TEAMS READY FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET

Acadia Reported to be Strong—Records are Expected to be Broken—No Team is Confident.

St. Stephen, May 26.—Track teams from the three educational institutions, Acadia, Mount Allison and U. N. B., arrived here this morning. The three teams and their friends are quartered at the Windsor.

U. N. B. The U. N. B. has Dever and Binney in the sprints and 220 yards. Willis, Johnson and Eastman will be in the 440 yards, while Willis, Johnson and Brooks are the men for the mile. Armstrong, Kuhring and Spicer will do the hurdles. Deedes, Lank and Grimmer will show what can be done with the hammer, while Lank, Johnson and Deedes will put the shot. Kuhring, Spicer and Dever will climb the heights in the pole vault. Brooks, Robinson and Teed will be in the broad. Brooks, Robinson and Spicer will be in the high jump. They will have 14 good men for the work, but the principal hopes are believed to be centered in Binney and Johnson in the sprints. Kuhring at the pole vault, Brooks, Robinson and Spicer in the jumping contests.

MT. ALLISON.

Sackville has Ryan, Hayes and Smith in the sprints and Cochrane for the 440 yards and the latter will also be in the hammer throw and broad jump. Murray will be its representative in the high jump. Gardner and Patter in the pole vault. Thompson, Norris and White will put the shot, and the mile run will be done by Milton and Dickinson. Pickup and White will negotiate the hurdles.

ACADIA.

Acadia has an all round good team of twelve men that is regarded as fully up to the expectations. Roy and Atkins are strong men for the sprints, with Camp the champion of former meets in excellent condition for the hundred yards dash. Robinson is expected to break the record in the 220 yards, if the track is in good condition. Corry and March are expected to show up well in the mile. Atkinson and Robinson are believed to be a strong team in the 440 yards contest. Page and Howe are the heavy men and are expected to show up well in the weight contests. Porter and Spurr look good for the hurdles and Howe and Donaldson are expected to make it real interesting in the pole vault and high jump. Roy, Porter and Spurr are Acadia's men for the broad jump and they are all expected to do something. Porter has "got the habit" of springing a surprise and is expected to maintain his record tomorrow. Fitch and Page are Acadia's men for the shot put and much is expected of both, but particularly of the latter Acadia has a well-balanced team with at least one man in every event.

DIAMOND DUST

Sammy Smith, of last year's Royals, working for Toronto, held Jersey City to five hits Tuesday and won his game.

Zimmerman, at third for Newark, is a strong man, and if he finishes at the clip he has started, will make Loudon's job look easy.

Pitcher Siever of Montreal has been given his unconditional release. Manager Barrow has decided to keep Wilson who is younger and shows promise, he thinks.

Harley Rawson of Buckfield, Me., has been chosen to coach the Colby baseball nine, to succeed Bernie McGraw, who resigned two weeks ago. Rawson coached Colby in 1907 and 1908, and was coach at Bowdoin last year. An unsuccessful effort was made to secure Fred Tenney, formerly of the Boston and New York Nationals.

The Eastern League was organized at Philadelphia Jan. 4, 1884. The make up of the league was Allentown Reading, Newark, Harrisburg, Baltimore, Wilmington, Trenton and Richmond. Wilmington won the first championship with .800. Baltimore played six games and quit, with Robert Ferguson as the manager, the Union association having a club in Baltimore the same season.

Business manager Ed. Barnard of the Cleveland Club says the team is playing good ball, but is not hitting at the right time.

There were almost 22,000 people at the two games Victoria Day. With an even break on the next road trip the Leafs will drive a few big spikes into the pennant chances of other teams when they come back to the Stadium.—Toronto Globe.

Barney B. 2.27½, the first American trotter Walter Winans took to England, is dead at the age of 23.

Montreal Trims Toronto in Eastern—Athletics Land Another One Beating St. Louis Easily.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Chicago, May 26.—Chicago tightened its hold on first place today by defeating Philadelphia 2 to 0 in a light hitting game. It was the local's eighth successive victory. Overall held the visitors to one hit, while Chicago made only three safe ones. Errors helped the winners in getting runs. The Chicago club today sold Pitcher Stack to Philadelphia and unconditionally released Pitcher Mitchell, a University of Mississippi player, signed recently. Score:

Philadelphia 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 1 3

Pittsburg, May 26.—Boston defeated Pittsburg today 4 to 1. Errors spoiled the steady work of the opposing pitchers and were in part responsible for all the scoring. Brown's pitching was, however, more effective than Adam's. Pittsburg made three double plays, in all of which Wagner figured. Score by innings:

MIKE MURPHY WANTS TO BE AN AMATEUR

(St. John Telegraph.) "Mike" Murphy, hailing from that place where he thinks that there is the best chance of getting in with a "good" hockey team passed through the city last evening en route to Nova Scotia, after some months' absence from his native health "Mike" states that he is very anxious to regain his amateur standing, as he would like to participate in some track events. Rollie Norman, another hockey celebrity, was also in the city yesterday.

JIM DRISCOLL IN POOR CONDITION IN LAST BOUT

Pal Moore Lasted Better—At End of Fight Both Were Going Strong—Driscoll Going Back.

The New York World with regard to the Moore-Driscoll bout says the English boxer was decidedly off color and not in the shape he was when he fought Attell. The World says:

The result was a great surprise to all concerned, with the exception of Moore, who was the most confident boy in the world when he entered the ring. Without detracting in the least from Moore's credit it must be said that Driscoll did not display half the cleverness and speed that he showed against Abe Attell and other pugilistic stars on his former visit to these shores.

DRISCOLL WAS SOFT

Jem became easily winded and appeared to have lost the judgment of distance, and the remarkable accuracy that characterized his boxing when he fought Grover Hayes in the same ring a year ago.

Moore, on the other hand, was in superb condition. His footwork was speedy, his headwork clever and his general shape grand. There were no knockdowns. It was simply a test of condition, and Moore won.

After the prelims everybody "stretched" until a great cheer announced the approach of Moore. "Pal" was accompanied by Jimmie De Forest, his manager, and his brother, Frank Moore. Another cheer greeted Driscoll as he sprang through the ropes. Charlie Harvey, Jimmy Johnson and Boyo Driscoll took care of Jem. After the gloves were adjusted Jack McGuigan entered the ring to act as referee. Jack, who looked peaked, received a great ovation from the crowd.

Moore started with a left jab that Driscoll ducked, and then began a hurricane mix from which Moore emerged with a bloody nose. "Pal" then put over three jabs to Driscoll's nose and they mixed it again. Both traveled at a rapid pace and honors were even when the bell rang. Driscoll opened the second with a left to the body and then began some great fighting. Moore having the better of it at this style, Driscoll evened it up with a good left before the bell sounded.

MOORE PUNCHES HARD

They threw science to the winds for a while and slugged in the third. Moore beating Driscoll to the punch. Jem, seeing that he was second best at this style of mixing, grew clever and made Moore miss. They mixed it hard at the bell.

The fourth round was Moore's. He forced the milling at a lightning pace and had Driscoll missing and holding before the round was a minute old. Jem rushed and missed, but Moore put over some hard ones that made the crowd wild. It was Moore's round.

Moore more than kept pace with Driscoll in the fifth. He slammed in wallops in the clinches, at long range and when rushing in. Driscoll appeared to tire in the round, and again Moore had a shade the better of it.

Then came the sixth. Moore cut loose and began throwing punches right and left. Driscoll, cool, tried to stem the rushes, but was unable to do so, and finally met them with counter rushes. But the Philadelphia was the fresher and stronger, and although Driscoll landed a good one to the jaw it apparently had no effect on Pal. They were going hard when the bell ended it.

HORSE NOTES

The early closing events for the Central Maine fair at Waterville filled well, 48 owners naming 90 horses. The stallion race for 2.20 trotters has 10 nominations.

Ed Willis, trainer at Patchen Wilkes farm, is very much pleased with Kilpatrick, the 2 year old brother to Czarevna, 2.07½.

Dorothy Axworthy, who was beaten only a head in 2.12½, when a 2 year old, has been bred to Colorado E, who was a 2.10 2 year old trotter.

Madeline Wilkes, by Roan Wilkes, 2.04½, out of Madeline Wilkes, 2.13½, owned by A. H. Drury of Athol, will be raced over the New England half-mile tracks this season and much is expected of her.

This will be the last year for the four-corner track at Terre Haute, where so many world's records were made in the early days of the low-wheel sulky. A plot of 47 acres has been sold from it for $47,000. The present home stretch will be used as part of a half-mile track which is to be the future home of the county fair.

STERLING SORE ON AMHERST RAMBLERS

The Globe of St. John says—Mr. Ernest Sterling, of the St. John runner, arrived home Wednesday night from Amherst, where he competed in the Victoria Day sports, winning the five mile event. He was accompanied home by Mr. James Lattimer. The two St. John men registered a complaint against the Ramblers' Club. They felt very keenly the action of the members of that body in closing their large dressing room to the visiting competitors on Tuesday, the day of the races. The latter were forced to use a shed with one end exposed, preventing them from dressing until a minute or so before the races were called. Cameron and a few other Amherst runners were very indignant also and left the club's dressing and went into the shed, saying that if it was good enough for the outsiders it was good enough for them. The Ramblers club gave the flimsy excuse that their dressing room was private and they did not feel inclined to admit strangers, even closing the door in their faces.

LEW COX IS RACING AN INDIAN PONY

J. Lewis Cox, the well-known Nova Scotian trainer, who is in Medicine Hat, in a letter to the sporting editor of The Acadian Recorder, writes interestingly about a pony pacer he has in his strong. He says: He is 13½ hands high, and weighs 710 pounds; may weigh a few pounds more now, as I have him in fine condition. On his sire's side he is a grandson of Robert McGregor, 2.17½. But his dam is a Black Foot Indian or speaking more plainly, she is an Indian pony, about 13 hands high, and a pacer, and this pony goes at the pace. But Great Scott he can step some, eighth in 16 seconds. That is the furthest I have asked him to go so far. He was second last fall in 2.26½, and had an "anvil" on each right foot. He goes with me with 3 oz. forward and 4 oz. behind, and can step as I write and without a mistake. In his race last fall he was only 3 days from off the plains, no feed in him and no work, and finished his race like a bull dog. He was raced two days in succession, and his last day was the race I tell you about. There is lots of racing in this country and good purses. Kind regards to all the boys.

long distance runner of America, made his first appearance in this town and was given a hearty reception. Cameron was entered in only one event, the one-mile run, which he won in easy style in 4.50 with V. McAuley, of Windsor, second and Palmer, of Halifax, third, Patterson of Dartmouth, made a determined effort to capture this race and started off at a most killing speed, but was forced to drop out in the eleventh lap.
