NEWS OF SPORT

DISSENSION REPORTED

FROM JEFFRIES' CAMP

Choynski Expected to Clash with Jim Corbett—Sam Berger Blamed for Making Big Mistake.

San Francisco, April 21.—Notwithstanding the favorable reports sent out it is evident that there is much dissension at Jeffries' camp.

Sam Berger, though unable to handle or dictate to Jeff and "in bad" with most of the newspaper men, has made another botch by calling for Joe Choynski. This move will undoubtedly precipitate trouble, as it is believed but an effort to forestall Jim Corbett, who is due here in three weeks.

Sam Berger's brother agrees that Choynski's coming will create ill feeling and adds his brother is responsible for the new play. When I asked if it wouldn't invite a resentment from Corbett he said:

"Yes, but they would have to fight it out."

Despite all that has been said, Jeffries is really not in strict training; he is leading regular physical exercise that is followed by a business man athletically inclined. The severe work will not begin for a couple of weeks. A man of mental calibre and sauciness of Jim Corbett is much needed. Johnson has a big following here and most of the sporting writers favor his chances.

HARVARD BEAT ANNAPOLIS

Annapolis, Md., April 21.—In a chilling rain storm but over calm water, Harvard's varsity eight this afternoon bested the navy's crew by two and a half lengths over the outer two-mile course of the Severn. The winning time was 11 minutes, 17 seconds, while the navy's time was 11 minutes 26 seconds.

KLING OBEYS ORDERS

Cleveland, April 21.—August Herrmann, chairman of the National Base Ball Commission, wired John Kling at St. Louis today that if he did not report to the Chicago National ball team Monday, his recent reinstatement would be suspended for one year.

Kansas City, Mo., April 21.—John Kling, the catcher, said today to the Associated Press, when told of Chairman Herrmann's threat of suspension.

"I will leave for Chicago Saturday night and report for duty with the Chicago National League team as soon as I arrive there."

BASEBALL NOTES.

Third Baseman Otis Johnson, of the New York Americans, has joined the Jersey City Club.

All the Eastern League clubs have waived claim on Frick and Lee, of the Toronto Club. New York State League clubs are said to be after them.

In the game between Pittsburg and St. Louis on Sunday Wagner made a triple and a double in four times at bat, driving in enough runs to win the game. He is the same old Hans.

The rise and downfall of a ball player consumes but a few years. Three seasons ago Ralph "Socks" Seybold was the star outfielder of the Athletics and was a terror to all American League pitchers. "Socks" is now player-manager of the Jeanette, Pa., independent team.

Frank Arellanes, the Mexican twirler of the Boston Red Sox, has christened a new ball of his invention the Salome ball. Arellanes has been reticent concerning the reason for the name until Saturday, when he explained to Manager Pat Donovan: "Why, there's nothing on it."

ABOUT THE BOXERS.

Sam Langford has arrived in Philadelphia and resumed training for his bout with Ketchel. His manager, Joe Woodman, is in Boston.

Salisbury and Volk, amateur boxers, of Boston, are going to compete in the Canadian amateur boxing championships in Toronto this week.

Tommy Burns in a letter to-do say 04 11 3313 09090 18 pua11 union that Jeffries will win the big fight on July 4th, but states that in Australia Johnson is looked on as the favorite.

Frank Cole, a negro lightweight, died at Philadelphia Tuesday, as the result of injuries received in a boxing bout with Stanley Rodgers at the club managed by Philadelphia Jack O'Brien. Cole received a terrific solar plexus punch in the third round, and, in falling, struck the floor heavily, with his head.

Later the other principal, the seconds and O'Brien were arrested. Bail was allowed each of them.

Mr. E. W. Ferguson, sporting editor of the Moncton Transcript who is in Montreal now had a lengthy article on Fred Cameron's record previous to the Boston marathon in Wednesday's Montreal Herald.

TWO BIG CANADIAN

FIGHTERS TO MEET

Tommy Burns and Langford Will Fight Near San Francisco in September—Burns is after the Coin.

San Francisco, Cal., April 21.—The match between Tommy Burns and Sam Langford is to take place in the vicinity of San Francisco, on September 5, has been practically closed. The affair will be handled by the Mission Athletic Club, and the negotiations were conducted by Billy McCarry, the assistant match-maker.

Burns, a couple of days ago cabled that he would accept the club's second offer, which provides a purse of $30,000 of which $20,000 goes to the winner, and $10,000 to the loser. In addition to this, Burns is to receive a bonus of $5,000. These terms are satisfactory to the promoters and there is every reason to believe the matter will be closed within a couple of days.

TY COBB MAKES A BET

Detroit, April 21.—Cyrus Cobb, offered to wager $25 with Pres. Navin today that he would not be "chased" by an umpire this year. When it comes to a betting proposition, Mr. Navin is game, but today he studied the proposition carefully and declined.

Ty says he will play ball this year and do no "kicking" being called out or safe will be all the same to him. They can do anything that any umpire can do to a player, but Cobb will positively not say a word, just ball like a deaf mute.

LOCAL JOTTINGS OF SPORT.

Not extra good weather for those baseball and track squads up at U. N. B. However, rehearsals and the college play have been taking up a lot of time lately but with the play going to be put on tonight the athletes from the present time on, will have time to devote to training with nothing but studies to distract attention.

Local sports are beginning to talk Johnson-Jeffries fight in earnest. Some Frederictonians are going to take the trip to Emoryville late in June and see the big mill. There is a good chance for anyone.

At Sydney on May 24th, the five mile road championship of the Maritime Provinces will be run.

Mount Allison A.A.A. elected their officers for the coming year at their annual meeting last week. The new president is Mr. Fergus Ferguson, Moncton; vice pres., Frank Frazer St. Stephen; Sec'y., Walter Ruggles; Bear River, N.S.; treas., Fred Kinney, Louisburg, N.S. The hockey team will have as captain C. G. McDougall, Moncton and C. H. Cochran, Petitediac will captain the football team with R. P. Hartley Woodstock business manager.

COURT SAYS HASH

IS NOT MERCHANDISE

What is hash? This all important question was put up to the learned Supreme Court of the United States recently.

Regrettable to say, the mystery remains unsolved, the question is unanswered. The Supreme Court, almost omniscient, usually plain spoken and decisive, sidesteps and decides negatively.

"Hash is not merchandise." The wise justices were asked if a certain New York restaurant company is amenable to the national bankruptcy law, and answers it is not because it is "not engaged principally in trading and mercantile pursuits."

Consequently a restaurant keeper is not a merchant; the hash and the other more-or-less-edibles he sells are not merchandise.

With all due respect to the United States Supreme Court, it must be said that the justices lost an opportunity to make themselves immortal. Worse, their evasive decision fills the lay mind with doubt of its accuracy.

A collar button, a pair of scissors and other articles often found in hash are all merchandise. Better had the Supreme Court answered:

"Hash is a diversified, variegated conglomerate, manufactured synthetically and full of the unexpected."

That sounds better, and is not negative at least; is accurate. For if you go to a very cheap restaurant and order hash you will hear the tough waiter shout your order to the cook: "One review of reviews!"

WELL-MERITED APPRECIATION.

The members of the company playing in the "New Theatre" presented the other day to Dr. Horace Howard Furness of Philadelphia a medal to express their appreciation of the services he has rendered the cause of dramatic art in America in connection with the establishment of the theatre. In the published account of the incident no mention is made of the fact that Dr. Furness is the editor of the greatest edition ever published of Shakespeare's plays, for which he has been collecting material for very many years. He accepted the medal with an expression of his appreciation and of a fervent hope that the New Theatre would continue in its course of presenting the best drama to the people of the country.
