RED SOX PLAY

The local fans who returned from their Boston trip on Labor Day saw the Red Sox play Cleveland and St. Louis. St. Louis did not attract a particularly big crowd but there was a large attendance at the Cleveland games. The local people also took to the aviation-meet at Sganateau where Grahame-White has since swept everything in the flying competition.

RAIN HINDERED GRAND CIRCUIT RACES AT HARTFORD, CT.

Giftline Proved Disappointment at St. Paul Being Distanced--Gamar Very Sick Horse.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 6--The track at Charter Oak was ankle-deep in mud yesterday afternoon, making racing impossible. It will take both sun and wind today to dry it out, and even then the trotters in the $10,000 stake will have heavy going.

Gamar, the favorite, was a pretty sick horse Monday, but is better today and may start.

St. Paul, Sept. 6--The 2.20 trot was the feature of the card at the state fair races yesterday afternoon, developing into a six-heat race, with Teddy Oh So and Abbie Frost fighting it out for first money. Abbie Frost took the last three heats.

Giftline wearied herself in scoring in the free-for-all and was distanced. She started a favorite in this event.

The track was slow owing to a slight rain in the middle of the day. The summary:

2.10 CLASS TROTTER

Purse $1000 (half-mile track)
Abbie Frost, chm. by Nicolet (Jameson)... 3 2 3 1 1 1

Maud Pilot, bm (George Castle)... 5 4 4 4 4
Delma E. Sauntry and Dell Dillon also started.

FREE-FOR-ALL PACE

Purse $3,000 (mile track)
Bland S, bh, by Egyptian Boy (Barnes)... 1
Major Mallow, bg, (Mallow)... 2
Isenta, bm (George Loomis)... 3 ds
Giftline, bh (Carter)... ds
Time--2:10½, 2:10.

ALF. LYNCH DID NOT BOX DUFRESNE AT LEWISTON, ME.

Lewiston, Mo., Sept. 6--The bout between Alf Lynch of Boston and Napoleon Dufresne of Lewiston that had been advertised for last night at city hall did not take place, as both men were dissatisfied at the small crowd in the hall.

The semi-final bout between Kid Ryan of Boston and Mickey Flynn of Portland also was not boxed. There were a few bouts by some local boys, but it was very evident that the spectators were rather displeased when announcement was made that the principals refused to go on.

Alf. Lynch belongs to Quebec, but has lived in both Moncton and St. John and is well known in the Maritime Provinces. He claims the Canadian lightweight title.

OHIO-PENNSYLVANIA LEAGUE SEASON FINISHED

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 6--With the close of the baseball season in the Ohio-Pennsylvania League, Akron finds itself the pennant winner by one game. Canton, McKeesport, East Liverpool, Newcastle, Mansfield, Erie and Youngstown finished next in order.

TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 5--In the women's open singles for the championship of western New York played here yesterday, Miss Moyes, the Canadian tennis champion, defeated Mrs. Rice of Philadelphia 6-3, 6-1, and in the finals the Canadian wonder ran away from Miss Rotch, the New England champion, 6-2, 6-0. In the last four weeks Miss Moyes has won four championships, Ohio, Ontario, Niagara on the Lake, and Western New York. Miss May Sutton, last year's winner of the western New York championship, did not defend her title yesterday.

GREENWOOD LEAGUE WINNER

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 6--Greenwood a new comer in the league is the winner of the Cotton States league pennant in 1910 by a margin of 6 points over Jackson. The season ended yesterday. The other teams closed in the following order: Hattiesburg City, Vicksburg and Meridian.

Frank Klaus, the Pittsburgh middleweight, writes that he is to box in the Smoky City Sept. 13, but does not tell who his opponent is going to be.

RING NOTES

Harry Lewis and Leo Houck have been matched to box in Philadelphia Sept. 27.

Kid Goodman who has been picking up some easy money in Maine, says that he discovered a young heavyweight in Bangor named He-Cluskey whom he feels confident will do well in the game. The Kid is going to take him to Boston for a good trying-out.

Billy Melody and Frank Peron will meet in Southbridge this month.

Young Erlendson and Clarence McNutt have been matched to box in Colorado this month.

Lew Powell, the San Francisco lightweight who is touted high, is now under the management of Charley Harvey, who will bring him east for bouts.

Harry Forbes and Mike Bartley, the Chicago featherweights, who have seen their best days as boxers, have been matched for a finish bout on a barge in three weeks.

Digger Stanley, who was expected in this country next week for a meeting with Jimmy Walsh, has postponed his trip until next month. The other day he was matched to box Joey Bowker for the bantamweight championship of England and the Lonsdale belt at the National sporting club in London, Oct. 17th. If he wins, Stanley cables, he will come to America the last of October.

Battling Hurley and Willie Beecher have been matched to box in New York Sept. 22.

BASEBALL NOTES

Krause, the great left-hander, has returned to the Athletics' pitching staff, after resting up since early in July. Connie Mack figures on working the Californian in the world's series.

Dick Cooley is about ready to give up the game at Topeka, Kan., where he is dropping the nice bundle that he picked up last season. They cannot stand for a loser in Kansas.

The Doves will have several new players to try out next spring. Manager Lake having several good ones for the draft and having lines out for three or four now in major league company.

With the American race for first place practically over, it is remarkable the way people turn out to see the games, the New York Highlanders and Boston Red Sox doing wonderful business for this time of the season.

Both Chicago White Sox and Boston Doves put in a draft for pitcher McConnell of the Rochester club, who is hitting for .367, and whom Duffy and Lake consider the best pitcher in the eastern league.

HOOF BEATS

Ed Willis worked the 2-year-old Miss Stokes a mile in 2:10½ last week. Smaller purses and more of them would help the grand circuit some.

The Bondsman, sire of Colorado E, goes to the New York sale this fall.

Looks like Detroit would catch the cream when it clashes with Columbus.

Bob Thompson turned a pretty fair green pacer loose at Marshfield in Lady Bingen, 2:16½.

Alleen Wilson and Gallagher should be a good drawing card at Worcester next Monday.

Dr. McCoy is getting Birvolo ready for some of the money in the Charter Oak next Monday.

The Exponent, by Bingen, is to be given a mark of 2:10 or better and retired to the stud.

The meeting at Empire City demonstrated that New York will support harness horse racing.

Baden by Bingara won a smashing seven-heat race at Baltimore last week, taking a record of 2:18½.

When the late Will Evans sold Colorado E. to George Estabrook for $4500 he was called Colin and was at that time the most sensational yearling Kentuckians had ever known.

George Dietrich, the Cleveland secretary, is following the grand circuit gathering entries for the Stallion Produce and Matron stakes of the American breeders' association.

Bervaldo is at last out of the 2:14 class.

Readville's future looks to be a fair ground.

King George II. of England, who disliked Lord Chesterfield, once yielded to him because of the readiness of his wit. Chesterfield had tendered the King a commission to be filled in with the name of a person whom the King detested, the latter refused, angrily exclaiming: "I would rather have the devil!" "With all my heart," replied Lord Chesterfield. "I only beg leave to put your majesty in mind that the commission is indited 'to our right trusty and well-beloved cousin' This was too much for the King, who laughed and said: "My Lord, do as you please."

Lord Chesterfield's sister, Lady Gertrude Hotham, who had become a Methodist, and Lady Huntingdon conceived the idea of tempting him into one of the Wesleyan establishments in Wales by praising the beauty of the mountain scenery. Chesterfield, however, divining their intention, suddenly exclaimed: "Hold, ladies! I don't love mountains. When your ladyships' faith has removed the mountains I will go thither with all my heart."
