Give your servants GOLD DUST to clean with, treat them rightly and you will have few occasions to insert a "help wanted" ad

They say a good workman is known by his tools. You cannot expect your maid to keep everything ship-shape unless you give her every modern help. To keep house without GOLD DUST is to do work by hard, old-fashioned methods. For cleaning everything and anything about the house—from cellar to attic—GOLD DUST is worth its weight in gold. It cuts grease and dirt like magic, does away with scouring and scrubbing, and saves time and tempers.

Your servant can do more and better work and keep sweet with the aid of GOLD DUST in all household cleaning.

AMERICAN SOCIETY WOMEN BRANDED AS GRAFTERS BY WOMAN LAWYER

Mrs. Mulliner Protests Against a Class She Calls "Alimony Grafters"—Says "Premium is Put on Divorce when Court Orders Payments by Ex-Husband—Is a Lure to Wife who Remains Constant"—"Man Must Go to Jail if He Fails to Pay, Though Sick, Injustice," Declares Woman Lawyer, Who'd Alter Law.

When Mrs. Gabrielle Stewart Mulliner came out boldly in The American and branded as "frumps" the suffrage pleaders who attended the hearing before the Judiciary Committee of the Senate in Washington last Spring, there was a tempest in the suffrage teapot that hasn't stopped boiling yet.

Now Mrs. Mulliner is out with a criticism of "woman grafters" that promises to bring down upon her head the wrath of every divorcee in the country. Alimony is the field in which divorcees graft holds Mrs. Mulliner.

In her office on the 6th floor of No. 32 Fifth avenue Mrs. Mulliner outlined her views yesterday afternoon.

"Our present divorce laws work a terrible injustice upon American husbands when they allow the wife alimony," the woman lawyer began. "I am sure that much of the divorce evil could be eradicated if the system of alimony were done away with."

"It seems to me that women marry men for better or worse and enter into an agreement at the time of marriage to share all the good and evil fortune with their husbands. This it seems to me, ought to be construed to mean that women should share their husband's moral as well as financial failures. And when a woman finds life with her husband unbearable and they end their covenant by divorce, she should end all relations with this man. She should sever all financial connection as well."

"PREMIUM NOW PUT ON DIVORCE."

"I cannot understand the philosophy of a woman who casts her husband adrift and then arbitrarily demands a certain sum from him. And this in spite of the fact that he may be disabled or sick and unable to pay the money. And if he does not pay the 'graft' the woman will have him incarcerated in Ludlow Street Jail. I cannot understand why she should want to continue 'grafting' on him."

"A premium is now put upon divorce. A woman who divorces her husband and is awarded certain weekly or monthly cash payments, whether the man is conveniently able to pay it or not, has become a lure to the woman who stays with her husband through all his struggles. Women would think more deeply before signing divorce papers if they knew that alimony did not figure in it. In my opinion no woman should be supported by her divorced husband when she is free. Of course, I do not refer to the question of the support of children. I am referring to the financial support provided for the wife alone."

"I have seen so many cases where the man has been unable to pay the alimony that I have refused to handle any divorce cases where alimony is asked by the wife. I know cases where a man is supporting two women his ex-wife and his second wife. There is a prominent sculptor in this city who was ordered to pay his divorced wife a certain sum of money. He has frequently been unable to meet the payments because of the uncertain nature of his work. His wife immediately invokes the aid of the law and sculptor must imminently give or borrow the money from his friends."

gets its inability to aid the defendant. His appeal for mercy in the circumstances must be made to the persons who make clam to the arrears of alimony and counsel fees. The court is left no alternative and must grant the motion. No costs."

Mrs. Mulliner as in everything she criticises has a remedy for the evil of women grafters.

WOULD HAVE PROPERTY DIVIDED

"At the time the divorce is granted the husband and wife agree upon a fair division of their real property," she urges. "That would end their relations forever and put a stop to the alimony grafter. No matter if the husband has no real property he should not be compelled to pay graft—excuse me—alimony."

Mrs. Mulliner yesterday received a letter from one of the most prominent business men on Fifth avenue, saying that he has been "grafted on" by his divorced wife. It follows:

"My experience opened my eyes to the great injustice being done to honorable men every day by women who marry for a home and then think they can force a man to support them in any way and in any style or manner they may wish. I am writing to say I agree with you and want to know if some kind of a just bill cannot be made a law to shut out women grafters. Would like to see you and talk over the subject with you."

"If the men will prepare a law which will make adequate provision for a wife while she is a wife, I will advocate a law to cut off alimony entirely," said Mrs. Mulliner.

SUMMER MONTHS FATAL TO SMALL CHILDREN

Every mother must know how fatal the summer months are to small children. Cholera Infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and stomach troubles are all common at this time and many a precious life is snuffed out after only a few hours illness. As a safeguard mothers should keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes on suddenly, will bring the little one through safely. Mrs. R. E. Sanford, Inverary, Ont., writes:—"My baby was sickly for over a week with stomach and bowel troubles and cried night and day. Nothing helped her till I began giving her Baby's Own Tablets, but they helped her right away and now she is a big healthy child with fine rosy cheeks. The Tablets are certainly a wonderful medicine and I recommend them to all my friends who have little children." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NOT "CHOICE TOMATOES" ON THIS OCCASION

Toronto Mail.—A box labelled "fine long bacon" caught the eye of Provincial Constable Rowell at Matheson a few days ago, while he was looking through the freight office. It was consigned to Gowganda. As the supply of bacon is rather scarce there, the constable decided to investigate. He opened the box and found that the bacon consisted of 36 bottles of fine whiskey. This was confiscated and the people who were expecting the "bacon" will have to wait.

An English Chemist Has Discovered How to Grow Hair

In England the ladies have entirely abandoned wearing rats, which is due entirely to this new discovery. It has been proven that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-looked-for article is proven every day.

The Americans are now placing on the market a preparation containing the extract from Henna leaves which is having a phenomenal sale.

This preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure Dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. A. B. Ryan your druggist is the first to import this preparation into Fredericton and a large, generous bottle can be purchased for 50c.

Miss Annie McKay, of this city, is visiting friends in Moncton.

About twenty-five ladies were the guests of Mrs. Daniel Richards at an "all-day" picnic at The Birch on Friday. The party left the city in buckboards about eleven. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Richards' guests, Mrs. Grozier and Mrs. Berrie, of Boston, and Mrs. Conhoff, of Providence, R. I. The gentlemen arrived in time for dinner, which was served at seven o'clock. The picnic proved the most enjoyable event of the summer season and Mrs. Richards a very charming hostess.
