SCARCITY OF LABOUR THE CAUSE OF LAND LYING IDLE

Growing Tendency in Rural Life to Seek Good Time---Farmers of New Generation Want to Enjoy Themselves as They Go Along--Desire for a Brighter, More Interesting Life Takes Country Boys and Girls into City.

Lindsay, Aug. 9.—"I am not working half the land. I would if I could get enough help at reasonable prices," said a Mariposa farmer in speaking of the tendency shown by farmers to let a great deal of their land go out of cultivation. "Why, out our way they are offering $2 a day and board and the noften are unable to get all the labor they want."

FOR LACK OF LABOR

"You want to know the reason we can't get them?" he continued. "Well, if you had lived in our section all your life, as I have, you would know the reason. The great majority of people who lived there fifteen years ago have gone west, not only the laborers, but the farmers as well. A lot of the farms are in new hands, and the character of the farming has changed greatly as well. My father—he's over eighty—often talks of the old times when grain was the only thing grown, and when there used to be all the way from six to a dozen men working in the field where one or two have to do now. This is a good deal of a dairy section now and we feed most of the grain we grow. We haven't much help, but we manage to make a living all right."

GETTING THE MOST OUT OF LIFE

"I suppose your father thinks farming life is much easier now than it used to be, what with telephones, improved machinery, and the like?" I asked.

"I should say he does. Well, why shouldn't the farmer have it easier? He has been drudging like a slave all his life until late years and he is only showing some sense when he demands a bit of fun as well as the hard work. He has always looked forward to having an easy time some day, but myself, I see that we are not living in to-morrow or the day after and that we never will be. There never was, is, or will be any time but just now, and by jinks, I am going to clinch it."

"That is one reason I'm going back to the rocks to pick huckleberries," he continued. "Lots of people will tell me it isn't a wise time to leave the farm just now but I always enjoy roughing it and sleeping out on the rocks, and I'm going if I spend three dollars for every dollar and a half. I make, I guess my farm won't suffer either. If I stayed home to worry over the crops I don't think it would help them on, anyway."

INCREASING DESIRE FOR GOOD TIME

He took his large, cheerful presence away north to the huckleberry rocks to indulge in his game, practical and, I daresay, remunerative way of having a good time. Especially among the younger generation all over Ontario this view of life is gaining an increasing number of adherents. Unrestrained by the steady good sense of the men who picked huckleberries as a recreation in which case this philosophy was a counsel of wisdom, too many seek their good time too feverishly neglecting their farms and that comfortable sense of work well done which perhaps best repays intelligent industry.

OFF TO THE CITY.

It is also because of this desire to get from life its greatest dividends of pleasure and happiness that so many boys and girls are leaving the farm for the city. Perhaps it also actuates that small and inappreciable stream setting back from the city to the country of those who wish to avoid just what the larger stream is seeking. There are many more of these city farmers throughout Ontario mostly engaged in special departments of farming than most people imagine, and most I have seen are doing well. The growing demand for an interesting and varied existence has not, however, only taken people away from the farm, but it has multiplied comforts and conveniences on the farm itself as well, to a degree amazing to the old-time farmer, and no doubt it will eventually bring to rural life all that healthy and normal human nature has any real need or desire for.

GOOD CROPS AROUND LINDSAY

From Mr. McKenzie, the Government agricultural expert at this place and a number of others of whom I inquired, I learned that crops are looking very well indeed through this district. "We never do have what you would call an absolute failure in our crops," said one man, "What we are slim on in one crop we make up in another."

There is a bumper crop of fall wheat in all directions except at Manvers, where a strip a mile wide was destroyed by a tremendous hail-storm. The hail was about an inch and a half in diameter, not round but rough and jagged like rock candy, according to my informants. The spring wheat of which there is very little grown is below the average, and the goose wheat just an average crop. The hay crop is a good average and the prospects for the second cutting of red clover are good. Oats are a good average all over the district tapped by Lindsay. A good corn crop is assured and only the roots seem to have suffered much from the dry spell the turnips especially being patchy.

Alsike thrashed here has yielded three and a half bushels to the acre. The indications early in the season were poor but have improved considerably with rain. An average crop is the report given me but as Mariposa Brock, and, to a less extent, Ops are regarded as banner townships in the production of this seed the word average as used here means "good."

CANADA IRON MACHINE SHOP AT LONDONDERRY DESTROYED BY FIRE

Truro, N. S., Aug. 11.—Fire tonight destroyed the machine shop of the Canada Iron Corporation at Londonderry. The men had left work at 8 o'clock and the flames were breaking out at 9. The structure, which was a wooden one about eighty feet square, was completely destroyed and the tools and machinery were badly damaged, if not ruined.

The efforts of the workmen and others were mainly devoted to saving other buildings of the company, in which they were successful, the heavy rain and the direction of the wind helping them in this work; but it was a close call for the pattern shop and the general foundry, fifty feet away.

The loss will be $15,000, and is covered by insurance placed by the head office in Montreal. The Londonderry plant is very busy and the indirect loss by the cessation of work in the machine shop will be considerable. A night shift was employed.

DEATH OF R. T. PAINE WELL KNOWN ADVOCATE OF UNIVERSAL PEACE

Waltham, Mass., Aug. 11.—Robert Treat Paine, President of the American Peace Society, and a widely known philanthropist, died at his home here tonight.

The end came at 10.40 p. m., very peacefully, the sick man sinking into death almost imperceptibly. At his bedside were his sons, George and Robert Treat Paine, Jr., and his physician.

It was through his efforts in behalf of peace among the countries of the world that Robert Treat Paine became a figure of more than national prominence. As President of the American Peace Society his work occasionally took him to Europe, and at The Hague his name was enrolled among the prominent advocates of disarmament.

BRIDEGROOM DISAPPEARED

Albert Melanson, to Have Been Married Tuesday Morning, Cannot be Found.

(Moncton Times.)

The disappearance on the morning he was to be wedded has placed the fiancée and relatives of Mr. Albert Melanson, of this city, in a state of grave anxiety. It appears that on Tuesday morning, about six o'clock, Mr. Melanson left his boarding house at Mr. Sawyer's, Lower Main Street, to go to the livery stable for a team. The ceremony was to take place in St. Bernard's Church at seven o'clock. Since he left the boarding house no tidings of his whereabouts can be ascertained, notwithstanding the diligent search which has been made by his brother, Mr. Andrew Melanson, Telegraph Street, the police and his friends. As a natural sequence of such a disappearance the fiancée, Miss Minnie Goguen, Lower Steadman Street, is very much distressed, and is firmly of the opinion that something serious has happened to him. While this is not impossible, yet it is thought that he might have left town in order to avoid the marriage. But if this was the case his friends think he would have taken with him the new suit case he purchased specially for the wedding. As it was, he only took the trousers, leaving the rest of the suit behind. Monday night he, with Miss Goguen, called on the latter's sister, on Lutz Street, and then everything seemed all right.

Mr. Melanson, brother of the missing man, does not know what to make of it, but says that they will search for him until he is found. He has communicated by telephone with Shediac, Cocagne and Hillsboro, but can elicit no information of his whereabouts. If an accident has not occurred, Mr. Melanson believes that he might be in Hillsboro, as his brother was formerly employed in the quarries of that place.

The missing man was employed by The Paul Lea Co., Ltd. He is about 5 feet 7 inches in height, thick set and clean shaven. When last seen he had on a black pair of trousers, blue coat and hard hat.

READ HIS OWN OBITUARY NOTICE

Funeral was all Arranged for When the Supposed Dead Man Walked in, and Said His Death was News to Him.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—After being mourned as dead for several hours yesterday, and after arrangements had been made for his funeral, Frank Barton yesterday evening walked into the Bay Tree Hotel, where he had been formerly employed.

Barton's appearance greatly surprised Mr. James McCaffrey, the proprietor, who had some time before arranged to bear the expenses of the supposed dead man's funeral.

"I thought you were dead," gasped Mr. McCaffrey, as Barton came into his office.

IT WAS NEWS TO HIM.

"It's news to me," responded Barton.

Without any further questioning, Mr. McCaffrey rushed to the telephone and informed the undertaker to cancel the order for the burial of Frank Barton, as the story of his death was in the words of the late lamented Mark Twain, very much exaggerated. It appears that the body of another man found floating in the waterworks dock yesterday morning was mistakenly identified as that of Barton.

READ HIS OWN OBITUARY.

In the meantime Barton, who was unaware of the fact that he had been reported dead, perused the announcement of his own drowning in the evening papers.

"You are a pretty lucky individual," said Mr. McCaffrey as Barton was leaving. "If you had not accidentally dropped in here tonight I would have been minus the cost of the funeral of the wrong man."

Barton was formerly employed as a kitchen man at the Bay Tree Hotel. He left there about a week ago.

BODY IDENTIFIED.

The body taken out of the bay turned out to be that of Joseph Bennett, a cook on the steamer "Juno," who boarded at 41 Peter street. In his pocket were found some papers belonging to Barton, who lives at the same address.

Coroner Kerr is investigating, and will hold an inquest on the remains of Bennett.

INTERCOLONIAL BRANCH LINES.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—The acquisition, by lease, of branch lines for the Intercolonial Railway was discussed by the Board of Management of the road at its recent meeting in Montreal, but no decision was arrived at, nor is one likely to be announced for a while yet. The companies are most anxious to sell. Pressure is being exerted upon the board by residents in the respective localities to make a purchase because they see the probability of improved service. According to what the members of the board saw on their recent inspection it would involve a very heavy outlay by the companies to measure up to required standards. These limitations are found to prevent the sale of many of the lines anxious to be bought out, but it is probable that before many weeks a recommendation will be made for the acquisition of certain of the roads that are of the better class.
